

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
10068	Serjeant ...	Porter, J. ...	1st Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders	For gallant conduct and resource at Neuve Chapelle on 10th March 1915, when under heavy fire he succeeded in taking a portion of his platoon well in rear of the German trenches in order to bring more effective fire on the enemy.
2008	2nd Class Air Mechanic	Prance, J. E. ...	Royal Flying Corps ...	For gallant conduct and valuable services on the night of 10th–11th March 1915, in assisting to repair one of our aeroplanes which had been forced to descend near the firing line whilst being heavily shelled by the enemy. The machine was enabled to fly away by the following morning.
—	Sub-Conductor	Preston, W....	Indian Telegraph Department	For gallant conduct on 4th November 1914, during the attack at Tanga (East Africa), and for general good work performed under a heavy fire.
46216	Acting Bombardier	Priestly, A. ...	104th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Neuve Chapelle from 10th–12th March 1915, in managing his communications with great skill. He was killed on this duty.
1061	Serjeant ...	Pulleyn, E. H. ...	9th (County of London) Battalion, The London Regiment (Queen Victoria's Rifles, T.F.)	For the great gallantry and endurance displayed, and for the excellent service rendered, in the fight for possession of "Hill 60."
98	Serjeant ...	Ralph, H. ...	9th Lancers ...	For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Zillebeke from 2nd–4th March 1915, when he voluntarily carried out two reconnaissances of the German positions whilst exposed to heavy fire, thereby preventing the enemy's scouts from approaching. On two previous occasions Serjeant Ralph distinguished himself by personal bravery and enterprise.
1798	Company Serjeant-Major	Raven, G. E. ...	1st Battalion, Hertfordshire Regiment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry at Givenchy on the night of 13th–14th March 1915, in rescuing a corporal of the King's Royal Rifle Corps who was lying wounded close to the enemy's breastwork, whilst exposed to heavy fire. Company Serjeant-Major Raven has been noted on other occasions for his courage and ability.
9360	Serjeant ...	Raywood, E. ...	10th Reserve Cavalry Regiment, formerly 4th Hussars	For conspicuous gallantry near Hollebeke on 30th–31st October 1914. When his trenches were being heavily shelled, and ultimately entirely destroyed, Serjeant Raywood maintained his position with great determination, repulsing several German attacks, until he was seriously wounded.
14692	Sapper ...	Rea, T. ...	57th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry in endeavouring, with another man, to rescue a wounded comrade under very heavy machine-gun and rifle fire. Sapper Rea's companion was killed in the attempt, and so was the wounded man they went out to save.
7936	Company Serjeant-Major	Reid, A. J. ...	1st Battalion, East Surrey Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and valuable service at "Hill 60" on 20th April 1915, when he went out of his trench across the open and brought up ammunition and reinforcements on three occasions. The ground traversed by Company Serjeant-Major Reid was constantly swept by very severe machine-gun and shell fire.
