ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of May 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the powers conferred on Him by the Special Constables Act, 1914, His Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council dated the 17th day of September 1914 (called the Special Constables (Scotland) Order, 1914), to make Regulations respecting Special Constables in Scotland:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Special Constables (Scotland) Order, 1914, shall have effect, and shall be deemed always to have had effect, as if after Regulation 1 the following Regulation were inserted:—

“1A. If any Special Constable dies from any illness contracted in the execution of his duty the Police Authority may, if they think fit, grant gratuities to his widow and children, or any of them, at the same rates as are payable in the case of Police Constables who have completed not more than five years' service and are drawing pay at the rate of five shillings a day, and such gratuities shall be paid out of the Police Fund.”

ALMERIC FITZROY.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 1st day of May 1915, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by Section 1 of the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1914, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Your Majesty, by Your Order in Council, to frame a Scheme as to the pensions, grants, and other allowances in the nature thereof, to be paid to persons, not being Officers or Seamen of the Royal Navy, or Officers or Soldiers of any of Your Majesty's Land or Marine Forces, in respect of injuries suffered by them whilst employed afloat by or under the Admiralty, or Army Council, in connection with warlike operations in which Your Majesty is engaged, and, in the case of their death, to their widows and other dependants:

"And whereas it is further enacted in the said Section of the said Act that Your Order in Council shall specify the persons to whom it applies and the conditions under which it becomes applicable, and that Your Order may include persons not in the direct employment of the Admiralty or Army Council, and persons employed in Commissioned Ships, notwithstanding that by reason of such employment they are subject to the Naval Discipline Act:

"And whereas it is further enacted in the said Section of the said Act that a person to whom any such Order in Council applies shall not, nor in the case of his death shall his widow or other dependants or his personal representatives, in respect of any injury suffered by him whilst the Order in Council so applies to him, be entitled to any pensions or other benefits under any other Order in Council or any Warrant or Regulations relating to Officers and Men in the Naval or Military Service of the Crown, or to any compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, or to any compensation or damages at common law or under the Employers' Liability Act, 1880, or any other Statute, or to any gratuity or any superannuation or other allowance under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1909, or to any pension or allowance under the Greenwich Hospital Acts, 1865 to 1898, except so far as the Order in Council otherwise provides:

"And whereas it is further enacted in the said Section of the said Act that an Order in Council under the said Act may provide that the Order shall have effect as from the 3rd day of August 1914, and that any such Order in Council may be revoked or varied by a subsequent Order:

"And whereas by Section 2 of the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1914 (Session 2), it is enacted that the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1914, shall extend to pensions, grants, and other allowances in respect of disablement by sickness specifically attributable to the nature and condition of the employment in like manner as it applies to pensions and other allowances in respect of injuries:

"And whereas a Scheme of the nature indicated by the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1914, was framed by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the 10th day of August 1914:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable to extend the provisions of the said Scheme to the cases to which it is authorised to be extended by the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1914 (Session 2), and to vary the said Scheme in other respects:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to cancel the Scheme framed by Your Order in Council bearing date the 10th day of August 1914, and to sanction in substitution therefore, and with effect from the 3rd day of August 1914, payment of the pensions, grants, and other allowances, to the persons, on the scales, and subject to the conditions, specified in the annexed Schedule.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

"SCHEDULE.

"PERSONS TO WHOM THE SCHEME APPLIES.

"The following Scheme of pensions, grants, and allowances in the nature thereof, shall apply as from the 3rd day of August 1914, to all Officers and Men of Fleet Auxiliaries (other than ranks and ratings in receipt of Naval Pay) and Officers and Men of the War Department Examination Service and other persons employed afloat (whether directly or indirectly) by or under the Admiralty or Army Council, who may be injured on duty during employment afloat in connection with warlike operations in which His Majesty is engaged, or may be disabled by sickness specifically attributable to the nature and conditions of such employment, and to the dependants of any such persons who may be killed on duty during such employment or die from and as the result of an injury sustained on such duty and during such employment within 7 years of the date on which the injury was sustained, or from and as the result of sickness specifically attributable to the nature and conditions of such employment within 7 years from the commencement of the sickness or the termination of the employment, whichever shall be the earlier, provided that the Scheme shall only apply to injuries sustained and disablements caused and deaths occurring or resulting from injuries sustained or disablements caused during the continuance of the present War, and shall not apply to Officers and Men of the Royal Naval Reserve, Royal Fleet Reserve, or Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, or to Naval Pensioners serving in the Fleet and in receipt of Naval Rates of Pay during such service, or to any other Officers or Seamen of the Royal Navy or Officers or Soldiers of any of His Majesty's Land or Marine Forces.

