

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
969	Corporal ...	Branch, A. ...	12th Lancers ...	For conspicuous gallantry on 1st November 1914, at Wyttschaete, when he went forward voluntarily and succeeded in killing eight of the enemy himself. On the 17th October near Houthem, he took charge of a patrol after his Officer had been killed, and brought his men back under difficult circumstances.
9300	Lance-Corporal	Branker, W. J. ...	2nd Battalion, Northamptonshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March 1915. He advanced to within a few yards of the enemy and threw bombs amongst them, and then obtained a further supply and returned with a party which dispersed the enemy.
2025	Acting-Lance-Corporal	Brewster, J. S. ...	1/3rd (City of London) Battalion, The London Regiment, (Royal Fusiliers, T.F.)	For gallant conduct during our charge on the German trenches at Neuve Chapelle on 10th March 1915.
3975	Private ...	Brine, M. ...	1st Battalion, Irish Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on 24th April 1915, at Givenchy, in voluntarily descending into a mine, which had been exploded by the enemy, in order to rescue an Officer and another man. Private Brine, with a comrade, remained below for one hour without success, and then came to the surface. He then went down a second time and found the Officer and soldier dead—the removal of the bodies was found to be impossible. In attempting this act of gallantry the risk from gas, and of being blown up by the German mines (which were being prepared close by them), was very great.
11319	Private ...	Brooks, L. C. ...	1st Battalion, Highland Light Infantry	For gallant conduct on 12th March 1915, in going out into the open for a distance of 30 yards under very heavy fire and rescuing a wounded comrade.
2061	Private ...	Broster, W. C. ...	6th (Rifle) Battalion, Liverpool Regiment (T.F.) (attached 1st Battalion)	For gallant conduct at Zillebeke, on 30th March 1915, in rescuing wounded comrades under heavy rifle and shell fire.
1084	Private ...	Brown, A. ...	1st Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry on 10th March 1915, in the attacks on the enemy's trenches. He was always the first man of his company to enter each trench and was severely wounded eventually.
45893	Corporal ...	Bruckshaw, H. ...	73rd Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct, coolness, and resource, throughout the operations at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March 1915. Showed a fine example to his comrades under heavy fire.
8805	Serjeant ...	Bull, A. ...	2nd Battalion, East Surrey Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March 1915, in holding on to his trench with a few men, after the majority had been killed, until relief arrived after dusk. This successful defence was accomplished under very heavy fire and under most difficult circumstances, the enemy's trenches being only 30 yards away.
4013	Squadron Serjeant-Major	Burns, A. ...	3rd Hussars ...	For gallantry and coolness in the trenches near Kennel, from 20th to 22nd November 1914, when he located and silenced many snipers.
3835	Private ...	Bush, E. ...	3rd Hussars ..	For the gallantry and coolness displayed at Longueil on 30th August 1914, when on patrol duty he successfully ambushed ten German cavalry men.
