TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1915.

WAR OFFICE, September 15, 1915.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field :—

Captain (temporary Major) John Pickard Becher, 8th Battalion, The Sherwood Foresters (Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment), Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry and good service on several occasions :—

On 24th April 1915, at Kemmel, when part of his trench was blown in, he organised the defence of the breach under heavy fire, and personally assisted in repairing the parapet and digging out buried men.

On 15th June, at Kemmel, when part of his trench was blown in by mines, shells, and trench mortars, he displayed great gallantry and coolness in reorganising the defence.

On 30th July and subsequent days, at Ypres, he displayed great coolness, cheerfulness, and resource under trying circumstances when in temporary command of his battalion.

Captain Hugh Glencairn Monteith, Royal Army Medical Corps (attached 2nd Battalion, The Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in picking up and attending to the wounded under heavy fire in the actions near St. Jean and Wieltje, east of Ypres, between 23rd and 27th April 1915, when the casualties in the battalion to which he was attached were very heavy.

Captain (temporary Lieutenant-Colonel) Henry George Powell, Reserve of Officers, The Loyal North Lancashire Regiment, now commanding 8th Battalion, The East Surrey Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry on 23rd October 1914, near Bixschoote, when he led his company in the attack, and by his fine and courageous example contributed greatly to the success achieved. He was wounded in the action.

Captain Lionel Charles Stopford Sackville, 4th Battalion, The Rifle Brigade (The Prince Consort's Own).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability since he obtained command of a company in February 1915. Near Ypres, from 8th to 15th May, he did excellent work in the trenches, keeping up his men's spirits under very heavy bombardments. He took command of another company in addition to his own, when it had lost all its officers. On the night of 14th/15th March, near St. Eloi, he took a barricade with half his company, went forward by himself to reconnoitre, and then, returning for his company, led them back and cleared the houses on the road.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Officers, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field :—

Captain Vivian Leonard Henderson, 3rd Battalion, The Loyal North Lancashire Regiment (attached 1st Battalion).

For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Bixchoote on 23rd October 1914, when with his machine-gun detachment he performed most valuable services in the final attack and charge, inflicting heavy loss on the enemy. He pushed his guns close up to a flank and helped in a great degree to clear the enemy's trenches.

Captain Hugh Wilderspin Niven, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

For conspicuous gallantry and coolness during a very heavy bombardment on 8th May 1915, at Bellegarde lake, east of Ypres, when his battalion suffered very heavy casualties. All the senior officers being disabled, he found himself in charge, and continued to command the battalion with great ability till 15th May. He had previously been brought to notice for consistent good work as Transport Officer, and as Adjutant has done good service, and was once wounded.

Lieutenant Kenneth Bruce Godsell, 17th Field Company, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous and consistent gallantry east of Ypres between 24th April and 14th May 1915, notably when laying out wire entanglements in front of the support trenches on 7th May within 20 yards of the enemy, who were occupying our front line trenches.

Lieutenant William Brooks Keith, M.B., 1st Home Counties Field Ambulance, Royal Army Medical Corps, Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry at Hooze on the night of 23rd-24th April 1915. When a shell killed two stretcher-bearers who were bringing in a wounded officer, he went out to assist, and under heavy fire brought the wounded officer into the dressing station. He has performed many acts of a like nature, and has consistently shown coolness and resource under fire.

Lieutenant (temporary Captain) Norman Charles Henry Macdonald-Moreton, 3rd Battalion, The King's Royal Rifle Corps.

For consistent good work in the trenches at Polygon Wood and Bellewarde Wood between 20th April and 14th May 1915. On the nights of 5th and 6th May he reconnoitred towards the enemy, on the latter night discovering and giving warning of an attack. On 10th May, when occupying the dam at Bellewarde lake, after a six hours' heavy bombardment, he repelled a German infantry attack by the well-directed fire of his company.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) Kenneth Carlyle Gill, 1st Battalion, The Cambridgeshire Regiment, Territorial Force.

For gallant and most useful work on patrol duty on several occasions :—

Near Ypres he went with another officer along the line of the enemy's trenches to investigate some dead ground concealed from our trenches.

On 14th May 1915, he went out and remained on the German parapet 1½ hours, gathering very valuable information.

On the night of the 1st-2nd June, near Houplines, when reconnoitring hostile wire with another officer, the patrol was discovered and heavily fired on. Lieutenant Gill, though severely wounded, made repeated efforts to bring in his brother officer, who was wounded and unable to move, within 20 yards of the German trenches.

Second Lieutenant (temporary Lieutenant) Eric Humphrey Hopkinson, 2nd Battalion, The Cambridgeshire Regiment, Territorial Force.

For gallant and most useful work on patrol duty near Ypres on several occasions, notably on 12th May 1915, when he led his patrol to discover hostile patrols in concealed ground in front of his trenches; and on 14th May, when he led his patrol right up to the German trenches and remained on the parapet 1½ hours. This patrol brought back very valuable information.

Second Lieutenant Bernard William Vann, 8th Battalion, The Sherwood Foresters (Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment), Territorial Force.

For conspicuous gallantry on several occasions :—

At Kemmel, on 24th April 1915, when a small advanced trench which he occupied was blown in, and he himself wounded and half buried, he showed the greatest determination in organising the defence and rescuing buried men under heavy fire. Although wounded and severely bruised, he refused to leave his post till directly ordered to do so.

At Ypres, on 31st July, and subsequent days, he ably assisted another officer to hold the left trench of the line, setting a fine example to those around him. He was slightly wounded. On various occasions he has led patrols up to the enemy's trenches and obtained valuable information.

