

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
941	Lance-Corporal	McNee, P. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Highlanders	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March 1915, in working a trench mortar gun in the Crescent with great effect on the enemy, whilst exposed to heavy fire from them.
8178	Private ...	Medlock, W. ...	1st Battalion Bedfordshire Regiment	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle on 29th October 1914, when he accompanied another man and set fire to a farm-house occupied by about 50 of the enemy whilst exposed to heavy fire. The enemy were thereby forced to leave the farm, which was an important tactical position.
7144	Serjeant ...	Mercer, A. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Highlanders	For gallantry and continual good work, especially on reconnaissance duties at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March 1915, when he obtained valuable information regarding the enemy's position.
9827	Serjeant-Drummer (Acting Company Serjeant-Major)	Metcalf, C. E. ...	Depot, West Riding Regiment (attached 2nd Battalion)	For conspicuous gallantry, ability, and resource, on 8th November 1914, at Ypres. When our attack had failed, and all the officers had fallen, he took charge of the company and counter-attacked the enemy with complete success—he was himself wounded.
3080	Serjeant ...	Mills, S. ...	2nd Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallantry and marked ability at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 13th March 1915, in laying and maintaining telephone communications under circumstances of great danger and difficulty. Has shown the utmost devotion to duty during the whole time that the Indian Corps has been in action.
2110	Private ...	Minchin, W. C. ...	1/4th Ross Highland Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty, especially at Neuve Chapelle on 11th March 1915. He was always to the fore when volunteers were required for arduous and dangerous work, leaving cover on more than one occasion voluntarily to take the place of wounded stretcher-bearers.
57073	Gunner ...	Mison, E. C. ...	34th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry near La Houssoie on 24th October 1914, in voluntarily assisting in the rescue of a severely wounded Officer under a very heavy close-range fire, the risk being very great.
1420	Private ...	Morgan, J. ...	1/2nd Battalion, Monmouthshire Regiment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry, energy, and devotion to duty near Le Toquet from 18th December 1914 to 9th April 1915, when engaged in working underground (continually in water) preparing a mine, which was successfully exploded on the latter date. This work was very arduous and most hazardous, as the possibility of the German counter-mine being exploded at any moment was ever present.
8273	Private ...	Moulds, G. H. ...	2nd Battalion, Leicestershire Regiment	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle on 11th and 12th March 1915, in handling his machine-gun with coolness and ability under fire. He also showed great courage in building gun emplacements under heavy fire.
10622	Lance-Corporal	Muir, J. ...	1st Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry and coolness at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 13th March 1915, in bombing the enemy in their trenches and driving them out, traverse by traverse.
