

His MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Warrant Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Men, for acts of gallantry and devotion to Duty:—

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
34552	Driver ...	Adams, R. ...	6 A. Reserve Brigade, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry near La Houssoie on 24th October 1914, in voluntarily assisting at great risk in the rescue of a severely wounded Officer, under a very heavy close-range fire.
10038	Private ...	Allan, A. ...	2nd Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 4th November 1914, during the attack at Tanga (East Africa), and for general good work performed under a heavy fire.
1947	Actioning Serjeant	Allen, W. ...	1/3rd (City of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (Royal Fusiliers, T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry, ability, and resource at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 13th March 1915. He was in charge of a reconnoitring patrol on the night of 13th March and discovered 3 small bridges laid down by the enemy for their advance; these he removed, which resulted in the Germans being held up in their attack, and our machine guns being turned upon them.
8987	Actioning Company Serjeant-Major	Amour, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Northamptonshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle on 13th March 1915, when he took command of the company after his Officer had fallen, and handled the men with much ability against a very heavy counter-attack by the enemy.
3946	Serjeant ...	Amphlett, C. J. ...	56th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry on 12th March 1915, at Spanbroek Molen, when he led his party with great gallantry after his Officer had fallen. He was killed on the parapet of the enemy's trenches.
4359	Serjeant ...	Armstrong, J. W. ...	6th Dragoon Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on many occasions, especially on 17th February 1915, near Ypres, when he repaired the trenches which had been blown up whilst bombs were being thrown in by the enemy. On the 21st February he conducted a party of bomb carriers into the fire trenches, with great coolness under heavy shell fire.
10073	Private ...	Arnall, C. ...	2nd Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 4th November 1914, during the attack at Tanga (East Africa), and for general good work performed under a heavy fire.
8651	Private ...	Ashford, W. ...	2nd Battalion, Lincolnshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry in conveying messages under heavy fire. Although wounded on his fourth journey he continued at his duty until exhaustion supervened.
5730	Company Serjeant Major	Ashworth, R. ...	2nd Battalion Lancashire Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry and resource at Le Bizet on 15th February 1915. When the billets belonging to his company were set on fire by the enemy's incendiary shells, he collected a party of men and extinguished the fires, under the continuous shell fire of the enemy.
7655	Sapper ...	Aylward, H. ...	26th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For gallant conduct at Givenchy on 27th January 1915, in voluntarily accompanying a small party of the South Wales Borderers, which resulted in the head of the enemy's sap being blown in.
