THE following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly, having been transmitted by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner to the Right Honourable Thomas M'Kinnon Wood, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him laid before the King, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :—

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

WE, Your Majesty's devoted and loyal subjects, met in General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, have received with feelings of profound gratitude the gracious letter sent to us by Your Majesty through His Grace the Lord High Commissioner.

We rejoice that our endeavours for the religious, moral, and social welfare of Your Majesty's subjects in Scotland have gained the approval of Your Majesty, and the knowledge that Your Majesty is deeply interested in our meeting and proceedings will stimulate us to labour with renewed diligence and faithfulness.

We receive with lively gratification the repeated assurance of Your Majesty's constant solicitude for the welfare of the Church of Scotland, and of Your Majesty's resolution to uphold and support it in the full enjoyment of its rights and privileges.

We gratefully accept Your Majesty's generous gift of Two Thousand Pounds, which it will be our care to administer in furtherance of the purposes for which it has been bestowed.

His Grace the Duke of Montrose, whom Your Majesty has commissioned to act as Your Majesty's Representative in our General Assembly, has been most heartily welcomed by us. It is our earnest hope that he will be able to report to Your Majesty that our deliberations have been directed towards the advancement of true religion and the comfort and support of our people amid the trials and sorrows which they, in common with the whole Empire, have at present to endure.

The expression of Your Majesty's pride and gratification in view of the spirit in which Your Majesty has been pleased to declare that the people of Scotland have borne the sacrifices entailed upon them in this time of war is very precious to us, and we are deeply moved by the assurance of Your Majesty's unfeigned satisfaction with the zeal of the Ministry of the Churches in Scotland in the performance of their duties at home and abroad, and of Your Majesty's high appreciation of their courage and endurance in facing the perils of war and in ministering to the sick and sorrowful.

Most respectfully do we assure Your Majesty of our unswerving loyalty to Your Majesty's person and throne, of our sincere admiration of the noble example Your Majesty has shown to the Nation of self-denial, fortitude, and devotion amid arduous and trying duties, of our firm persuasion that our cause is righteous, and of our steadfast confidence that the reliant and self-sacrificing efforts of Your Majesty's Forces and those of our Allies will, by the help of God, be crowned with victory and a lasting peace.

That the blessing of Almighty God may evermore rest on Your Majesty and Your Royal House, and that the Divine Grace and loving-kindness may abound towards Your Majesty, is our most sincere and earnest prayer.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We are,

Your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

EXCHEQUER BONDS.

Per Acts 29 Vict. c. 25 ; 52 Vict. c. 6 ; and 5 & 6 Geo. V. c. 55.

Bearing Interest from the date of purchase at £5 per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly on the 5th April and the 5th October.

Repayable at Par on :—

1. 5th October 1919.
2. 5th October 1921.

Price of Issue fixed by H.M. Treasury at £100 per Cent.

The Governor and Company of the Bank of England are authorised by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to receive on the 2nd June 1916, and thereafter until further notice, applications for Exchequer Bonds as above.

The Principal and Interest of the Bonds are chargeable on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

The Bonds will be issued in denominations of £100, £200, £500, £1000, and £5000, and will bear interest at £5 per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly by coupon, the first coupon on each Bond representing interest from the date upon which payment for the Bond is made until the next succeeding day on which a half-yearly payment of interest is due.

In the event of future loans (other than issues made abroad or issues of Exchequer Bonds, Treasury Bills, or similar short-dated securities) being raised by His Majesty's Government for the purpose of carrying on the War, Bonds of this issue will be accepted, together with all undue Coupons, as the equivalent of cash to the amount of their face value for the purpose of subscription to any such loan. Interest accrued to the date of the surrender of a Bond will be paid in cash.

Bonds of this issue, and the Interest payable from time to time in respect thereof, will be exempt from all British taxation, present or future, if it is shown in the manner directed by the Treasury that they are in the beneficial ownership of a person who is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident, in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. Where a Bond belongs to such a holder, the relative Coupons will be paid without deduction for Income Tax, or other taxes, if accompanied by a declaration of ownership in such form as may be required by the Treasury.

