

Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 7th day of September 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of September 1916, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have had under consideration the Regulations governing the award of pensions to Widows and compassionate allowances to Children of Officers of Your Majesty's Coast Guard promoted on retirement to the Rank of Honorary Lieutenant:

"And whereas the existing Regulations provide only a single rate of pension for the Widows (viz. £40) and a single rate of compassionate allowance for the Children (viz. £5 to £10) of Officers of this Rank, and contain no special provision for the Dependants of Officers recalled to the Service and dying from causes in any way attributable to the Service:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable in the present circumstances to make such provision:

"And whereas under Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th February 1916, pensions of £50 a year and compassionate allowances of £8 to £14 a year, may, in cases arising out of the present War, be awarded to the Widows and Children, respectively, of Commissioned Warrant Officers of Your Majesty's Navy:

"We, therefore, beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the award of pensions and compassionate allowances to the Dependants of Officers of Your Majesty's Coast Guard, promoted on retirement to the Rank of Honorary Lieutenant, and called up for service in the present War, on the same scale and under the same conditions as apply in the case of Commissioned Warrant Officers of Your Majesty's Navy.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.
