

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
10326	Serjeant ...	Dady, C. H. ...	1st Battalion, Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March 1915, when his platoon was surrounded by the enemy, he showed a fine example to his men, whom he handled with much ability.
8153	Serjeant ...	Dailey, R. ...	2nd Battalion, King's Own Scottish Borderers	For gallantry, coolness and ability, during the fight for possession of "Hill 60," on the 18th April 1915. He rendered valuable assistance to the one Officer remaining, at a critical time in the action.
2152	2nd Class Air Mechanic	Dewhurst, H. ...	Royal Flying Corps ...	For gallant conduct and valuable services on the night of 10th-11th March 1915, in assisting to repair one of our aeroplanes which had been forced to descend near the firing line whilst being heavily shelled by the enemy. The machine was enabled to fly away by the following morning.
12844	Private ...	Dibb, M. L. ...	18th Hussars ...	For gallant conduct in assisting a wounded man into cover. He has also rendered excellent service since 2nd November 1914, continuously with the machine-gun section.
11631	Private ...	Dinwiddy, L. A. ...	3rd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on 25th and 26th April 1915, at Givenchy, in assisting to rescue Officers and men from a deep mine full of poison gas. The courage and devotion to duty displayed were very pronounced, the risk of death through asphyxiation being very great.
2761	2nd Class Air Mechanic	Dollittle, J. H. ...	Royal Flying Corps ...	For gallant conduct and valuable services on the night of 10th-11th March 1915, in assisting to repair one of our aeroplanes which had been forced to descend near the firing line whilst being heavily shelled by the enemy. The machine was enabled to fly away by the following morning.
7149	Company Serjeant-Major	Dooley T. ...	2nd Battalion, The Leicestershire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and marked ability near Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 13th March 1915. Showed great resource in the able handling of his men under heavy fire, and also in strengthening the positions captured from the enemy.
8383	Lance-Corporal	Donnelly, J. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Irish Rifles	For conspicuous gallantry and great daring near Neuve Chapelle on 12th March 1915. When we decided to attack it was found that the wires in front were still intact, and before any advance could be made they had to be cut. Lance-Corporal Donnelly and another man at once volunteered and succeeded in cutting down the wires, under very heavy machine-gun and rifle fire.
8733	Private ...	Doyle, A. J. ...	2nd Battalion, East Surrey Regiment	For gallant conduct at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March 1915, in going out in front of his trench under fire on two occasions and bringing in wounded men. Private Doyle had previously carried a message and brought up a machine-gun under fire.
30534	Serjeant ...	Doyle, J. ...	31st (Heavy) Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry on 22nd March 1915. When one of his loaded ammunition wagons was set on fire by the enemy's shells he promptly obtained water and succeeded in extinguishing the flames. This act of gallantry entailed very great personal risk, and serious loss must have ensued had the fire ignited the high explosive shells on the wagon.
