

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE BRITISH PRIZE COURTS OVERSEA.

In continuation of the notification on page 803 of the Edinburgh Gazette of 5th May 1916, information has been received that proceedings have been instituted in the Prize Court in Zanzibar in respect of certain cargoes ex the following vessels. Appearance should be entered by all persons claiming an interest as soon as possible.

Prize Court.	Name of Ship.
His Britannic Majesty's Court for Zanzibar	Clan Sutherland. Comrie Castle. Norefos.

Colonial Office,
16th May 1916.

Admiralty, 11th May 1916.

The following awards have been approved in recognition of services rendered by Petty Officers and men of the Eastern Mediterranean Squadron between the time of landing in the Gallipoli Peninsula in April 1915, and the evacuation in December 1915—January 1916:—

To Receive the Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.

Stoker, First Class, Arthur James Ade, O.N. K.14283.

His picket boat was struck by a shrapnel shell on 9th August 1915, and the steam-pipe perforated. Stoker Ade—though the engine-room was full of steam—went down, shut off steam and brought up the leading Stoker, who was severely wounded and scalded.

Chief Petty Officer Henry Hill, O.N. 173927.

On 25th April 1915, this Petty Officer whilst at the wheel during the landing operations at Anzac, under heavy fire, was struck in the mouth by a bullet, which removed all his front teeth. He was taken below, and after washing out his mouth he insisted on returning to his duty at the wheel, where he remained during the landing trips of 25th and 26th April, on both days under fire.

To Receive the Distinguished Service Medal.
