FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1915.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of January 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Chamberlain.

Sir Maurice de Bunsen.

Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, or other lawful means, His Majesty the King has power, jurisdiction, and authority, within the territory known as Swaziland:

And whereas the Swaziland Crown Lands and Minerals Order in Council, 1908, as amended by the Swaziland Crown Lands and Minerals Amendment Order in Council, 1910, vested as Crown Lands in His Majesty's High Commissioner for South Africa on behalf of His Majesty such lands in the said territory as should not be set apart and demarcated by or on the authority of the High Commissioner for the sole and exclusive occupation of natives of the territory:

And whereas it is expedient to empower the High Commissioner to effect exchanges of Crown Lands for portions of lands which have been so set apart and demarcated, and to expropriate for public purposes portions of such lands and to set apart Crown Lands in compensation for lands so expropriated:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. "Native Area" shall as the context requires mean either the land set apart for the sole and exclusive use and occupation of natives under the provisions of any Proclamation issued by the High Commissioner for that purpose or any separate piece or area of such land.

2. Where the Paramount Chief and Council of the Swazis have requested or agreed that lands included in any Native Area should be exchanged for Crown Lands the High Commissioner may, by notice published in the Official Gazette of the High Commissioner, authorize such exchange. Every such notice shall contain an exact description of the respective lands the exchange of which is authorized thereby, and shall state the date on which exchange shall take effect.

3. On and after the date specified in any notice issued under section 2 the land therein described included in any Native Area shall be freed from any right or title to the use or occupation thereof possessed by natives by virtue of its having theretofore been part of the Native Area and shall be vested in the High Commissioner as Crown Land for all the purposes of the Swaziland Crown Lands and Minerals Order in Council, 1908, or any amendment thereof. On and after the same date the Crown Lands described in such notice shall cease to be Crown Lands, and to be vested in the High Commissioner, and shall become and be to all intents and purposes portion of the Native Area.

4. The High Commissioner may, by Proclamation, expropriate any land included in any Native Area which, in his opinion, is required for any public purpose. Any such Proclamation shall contain an exact description of the lands to be expropriated, and of the purposes for which they are required, and may provide for any Crown Lands to be therein described being set apart as compensation for the expropriated lands if it shall appear to the High Commissioner, having regard to the circumstances of the case, to be just and reasonable that such compensation should be made.

5. On and after the date of the taking effect of any such Proclamation the land expropriated thereby shall be freed from any right or title to the use or occupation thereof possessed by natives by virtue of its having theretofore been part of the Native Area, and shall be vested in the High Commissioner as Crown Lands, and any Crown Lands set apart by such Proclamation by way of compensation shall cease to be Crown Lands, and to be vested in the High Commissioner, and shall become and be to all intents and purposes portion of the Native Area.

6. Where any land which has been expropriated under the provisions of this Order ceases to be required for public purposes the High Commissioner may declare, by Proclamation, that such land has ceased from the date of such Proclamation to be Crown Land, and to be vested in him, and such land shall thereupon become and be to all intents and purposes portion of the Native Area.

7. This Order shall be published in the Gazette of the High Commissioner for South Africa, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation, and the High Commissioner shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places, and in such a manner, and for such time or times, as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within Swaziland.

8. His Majesty may at any time add to, alter, or amend this Order.

9. This Order may be cited for all purposes as "The Swaziland Crown Lands and Native Areas Exchange and Expropriation Order in Council, 1915."

1. In these Rules—

The expression "the Act" means the Trading with the Enemy Amendment Act, 1914.

The expression "the custodian" has the same meaning as in the Act; and the expression "enemy" has a meaning corresponding with that given to "enemies" in the Act.

The expression "property" means any real or personal property, including any rights, whether legal or equitable, in or arising out of property real or personal.

References to sections and sub-sections are references to sections and sub-sections of the Act.

2.—(1) Applications under Section 4 shall be by way of originating summons and shall be made to the Chancery Division of the High Court, and such applications and any subsequent applications shall in general and except so far as hereby otherwise provided be made and dealt with mutatis mutandis in accordance with the practice of that Division with regard to similar matters under the Rules of the Supreme Court and otherwise.

(2) Any respondent to the originating summons shall not be required to enter any appearance thereto and accordingly Rule 4E of Order LIV of the Rules of the Supreme Court shall apply thereto.

(3) In all cases where the originating summons is not taken out by the custodian, he shall be named as a respondent thereto and it shall be served on him unless the Court shall in any case or class of cases otherwise order.

