

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
3/3621	Private ...	Hall, J. ... ..	1st Battalion, Royal Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry on 25th and 26th April 1915, at Givenchy, in assisting to rescue Officers and men from a deep mine full of poison-gas. The courage and devotion to duty displayed were very pronounced, the risk of death through asphyxiation being very great.
2329	Corporal ...	Hallwood, T. ... ..	1/5th Battalion, South Lancashire Regiment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry, energy, and devotion to duty near Le Toquet from 25th February to 9th April 1915, when engaged in working underground (continually in water) preparing a mine, which was successfully exploded on the latter date. This work was very arduous, and most hazardous, as the possibility of the German counter-mine being exploded at any moment was ever present.
7689	Corporal ...	Handy, J. ... ..	The Connaught Rangers	For conspicuous gallantry, marked ability, and initiative, from 14th to 22nd March 1915, near Rue du Bois, in reconnoitring the enemy's position at close quarters and obtaining very exact information under circumstances of great risk.
4812	Private ...	Hanlon, C. ... ..	1st Battalion, Leinster Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 15th March 1915, when he voluntarily brought up ammunition to the firing line under heavy fire, and then carried away the wounded whilst still under fire. After the Officer in command had been killed Private Hanlon showed a fine example to his comrades in the trench.
5470	Company Serjeant Major	Hanwright, T. ... ..	2nd Battalion, Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry near St. Eloi on 14th March 1915, when he remained with two other men defending the mound after his Officer and all the men of the detachment had been killed or wounded. Company Serjeant-Major Hanwright was previously brought to notice for his gallant conduct.
18570	Corporal ...	Hart, J. ... ..	Royal Army Medical Corps	For gallant conduct, ability, and devotion to duty on 4th and 5th November 1914, when he established and maintained a field dressing station under a very heavy fire at Wulverghem. Corporal Hart, in addition to looking after our own wounded, treated a large number of the wounded French soldiers with great skill.
82906	Sapper ...	Hattersley, R. ... ..	172nd Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Kemmel on 28th April 1915, in entering a mine gallery to rescue his comrades who had been overcome by gas, and persisting with great courage until all had been saved.
4726	Squadron Serjeant-Major	Hawgood, C. B. ... ..	4th Hussars ... ..	For gallantry and marked ability consistently displayed in every action in which his regiment has been engaged
10253	Private ...	Hayes, J. ... ..	1st Battalion, Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March 1915, in the defence of his regimental head-quarters when surrounded by the enemy.
5380	Lance-Corporal	Hearn, G. H. ... ..	10th Hussars ... ..	For gallant conduct and coolness on 15th February 1915, when in charge of stretcher bearers.
—	Trooper ...	Heaton, P. R. ... ..	East African Mounted Rifles	For gallant conduct on 3rd November 1914, during the engagement at Longido (East Africa), when he assisted to carry a wounded comrade into cover whilst subjected to a very severe close-range rifle fire.
