Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
8570	Quartermaster-Serjeant	Rowe, A. R. R. ...	2nd Battalion Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment	For gallantry and conspicuous ability on 20th October at La Vallee, in handling a party of 60 men when no Officer was available, and selecting and holding an important post during the emergency.
7078	Lance-Corporal	Royal, G. ...	1st Battalion, Gloucestershire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry, coolness and ability on 8th November near Zillebeke, when he organised a first-aid post without supervision, and gallantly attended on the wounded throughout the day under heavy shell fire. When his station was partly destroyed by a shell, he superintended the removal of the wounded without hurry or confusion.
9428	Private ...	Royan, A. ...	2nd Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders	For gallantry on 19th October near Frelinghien, in proceeding with two other men to occupy some buildings held by the enemy, under heavy fire.
3646	Private ...	Savage, R. ...	10th Hussars ...	For gallant conduct in assisting his Squadron leader who was severely wounded, under very heavy shell and rifle fire.
9770	Private ...	Senior, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For gallant conduct on 28th October, in assisting to bring into cover a wounded comrade who had been lying close to the German trenches for a long period, and again on 5th November, when he acted in a similarly courageous manner.
4922	Serjeant ...	Sessions, A. ...	4th Dragoon Guards	For very gallant conduct at Wulverghem on 3rd November, when he assisted his Squadron leader to withstand several attacks by the enemy, after over fifty per cent. of the Squadron had been killed or wounded, and the trenches destroyed by shell fire. On two previous occasions he acted with the greatest gallantry in critical situations.
4967	Lance-Corporal	Seton, A. E. ...	9th Lancers ...	For great gallantry near Messines on 31st October, when he remained in action with his machine gun after his Squadron had retired, and engaged the enemy until they were within 20 yards distance, thereby enabling his Squadron to recover the trench by a counter attack. Has performed similarly gallant actions on previous occasions.
3503	Squadron-Quartermaster-Serjeant	Shakespeare, W. ...	18th Hussars (P.S. North Somerset Yeomanry)	For gallant conduct on 17th November, during the attack on the trenches.
28615	Saddler Corporal	Shave, A. H. ...	117th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct on 31st October near Veldhoek, when his battery was enfiladed by high explosive shell fire, and assailed by shrapnel and rifle fire from the front, he served as gun-layer with the last gun of the battery until forced to retire by the approach of the enemy in force.
3422	Private ...	Shaw, W. C. ...	1st Royal Dragoons ...	For gallantry on 19th October near St. Pieter in rescuing a wounded comrade under heavy fire.
20758	Lance-Corporal	Sheale, R. G. ...	1st Signal Company, Royal Canadian Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry at Tour De Paissy on 18th September, in continuing to transmit messages from a building which was being severely shelled, and remaining at his post notwithstanding that a shell had burst in the room in which he was working.
7407	Lance-Serjeant	Shields, J. ...	1st Battalion, Scots Guards	For conspicuous gallantry and ability from 27th October to 11th November near the Menin Road, when he obtained much valuable information at great risk whilst patrolling. Was very useful against hostile snipers until wounded.