"Dependants' in this Scheme shall be deemed to include all persons who were in fact dependent wholly or partially on the earnings of persons killed or dying as mentioned above.

"SCALES OF PENSIONS, GRANTS, AND OTHER ALLOWANCES, AND CONDITIONS OF PAYMENT.

"Injury and Disablement Pensions.

"If the injury or disablement results in total destruction of earning capacity, a pension equal to two-thirds pay during the period of such total incapacity.

"If the injury or disablement results in partial impairment of earning capacity, a pension during the period of such partial impairment of earning capacity equal to:—

"One-sixth pay in respect of slight impairment of earning capacity.

"One-third pay in respect of impairment of earning capacity which is more than slight but is not material.

"Half pay in respect of material impairment of earning capacity.

"All awards shall be subject to periodical review, and dependent upon the degree of impairment of earning capacity for the time being as described above, provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the Admiralty or Army Council to award a pension at the maximum rate for a period not exceeding 6 calendar months from the date of injury irrespective of the degree of impairment of earning capacity.

"PENSIONS AND ALLOWANCES TO WIDOWS AND OTHER DEPENDANTS."

"If any of the above-mentioned persons be killed on duty during such employment as aforesaid, or die from and as the result of an injury sustained on such duty and during such employment within 7 years of the date on which the injury was sustained, or from and as the result of sickness specifically attributable to the nature and conditions of such employment within 7 years from the commencement of the sickness or the termination of the employment, whichever shall be the earlier, there may be awarded at the discretion of the Admiralty or Army Council:—

"(a) To a widow a pension equal to one-third pay, or £26 per annum, whichever be greater, and

"(b) To or for the benefit of each child (other than a motherless child) until the age of 16, an allowance equal to one twenty-fourth of pay, or £6, 10s. per annum, whichever be greater, but so that if and whilst the number of children (other than as aforesaid) shall be more than four the total amount payable for the benefit of the said children shall not exceed one-sixth of pay, or £26 per annum, whichever be the greater, and shall be divided equally between the said children.

"(c) To or for the benefit of each motherless child, an allowance equal to one-twelfth of pay, or £13 per annum, whichever be greater, until the age of 16, provided, however, that the total annual sum payable in respect of any one family of motherless children shall in no case exceed the annual sum which might have been paid under this Scheme in respect of the same family had the mother been alive, and in receipt of a pension.

"Any allowance awarded to or for the benefit of a child may be paid either to the child or to the child's mother or to any other person on behalf of the child.

"If there be no award to a widow, a pension for life or for a limited period may be awarded at the discretion of the Admiralty or Army Council to some other dependant of the deceased man, provided that the annual amount of such pension shall in no case exceed:—

"(i) If there be no children, the annual amount which might have been paid to a widow, or

"(ii) If there be allowances in course of payment to or for the benefit of the deceased man's children such annual sum as when added to the annual amount of the children's allowances will equal the provision that might have been made under the Scheme for a widow with a like number of children.

"The payment of an allowance to any child may be made or continued after such child shall have attained the age of 16 if it be shown to the satisfaction of the Admiralty or Army Council that such child is afflicted with mental or bodily infirmity rendering him or her incapable of making any exertion for his or her own support, and that he or she is in distressed circumstances. Provided always that the infirmity dates from a period before the death of the person so killed or dying, and before the child reaches the age of 16.

"In the event of a widow's remarriage her pension shall cease, but the Admiralty or Army Council may, at their discretion, award to her a lump sum not exceeding the amount by which three years' pay or £300 (whichever of the two shall be the less), or £150, if three years' pay shall be less than £150, exceeds the aggregate of (a) the total sum already paid in respect of her pension, and of the allowance (if any) to children, and (b) the estimated value of the future allowances (if any) to children.

