CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,

ST. JAMES'S PALACE, S.W.,

March 3, 1915.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointment to the Most Honourable Order of the Bath:—

To be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the Third Class or Companion.

Captain John Luce, Royal Navy.

ADMIRALTY, S.W., March 3, 1915.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Carpenter Thomas Andrew Walls.
 Carpenter William Henry Venning.
 Carpenter George Henry Egford.

The following awards have also been made:—

To receive the Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.

Portsmouth R.F.R.B./3307 Sergeant Charles Mayes, H.M.S. "Kent." A shell burst and ignited some cordite charges in the casemate; a flash of flame went down the hoist into the ammunition passage. Sergeant Mayes picked up a charge of cordite and threw it away. He then got hold of a fire hose and flooded the compartment, extinguishing the fire in some empty shell bags which were burning. The extinction of this fire saved a disaster which might have led to the loss of the ship.

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

Chief Petty Officer David Leighton, O.N. 124238.
