

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
29632	Serjeant ...	Ayres, G. ...	82nd Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous ability and gallantry near Ahwaz (Turkey in Asia) on 3rd March 1915. When his sub-section was suffering casualties in men and horses, he succeeded in extricating them under very difficult circumstances on several occasions.
88990	Bombardier (Acting Corporal)	Bailey, F. W. ...	114th Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery	For gallantry on 18th January 1915, near Rue du Bois, in continuing to work the telephone after a wall had been blown in beside him. Was brought to notice on several occasions previously for gallantry in mending the telephone line whilst under fire.
11214	Corporal ...	Balaam, A. A. ...	1st Battalion Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty in bringing in the wounded under heavy fire on numerous occasions, and searching for them quite close to the enemy's trenches.
8823	Private ...	Barrett, H. ...	2nd Battalion, Dorsetshire Regiment (attached No. 2 Field Ambulance)	For conspicuous gallantry near Ahwaz (Turkey in Asia) on 3rd March 1915, in attending on the wounded in the open, under heavy shell and rifle fire, and for protecting them with his own rifle fire from the assaults of the enemy. Private Barrett rendered excellent service during a temporary retirement.
39017	Acting Bombardier	Barry, P. ...	28th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry and valuable services rendered throughout the campaign, especially from 17th to 20th April 1915, during the fight for possession of "Hill 60" and subsequent operations, when he was continually engaged repairing the wires, and with such success that communications were maintained for practically the whole period.
36720	Corporal ...	Batt, G. W. ...	93rd Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct and excellent service during the campaign, especially in the observation station. Has repaired the wires constantly under fire by day and night.
2763	2nd Class Air Mechanic	Beet, H. D. ...	Royal Flying Corps	For gallant conduct and valuable services on the night of 10th-11th March 1915, in assisting to repair one of our aeroplanes which had been forced to descend near the firing line whilst being heavily shelled by the enemy. The machine was enabled to fly away by the following morning.
12413	Private ...	Behan, B. ...	2nd Battalion, West Riding Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry, initiative, and ability on the evening of the 19th April 1915. During the attack on "Hill 60" Private Behan, and another man, became separated from their company, and they at once attacked a German trench by themselves, killing three men, capturing two, and dispersing the remainder. Subsequently when reinforcements reached them without Officers or Non-commissioned Officers, Private Behan took command and handled the party with great ability and complete success.
290	Temporary Staff-Serjeant	Bell, D. ...	10th Mobile Section, Army Veterinary Corps	For conspicuous gallantry and ability throughout the campaign, especially for excellent patrol and reconnaissance work carried out under fire at Etreux on 25th August and at Nery on 1st September 1914.
662	Acting-Serjeant	Bellringer, A. F. ...	2nd Battalion, Rifle Brigade	For gallant leading in the attack at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March 1915, and subsequently for his gallant conduct in collecting the wounded in front of our trenches.