"Similarly in the event of the allowances awarded to the widow, children, or other dependants, lapsing before the amount paid in respect thereof equals in the aggregate three years' pay or £300 (whichever be less), or £150 (if three years' pay be less than £150), the Admiralty or Army Council may, at their discretion, award a lump sum not exceeding the difference to any dependants then remaining.

"In the event of any lump sum being awarded the Admiralty or Army Council shall have power to take any precautions against the squandering thereof—e.g., by entrusting it to Trustees to be administered in specified payments or to be applied wholly or partly for the children's education or otherwise.

"Proof of dependency may be made a condition of the grant of any pension or allowance whether to a widow, or to a child, or to any other person.

"The Admiralty or Army Council may, at their discretion, interpret the word 'child' as including, in any particular case arising under this Scheme, any dependant under the age of 16; and the words 'motherless child' shall include any dependent child to whose mother, although alive, no pension shall have been awarded, provided that the said words shall not include a child living with any person to whom a pension may for the time being be paid.

"DEFINITION OF THE TERM 'PAY.'"

"For the purposes of this Scheme pay shall be computed as follows:—

"(1) In the case of Officers and Men serving in ships chartered by the Admiralty, whether with or without demise to the Crown, pay shall be deemed to be the pay (including a victualling allowance at the rate of 3s. a day for Officers and 1s. 6d. a day for Men, when pay does not include victualling) of the present rank ruling in the ship, or in ships of corresponding size and character, at a date six calendar months prior to the commencement of the present War.

"(2) In the case of casual labourers, engaged for Fleet coaling afloat, whether in the direct employment of the Admiralty or not, pay shall be deemed to be the normal wages of an unskilled labourer at the place of engagement at a date six calendar months prior to the commencement of the said War.

"(3) In all other cases pay shall be computed in such manner as is best calculated to give the rate at which the person was being remunerated during the year preceding 3rd August 1914, provided that when it is impracticable to compute pay in such manner pay shall be taken to be such amount as the Admiralty or Army Council may determine having regard to the amount of the earnings of persons in similar employment during the same year.

"LIMITATION OF BENEFITS IN THE CASE OF PERSONS ENTITLED TO DAMAGES OR COMPENSATION AT COMMON LAW, OR UNDER ANY ACT OTHER THAN THE INJURIES IN WAR (COMPENSATION) ACT, 1914.

"No person who is eligible to benefit under this Scheme shall lose by virtue thereof any gratuity or any superannuation or other allowance for which he may be eligible under any provision of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1914, and any person who, if this Scheme had not been framed, and the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1914, had not been passed, would have been entitled to any gratuity or allowance in respect of injury under Section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1887, or to any pension or allowance under the Greenwich Hospital Acts, 1865 to 1898, or (not being a person or a dependant or legal personal representative of a person in the direct employ of the Crown) to any compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, or any damages or compensation at Common Law, or under the Employers' Liability Act, 1880, or any other Statute, shall remain entitled to the gratuity, allowance, pension, compensation, or damages, as the case may be, but shall be entitled to benefit under this Scheme only to the extent, if any, by which the value of the benefits it confers exceeds the value of the gratuity, allowance, pension, compensation, or damages, as the case may be.

"Values for the purposes of this Scheme shall be decided, at their sole discretion, by the Admiralty or Army Council, who may, at the like discretion, increase or diminish any of them if and whenever circumstances shall change, and may in estimating the value of any compensation payable to dependants under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, take into account the full amount of the compensation payable or awarded without having regard to the mode of its distribution under the said Act, and there shall be no appeal from the decision.

"Any pension or allowance awarded under this Scheme may, at the discretion of the Admiralty or Army Council, be commuted for a single payment, the amount of which shall be settled between the party entitled and the Admiralty or Army Council, as the case may be, and in any case in which the Admiralty or Army Council may think such a course desirable they may award a lump sum of such amount as they may determine in lieu of any pension or allowance.

"No injured or disabled person shall receive as the result of this Scheme a total annual payment out of the Public Funds in excess of his pay at the date of the injury or disablement.

"BENEFITS NOT ASSIGNABLE.