Every application must specify whether the Bonds applied for are to be repayable on the 5th October 1919, or on the 5th October 1921. Two Forms of Application must be used where Bonds of each maturity are required.

Applications for Bonds, which must in every case be accompanied by payment of the full amount payable in respect of the Bonds applied for, may be lodged by hand at the Bank of England, Threadneedle Street, E.C., on any business day between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. (Saturdays between 10 a.m. and 12 noon); or they may be forwarded to the Bank through the post. Where payment is made otherwise than in cash or Banker's draft on the Bank of England, the amount of the first interest payment in respect of the relative Bonds will be calculated as from the date on which the proceeds of the payment are actually received by the Bank.

In all cases in which the Bank are asked to forward Bonds by post, the Bonds will be despatched by Registered Post at the risk of the Applicant, who must himself effect any insurance that may be desired.

Bonds of this issue (ex the first Coupon, which will be for interest in respect of a broken period) may be lodged for registration in the books of the Bank of England on payment of a fee of one shilling per Bond. Applicants who intend to register their holdings forthwith should notify the fact on the Form of Application, in which case they will not be required to take delivery of the actual Bonds.

Bonds may be registered in either of the following forms, viz. :—

1. Registered 5 per Cent. Exchequer Bonds, 1919 or 1921. Transferable in the Bank Transfer Books ;

2. Registered 5 per Cent. Exchequer Bonds, 1919 or 1921, Transferable by Deed.

Holdings of Registered Bonds, which will be transferable in any sums which are multiples of £5, may be re-converted at any time in whole or in part (in multiples of £100) into Bonds to Bearer with Coupons attached, such re-conversion being effected by means of a transfer executed under the provisions ordinarily applying to the transfer of Government Stocks.

In case of registration the first Coupon, for interest in respect of the broken period, will be detached before Bonds are registered. Such Coupons may, however, be left in the custody of the Bank, in which case a cheque for the amount of the interest payable will be forwarded when due to the Holder, or, in the case of a joint holding, to the first Holder, in whose name the Bonds are originally registered. Subsequent dividends on registered holdings will be paid by warrants, which will be transmitted by post.

Subject to the necessary statutory authority (for which application is being made to Parliament) the dividends on registered Bonds of this issue and on registered Bonds issued under the prospectus dated 16th December 1915, will be paid without deduction of Income Tax. The income derived from such dividends will be assessable to Income Tax in the hands of the recipients at the rates of tax appropriate to their respective incomes.

Applications must be made upon the printed forms which may be obtained, together with copies of this Prospectus, at the Bank of England; at the Bank of Ireland; of Messrs. Mullens, Marshall & Co., 13 George Street, Mansion House, E.C.; and at any Bank, Money Order Office, or Stock Exchange in the United Kingdom.

Whitehall, 31st May 1916.

*Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George,
Downing Street, 31st May 1916.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following appointments to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, in recognition of services in connection with Transport duties at the Dardanelles; the appointments to date from 1st January 1916:—

To be Additional Members of the Third Class, or Companions of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Captain Lionel de Lautour Wells. R.N.

Commander (Acting Captain) Henry Valentine Simpson. R.N.

Admiralty, S.W., 31st May 1916.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order in recognition of their services whilst employed on Transport duties at the Dardanelles:—

Capt. Robert Cathcart Kemble Lambert. R.N., H.M.S. "Europa."

As Beachmaster on "V" Beach on 25th April 1915, and subsequent days, by his coolness under fire, zeal, and energy, showed a magnificent example to his subordinates in a most difficult and dangerous position.

Has since proved a most able assistant to the Principal Naval Transport Officer, Mudros.

Cdr. Henry George Muir, R.D., R.N.R., H.M.S. "Sarnia."

"Sarnia" has carried out the arduous duties of a ferry steamer, plying between Mudros and the peninsula, carrying troops and military stores, entailing constant moving and going alongside other ships.

Commander Muir has handled his ship well, and it is owing to his zeal and attention to duty that the work has been satisfactorily performed under trying conditions.

Lieut.-Cdr. Frank Evers, R.N.R., M.F.A., "Carrigan Head."

Has performed meritorious service in the Eastern Mediterranean during the past nineteen months, including the saving of his unarmed ship when attacked by an enemy submarine.

