“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Maurice de Bunsen.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by the Medical Act, 1886, it is provided (amongst other things) that His Majesty may, from time to time, by Order in Council, declare that the Second Part of the said Act shall be deemed, on and after a day to be named in such Order, to apply to any Foreign Country which in His Majesty’s opinion affords to the medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said Foreign Country as to His Majesty may seem just, and from and after the day named in such Order in Council such Foreign Country shall be deemed to be a Foreign Country to which the said Act applies, within the meaning of the Second Part thereof, and that until such Order in Council has been made in respect of any Foreign Country the said Second Part of the said Act shall not be deemed to apply to any such Country.

And whereas the Kingdom of Belgium affords, in His Majesty’s opinion, to the registered medical practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in Belgium as to His Majesty seems just, during the continuance of the present War.

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, direct, and declare that the Second Part of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be deemed, from the date of this Order, to apply to the Kingdom of Belgium, until it is otherwise ordered.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Maurice de Bunsen.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, His Majesty has power to extend to the Isle of Man any Act which, in the opinion of His Majesty, was passed for the purpose of meeting any Emergency created by the present War, subject to adaptations for the purpose of making the Act applicable to the Isle of Man :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Trading with the Enemy Act, 1914 (hereinafter called the Principal Act), and the Trading with the Enemy Amendment Act, 1914 (hereinafter called the Amending Act), shall extend to the Isle of Man, subject to the following adaptations, that is to say:—

1. For the words “under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts,” wherever they occur in such Acts, there shall be substituted the words “before a High Bailiff or two Justices of the Peace”; and for the words “a Secretary of State or the Board of Trade,” “the Board of Trade,” or “the Board,” wherever they occur in such Acts, the words “the Lieutenant-Governor.”

2. In section 1 (1) (b) of the Principal Act after the word “indictment” there shall be read the words “or information.”

For section 4 of the Principal Act there shall be substituted the following provision:—

“4.—(1) This Act may be cited as ‘The Trading with the Enemy (Isle of Man) Act, 1914.’

“(2) In this Act, the expression ‘Justice’ shall include a High Bailiff, and the expression ‘High Court’ shall mean the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man.”

3. In subsection (2) of section 3; subsections (2) and (5) of section 8; and subsection (2) of section 10, of the amending Act, for the words “United Kingdom,” wherever they occur, there shall be substituted the words “Isle of Man.”

In section 4 (1) of the amending Act, for the words “any Government Department” there shall be substituted the words “the Attorney-General.”

In section 4 (3) of the amending Act, for the figures “1893” there shall be substituted “1903.”

For subsection (5) of section 5 of the amending Act, there shall be substituted the following provision:—

“The Judges of the High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man may, by rules, make provision for the practice and procedure to be adopted for the purposes of this and the last preceding section.”

The statutory declaration referred to in section 9 (1) (a) of the amending Act may be made by an Advocate in the Isle of Man.