(4) In general and except so far as the Court may otherwise order the enemy to whom any property may be alleged to belong shall be named as a respondent to any originating summons under Section 4, and any person or corporation holding or managing any property alleged to belong to the enemy may also be named as a respondent to the originating summons.

(5) Originating summonses under Section 4 shall be entitled in the matter of the Act and in the matter of the enemy or alleged enemy in question and may be in the form or to the effect set out in the Schedule hereto.

(6) Any powers of selling, managing, or otherwise dealing with property that may be given to the custodian by any order made under Section 4 of the Act may from time to time be revoked, suspended, varied, increased, added to, or otherwise dealt with as the Court or a Judge shall from time to time think fit on application made either under liberty reserved by the original order or otherwise.

2. On any application under Section 4 the applicant must file an affidavit or affidavits for the purpose of showing—

(a) that the enemy, whose property is proposed to be dealt with, is an enemy;

(b) the nature and extent of the property in which the enemy is alleged to be interested;

(c) any special ground on which it is expedient that the property should be vested in the custodian; and

(d) in cases where the applicant is not the custodian or a Government Department, the facts showing that the applicant is a creditor of the enemy or otherwise entitled to apply under Section 4.

3.—(1) Any subsequent application with regard to any property comprised in any originating summons under Section 4 or vested in the custodian may be made by ordinary summons entitled in the same matters as the originating summons.

(2) In cases where any party has already appeared by a solicitor any such ordinary summons may be served on that solicitor or in case of a change of solicitors on the solicitor last appearing for that party although no general appearance in the matter has been entered.

(3) Every subsequent application not made by the custodian shall be served on him unless the Court shall in any case or class of cases otherwise order.

4.—(1) Any application under Section 5 (2) of the Act for payment out of property vested in the custodian of any debt or debts shall, if made to the Court or Judge by whose order the property was vested in the custodian, be made and dealt with as follows:—

(2) The application shall be deemed a subsequent application for the purpose of the last preceding rule.

(3) The Court or Judge may on the hearing of the application direct all such accounts and inquiries as may be necessary or proper for the purpose of ascertaining the total debts and claims having priority to or ranking with the debt or debts proposed to be paid in whole or part, and (if thought fit) the property available for the payment of such debts and claims, and may for that purpose direct the custodian or any party to issue such advertisements and require such proof by statutory declaration or otherwise as may be expedient. And the custodian may, if he think fit, carry out the duties imposed on him by the proviso to Section 5 (2) under the direction of the Court.

(4) In directing any payment or payments under Section 5 (2) the Court or Judge shall act in accordance with the ordinary rules and practice of the Chancery Division of the High Court in the administration of estates but so nevertheless that the Court shall not be bound to inquire into or take into account or to cause the custodian to inquire into or take into account debts and claims against the enemy to any greater extent than provided for by the proviso to Section 5 (2).

5.—(1) Any application under Section 5 (2) of the Act for payment out of property vested in the custodian of any debt or debts shall, if made to a Court in which judgment has been recovered against an enemy as such Court, be made and dealt with to and by that Court as follows:—

(2) It shall be made by summons in the proceeding in which judgment has been recovered.

(3) Such summons shall be addressed to and served on the custodian in addition to any other proper party and shall be returnable and heard as the Court in question shall direct.

(4) If on the hearing of a summons under this rule it shall happen either that the custodian makes no objection to making the payment or some part thereof or if it shall otherwise appear clear to the Court that the payment or some part thereof ought to be made and can be made without prejudice to other persons owing debts or claims against the enemy in question then and in either of the said cases the Court may make an order for payment accordingly but so nevertheless as not to prejudice or affect the duty of the custodian under the proviso to Section 5 (2).

(5) In any other case than those provided for by the last preceding sub-rule and also in any case thereby provided for where a partial payment only has been ordered the Court in which judgment has been recovered shall not as such Court order any payment or any further payment as the case may be but may and in general shall transfer the application to be dealt with by the Court or Judge by whose order the property was vested in the custodian.

6. Any application under this Act whether original subsequent or other may be proceeded with heard and dealt with by the Court or a Judge if thought fit in the absence of an enemy or any other party who may be or appear to be abroad or whose whereabouts may not be known or whose presence may otherwise be difficult to secure and without service of any summons or notice of summons on any such party or any intimation to such party other than such if any as the Court shall think fit. And this sub-rule shall be in addition to and by way of extension and enlargement of the ordinary powers and practice of the Court as to proceedings ex parte and as to substituted service.