Temporary Second Lieutenant Harry Hogg Yuill, 170th Mining Company, Royal Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on several occasions :—

On 29th May 1915, at Cuinchy, when one of the leads to a charge in a mine broke close to the charge, he at once untamped the top of the charge and crawled into the mine to find and mend the break, although the Germans were working so close he could hear them talking.

On the 24th and 29th June at Cambrin, at great personal risk, he charged mines, well knowing the Germans to be charging against him, and managed to fire his charges before they succeeded in doing so.

Again on the night of the 21st-22nd August, at Cuinchy, Second Lieutenant Yuill exhibited great skill and bravery in directing mining operations. The enemy were working within a few feet of our galleries, opposite No. 5 and 7 mines, and it became a race which mines would be first exploded. The situation was critical, but owing to his splendid example and energy two shafts were sunk in time, charged, and tamped. The resulting explosions must have blown in the German galleries and the miners in them.

His MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Warrant Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men, for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Forces in France and Flanders, and at the Dardanelles.

He has subsequently on several occasions shown marked coolness, and has set a fine example to his men.
981	Acting-Bombardier	Sweeny, E. ...	123rd Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry on all occasions under fire, notably on 30th July 1915, when his battery was shelled from three directions and only two guns remained in action; and on 9th August, at Hooze, when his battery was again heavily shelled. On this latter occasion he was wounded at his gun, but continued to carry on his work.
5898	Acting-Bombardier	Taylor, A. V. ...	122nd Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery	For constantly setting a high example of courage and cheerfulness under fire, notably at Hooze, when, although wounded in the shoulder, he insisted on working his gun until utterly exhausted.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability south of Krithia, Gallipoli Peninsula, on 4th and 28th June, and 12th and 13th July 1915. 8290	Bandsman	Thew, G. A. ...	2nd Battalion, York and Lancaster Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 9th August 1915, at Hooze, as a stretcher-bearer. 2343	Drummer ...	Thickett, F. ...	1/4 (Hallamshire) Battalion, York and Lancaster Regiment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry on the Yser Canal on the night of 13th-14th July 1915. During a very heavy artillery bombardment, when all the telephone wires were cut, he carried a message from the firing line to Head-quarters, wading through the Canal. On the night of 8th-9th August, under both shell and rifle fire, he carried a similar message, crossing the Canal by a single plank.
3/7973	Private ...	Thorn, A. ...	3rd Battalion, West Yorkshire Regiment (attached 1st Battalion)	For conspicuous gallantry on the 10th August 1915, near the Crater, Hooze. Private Thorn went by daylight up to an advanced post, which it was imperative to hold, well knowing that he had to cross over open ground exposed to a heavy shell fire, and that the post was isolated and both flanks exposed.
7280	Corporal ...	Turner, T. ...	1st Battalion, Shropshire Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry on the 9th August 1915, at Hooze, when he went in front of the trenches under a heavy shell and rifle fire, and carried in on his back a wounded man. He has consistently shown courage and good work throughout the whole Campaign.

For conspicuous gallantry on the 30th July 1915, at Ypres, when he led a small party of bombers against the enemy. When his own grenades failed to explode, he picked up several unexploded German ones, and threw them, killing several of the enemy. Later he held his trench with great coolness and bravery under a heavy bomb and machine-gun fire until reinforced. The following day he performed a similar action.
10249	Lance-Corporal	Webb, J. ...	2nd Battalion, York and Lancaster Regiment	For conspicuous bravery and devotion on the 9th August 1915, at Hooge. When the supply of bombs were running short, and they were urgently needed, he ran back across the open ground under heavy shell fire on three separate occasions and brought back fresh supplies. On the third occasion he was wounded.
1369	Lance-Corporal	Wild, S. ...	1/5th Battalion, Lancashire Fusiliers (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry on 10th June 1915, near Krithia, Gallipoli Peninsula, when he volunteered to lead a party to reconnoitre a Turkish trench which was known to be occupied. 530	Serjeant ...	Williams, C. E. ...	42nd East Lancashire Divisional Signal Company (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry and coolness in action on the Gallipoli Peninsula during 1915. He has frequently laid wires under heavy rifle and shrapnel fire, and has consistently shown great bravery and resource.
12954	Private ...	Williams, W. ...	1st Battalion, Devonshire Regiment. (Now transferred No. 86585 Royal Engineers.)	For conspicuous good work near Ypres on the evening of the 12th July 1915, after the enemy had exploded a mine just short of our parapet. A gallery was driven out to protect the trench and the German mine was struck. It was found to contain a charge and about 1350 lb. of explosive, some detonators and part of the main electric firing lead were withdrawn by the united efforts of the three Officers, Private Williams and three men.
8827	Private ...	Wilson, S. ...	1st Battalion, East Kent Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on the 11th August 1915, at Hooge. After the telephone dug-out had been blown in, and both operators wounded, Private Wilson volunteered to work the telephone and keep up communication, although the post was exposed to very heavy shell fire. The men occupying this part of the trench were temporarily removed, but with great bravery he remained at his post, which was under continuous shell fire, operating the telephone.
A. 412	Serjeant ...	Wood, E. ...	7th Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps	For conspicuous gallantry on the 30th July 1915, at Hooge, when he went out of his trench under a heavy fire to help a wounded Officer. The field dressing proving insufficient, he returned, obtained a shell bandage and went out again, and assisted by another Non-Commissioned Officer, brought in the wounded Officer. Subsequently, although having no knowledge of bombs, on being shown how to use them, he led a bombing party, and himself threw about 200 bombs.

Company Serjeant-Major Kent, with three others, succeeded in rallying them and leading them back to the vacated trench under persistent shell fire. In rallying these men considerable open space had to be crossed. He remained in his position until about 9.30 a.m. on the 10th August, no orders to withdraw having been received.