The KING has further been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers in recognition of their services whilst employed on Transport duties at the Dardanelles:—

Lieut. Matthew Boggan, R.N.R., Troop Carrier "Ermine."

Has carried out the arduous duties of ferry service between Mudros and the peninsula, carrying troops and military stores, entailing constant moving and going alongside other ships, in a zealous and most satisfactory manner, the service being frequently carried out under fire.

Lieut. Edward Davey, R.N.R., Cargo Carrier "Wheatberry."

Whilst unloading alongside under the lee of the outer hulk, Helles beach, during a gale on 17th November 1915, the wind rose so suddenly that it was not considered safe for the ship to leave, and he was ordered to secure with extra hawsers. At the height of the gale one of the sternfasts parted, and it became evident that the ship would break adrift. Lieutenant Davey, with great judgment, eased off his lines, turned his ship in a very confined space, and successfully got her to sea.

Lieut. Archibald Lamont, R.N.R., Cargo Carrier "Asteria."

In command of "Asteria," has done excellent work in carrying supplies to Cape Helles and other beaches. Always anxious to load quickly and proceed as often as possible, regardless of weather.

Has frequently experienced heavy shell fire alongside the pier at Cape Helles, during which he has coolly superintended the unloading of his ship.

Act. Lieut. Percival John Pycraft, R.N.R., H.M.S. "Europa."

Whilst in command of a motor lighter this officer handled his craft in a most seaman-like manner, and on many occasions unloaded troops in bad weather, under the enemy's fire, at Anzac, showing skill and ability.

Sub-Lieut. John Stewart, R.N.R., H.M. Tug "Flying Witch."

When H.M. Transport "East Point," containing hay and forage, caught fire at Suvla, due to shell fire, this officer volunteered and offered his help; he worked for three hours under very trying conditions, and thereby greatly assisted in getting the fire under.

Mid. George Tombeur Creft, R.N.R., H.M.S. "Europa."

In command of a motor lighter. Has done excellent work off the Gallipoli Peninsula, landing troops and stores, often under shell fire, and especially during the evacuation of Cape Helles, when he handled his craft extremely well.

Charles B. Andersson, Captain of H.M.T. "Roman Prince."

Has carried out many trips between Mudros and the peninsula with valuable cargoes, the ship being generally used for conveyance of special material, such as guns, &c. Owing to this officer's zeal and energy the work has been carried out with invariable success. His ship has frequently been under fire, and he is a thorough seaman and handles his ship admirably.

David P. McDonald, Captain of H.M.T. "Queen Louise."

Has displayed great energy, determination and keenness in the working of his ship and for the special purposes for which she has been used, viz., taking guns and valuable cargo to the peninsula. His ship has been frequently under fire.

Frederick Uren, Captain of H.M.T. "Trewellard."

Has been frequently under fire off the peninsula. Has displayed much energy, determination, and good seamanship.

Lawrence V. James, Captain of H.M.T. "Huntsgreen."

Took the place of H.M.S. "Hannibal" for the evacuation of Helles, and showed courageous and skilful handling of his ship.

Robert Cumming, Captain of H.M.T. "Ajax."

Performed good work off the peninsula, where his ship was twice damaged by shell fire. Was attacked by enemy submarine on voyage from Alexandria to Mudros on 10th October 1915, and brought his ship safely into port.

Horace J. Young, Captain of H.M.T. "East Point."

Performed good work off the peninsula, where his ship was set on fire by enemy shell fire, whilst unloading supplies.

Alfred R. Murley, Chief Officer of H.M.T. "Cardiganshire."

Responded to the call for volunteers to man S.S. "Jessie" on 22nd April 1915, and for a few weeks during the first landing operations did invaluable work in keeping up an unfailing supply of ammunition to the beach.

Harold G. E. Wightman, Officer Commanding cable ship "Levant."

Rendered good services in connection with the laying of the cable from Imbros to Suvla on the night of the Suvla landing, and in laying and repairing cables off the peninsula frequently under heavy fire.

The following Officers are mentioned for good services whilst employed on Transport duties at the Dardanelles :—