"A payment under this Scheme shall not be capable of being assigned, charged, or attached, and shall not pass to any other person by operation of law, and where the Admiralty or Army Council shall consider it desirable in the interest of any person to whom any payment is hereby directed or authorised to be made they may appoint a Trustee or Trustees and pay the money to him or them to be administered for the benefit of such person, or his dependants, or any of them, and the receipt of the Trustee or Trustees shall be a good discharge to the Admiralty or the Army Council for the same.

"MODE OF PAYMENT OF PENSIONS, &c., AWARDED TO PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND.

"When a person to whom a pension, grant, or other allowance, has been awarded under this Scheme, is certified by a Justice, or a Minister of Religion, and by a Medical Practitioner, to be unable by reason of mental disability to manage his or her affairs, the Admiralty or Army Council may pay so much of the allowance as the Department thinks fit to the Institution or person having the care of the disabled person, and may pay the surplus, if any, or such part thereof as the Department thinks fit for or towards the maintenance and benefit of the dependants of the disabled person, and the Government shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any sums so paid.

INTERPRETATION OF THE SCHEME.

"In the event of any question arising on the interpretation or administration of this Scheme, the decision of the Admiralty or Army Council thereon shall be final."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NORTH SEA, RIVER THAMES, AND ENGLISH CHANNEL.

PILOTAGE AND TRAFFIC REGULATIONS.

Former Notice.—No. 239 of 1915; hereby cancelled.

I. The following Orders as to Compulsory Pilotage between the Downs and Great Yarmouth have been made under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, and supersede those formerly in force.

1. All ships (other than British ships of less than 3500 tons gross tonnage, when trading coastwise or to or from the Channel islands and not carrying passengers) whilst bound from, and whilst navigating in the waters from, the Downs Pilot Station to Gravesend or vice versa, must be conducted by pilots licensed by the London Trinity House.

2. All ships (other than British ships of less than 3500 tons gross tonnage, when trading coastwise or to or from the Channel islands and not carrying passengers) whilst bound from, and whilst navigating in the waters from, Gravesend to Great Yarmouth or vice versa, must be conducted by pilots licensed by the London Trinity House.

3. All ships (other than British ships of less than 3,500 tons gross tonnage, when trading coastwise or to or from the Channel islands and when not carrying passengers) whilst navigating in the waters from Gravesend to London Bridge or vice versa, must be conducted by pilots licensed by the London Trinity House.

4. The Trinity House Pilot Station at Dungeness having been discontinued, pilotage is therefore not compulsory between the Downs Pilot Station and Dungeness, except for ships bound into or out of the Harbours of Dover and Folkestone.

II. Trinity House Pilot Stations have been established at the undermentioned places, and merchant vessels not under compulsion of pilotage are very strongly advised to take pilots:—

(a) THE DOWNS, where ships proceeding north can obtain pilots capable of piloting as far as Great Yarmouth; and also pilots for the River Thames, and for Folkestone and Dover harbours. The pilot steamers attached to the Downs Station will cruise in the vicinity of a position two miles south-east of Deal Pier.

(b) GREAT YARMOUTH, where ships from the North Sea bound for the River Thames or the English Channel can obtain pilots capable of piloting as far as the Downs.

The Pilot Steamer attached to the Great Yarmouth Station will cruise between the Corton Light-vessel and the South Scroby Buoy.

(c) THE SUNK LIGHT-VESSEL, where ships crossing the North Sea between the parallels of $51^{\circ} 40'$ and $51^{\circ} 54'$ North Latitude, but no others, can obtain pilots for the River Thames and the Downs.

(d) Pilots can also be obtained at LONDON and HARWICH for the Downs and Great Yarmouth (including the River Thames and approach).

Note.—The pilots referred to in this Notice are the pilots licensed by the London Trinity House and no others.

III. RIVER THAMES.—All traffic into and out of the River Thames must pass through the Edinburgh Channels, or through the Black Deep south of the Knock John and Knob Light-buoys, and through the Oaze Deep, until further notice.

No vessels are to remain under way in the above-mentioned Channels between Southend on the west, and the Sunk Head Light-buoy or a line joining the positions of the South Long Sand and East Shingles buoys, on the east, between the hours of 11 p.m. and 2 a.m.

Vessels at anchor within these limits must not exhibit any lights between the hours of 11 p.m. and 2 a.m.

All other Channels are closed to navigation.