7. The Court may at any stage of the proceedings on any application under Section 4 or Section 5 order that the case shall thenceforward be heard in private.

8. Any order made under Section 4 or Section 5 of these Rules may, should subsequent circumstances render it just so to do, be suspended discharged or otherwise varied or altered by the Court which made such order.

9. The following fees shall be payable under these Rules, that is to say—

On any summons whether original or subsequent 2s. 6d.

Provided that the Court may remit or excuse either in whole or part any court fees paid or payable under this rule.

10. The proceedings on any application under the Act shall so far as not otherwise provided for by these Rules be conducted in accordance with the ordinary practice dealing with similar matters of the Court to which application is made. And the costs of all, and incidental to all, such proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Court.

11. In the case of any property within the jurisdiction of a palatinate Court any original application which would under the foregoing rules be made to the Chancery Division may if the applicant think fit be made to the palatinate Court and if so made any subsequent proceedings shall also take place in that Court and the foregoing rules shall mutatis mutandis apply to any such original and subsequent proceedings.

11A. These Rules may be cited as The Trading with the Enemy (Vesting and Application of Property) Rules, 1915, and shall come into operation forthwith.

RULES.

THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY (SUSPECTED COUPONS) RULES, 1915, MADE UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1914.

1. In these Rules—

The expression “enemy” has a meaning corresponding with that given by the Act to the expression “enemies.”

The expression “suspecting presentee” means any company, municipal authority, or other body or person to whom during the continuance of the present war a coupon or other security transferable by delivery is presented for payment, and who has reason to suspect that it is so presented on behalf of the benefit of an enemy, or that since the commencement of the present war it has been held by or for the benefit of an enemy.

The expression “suspected coupons” means any coupon or coupons or other security or securities transferable by delivery, or batch of such coupons or securities that may during the currency of the present war be presented for payment to a suspecting presentee.

Where a suspecting presentee desires under Section 7 of the Act to make a payment into Court of money due in respect of suspected coupons, he shall make and file in the Chancery Division of the High Court an affidavit intituled in the matter of the suspected coupons (described so as to be distinguishable so far as may be) and in the matter of the Act, and setting forth or indicating either in the affidavit itself or in one or more exhibits thereto:—

(a) Short particulars of the suspected coupons with names, numbers, dates, and amounts for the purpose of the identification thereof, so far as reasonably practicable.

(b) The name, so far as known, of the party actually presenting the suspected coupons, and his place of residence to the best of the suspecting presentee's knowledge and belief.

(c) The circumstances producing suspicion in the mind of the suspecting presentee, and the name of the suspected enemy and his place of residence to the best of the suspecting presentee's knowledge and belief.

(d) The submission of the suspecting presentee to answer all such inquiries relating to the application of the money paid into Court as the Court or a Judge may make or direct.

(e) The place where the suspecting presentee is to be served with any petition, summons, or order or notice of any proceeding relating to the money paid in.

3. On making any payment into Court as aforesaid, the suspecting presentee shall forthwith proceed to give, so far as may be, notice thereof by prepaid letter through the post to the party actually presenting the suspecting coupons and to the suspected enemy or to some person thought likely to be in communication with the suspected enemy.

4.—(1) No petition or summons relating to the money paid in shall be answered or issued unless the petitioner or applicant has named therein a place where he may be served with any petition or notice of any proceeding or order relating to the money paid in or any income thereof.

(2) Service shall be made or such other notice or intimation given as the Court or a Judge shall direct on or to such persons (if any) as the Court or a Judge shall direct of any application in respect of the money paid in or any income thereof: Provided that (by way of extension of the powers and practice of the Court) the Court or a Judge may, if thought fit, proceed in the absence of any such service, notice, or intimation on or to any enemy (including the suspected enemy) or other person who may be or appear to be abroad, or whose whereabouts may not be known.

(3) Applications to deal with money paid into Court under the Act shall be intituled in the same manner as the affidavit on which the money was paid in.

5. Money paid in under Section 7 of the Act and these rules may, on the request of the suspecting presentee when paying in or on any subsequent application, be placed on deposit or invested in any securities available for the investment of cash under the control of the Court.

6. The proceedings and practice with reference to moneys paid into Court under Section 7 of the Act and the dealings therewith shall, so far as not otherwise provided for by these Rules, be in accordance with the ordinary practice of the Chancery Division with reference to moneys paid into Court on affidavit under Section 42 of the Trustee Relief Act, 1893.
