

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
5653	Serjeant-Major	Parker, S. J. ...	1st Battalion, Wiltshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 26th October 1914, at Neuve Chapelle, when he led his men with great ability, and recaptured 150 yards of our lost trenches, after his Officer had been severely wounded. Serjeant-Major Parker subsequently returned to the wounded Officer, who was lying out under fire, and removed him into cover.
9166	Lance-Corporal	Parks, R. ...	1st Battalion, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry near Ahwaz (Turkey in Asia) on 3rd March 1915, where he displayed great devotion to duty in attending on the wounded in the open, under heavy shell and rifle fire, and for protecting them with his own rifle fire from the assaults of the enemy.
29936	Serjeant ...	Passmore, S. ...	7th Mountain Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery	For gallant conduct and ability at Givenchy on 10th March 1915. He was No. 1 of the gun which was run up to the firing line with a view to silencing a hostile machine gun, and, although subjected to heavy close-range rifle fire and heavy shelling, succeeded in destroying the enemy's gun.
5262	Ferrier-Serjeant	Paterson, J. ...	6th Dragoon Guards ...	For conspicuous gallantry and ability throughout the campaign. Has brought up ammunition wagons and food to the fire trenches with unflinching regularity, nearly always under fire.
1503	Serjeant ...	Paterson, S. V. ...	Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry	For the conspicuous gallantry displayed at St. Eloi on 28th February 1915, when he commanded the leading platoon in the attack on the German trench with great ability and dash.
1764	Lance-Corporal	Peabody, H. D. ...	9th County of London Battalion, The London Regiment (Queen Victoria's Rifles, T.F.)	For the great gallantry and endurance displayed, and for the excellent service rendered, in the fight for the possession of "Hill 60."
609	Serjeant ...	Pendle, A. E. ...	4th Battalion, Suffolk Regiment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle from 10th-14th March 1915, in rendering "first aid" to many of the wounded under heavy fire. Commanded his section with marked skill and coolness.
459	Serjeant ...	Pettitt, W. ...	4th Battalion, Suffolk Regiment (T.F.)	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March 1915, in assisting in the rescue of two wounded men under very heavy fire.
2350	Private ...	Philips, T. ...	6th (Rifle) Battalion, Liverpool Regiment (T.F.), attached 1st Battalion	For gallant conduct at Zillebeke on 30th March 1915, in rescuing wounded comrades under heavy rifle and shell fire.
11687	Serjeant ...	Philpott, T. ...	No. 3 Company, 1st Sappers and Miners, Royal Engineers	For coolness and resource on 19th March 1915, at the La Basse Road. When a heavy shell fire was directed on his working party he succeeded in getting his men away to cover without loss.
5390	Lance-Corporal	Pickering, J. ...	4th Hussars ...	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 20th November 1914. When the German Infantry had gained some success, and were following this up, Lance-Corporal Pickering with only three men, opened a destructive fire on the enemy at 20 yards range, and drove them away.
9720	Bombardier	Pittick, E. J. F. ...	25th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry on the night of 19th-20th April 1915, when he was out all night mending the wires under fire. He was wounded at his work, but continued at his task until he became exhausted.
