

AMENDING ORDER OF 5TH DECEMBER 1916,
FOR THE EARLY CLOSING OF SHOPS DURING THE WINTER MONTHS.

In pursuance of Regulation 10B of the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, I hereby make the following Order amending the Order of the 28th October 1916, hereinafter referred to as the principal Order:—

(1) The principal Order shall not apply during the period from the 18th December 1916 to the 5th January 1917, both days inclusive.

(2) For the purposes of the principal Order and this Order on and after the 5th January 1917, the term refreshments shall not be deemed to include sweets, chocolate, or other sugar confectionery or ice cream.

(3) In the case of canteens attached to and situated within or in the immediate vicinity of any works, if persons are employed at such works after the closing hour, and the canteen is kept open only for the use of such persons, meals or refreshments may, notwithstanding anything in the principal Order, be sold after the closing hour for consumption anywhere within the works' premises.

(4) In the case of railways (a) meals or refreshments (b) periodicals and books may be sold after the closing hour on the railway premises to persons about to travel by rail.

(5) The principal Order shall not apply to any bazaar or sale of work for charitable or other purposes from which no private profit is derived.

(6) This Order shall apply throughout Scotland.

H. J. TENNANT,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

Scottish Office, Whitehall,
5th December 1916.

DEFENCE OF THE REALM (LIQUOR CONTROL).

ORDER OF THE CENTRAL CONTROL BOARD (LIQUOR TRAFFIC) SUPPLEMENTAL TO THE ORDER MADE
ON THE 30TH DAY OF NOVEMBER 1916, FOR
THE ORKNEY AND SHETLAND AREA WITH REFERENCE TO MEDICATED WINES AND NEW EXCISE LICENCES.

Any person contravening any provision of this Order or of the Liquor Control Regulations is liable to imprisonment for six months with hard labour and a fine of £100.

We, the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic), in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Acts and Regulations relating to the Defence of the Realm, hereby make the following Order supplemental to the Order made on the thirtieth day of November 1916, for the Orkney and Shetland Area.

Conditions as to the Sale of Medicated Wines.

1. On and after the eighteenth day of December 1916, no person shall either by himself or by any servant or agent sell or supply to any person in any licensed premises for consumption off the premises or dispatch therefrom any exciseable liquor in the form of or prepared as (a) medicated wine or (b) any mixture or preparation which contains any drug or medicament or is sold or advertised for sale as containing or purporting to contain medicinal properties except in a bottle or other vessel bearing a label correctly stating in clear and legible words or figures the amount of proof spirit contained in such medicated wine or mixture or preparation. Provided always that nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the sale of—

- (a) Any medicine mixture or preparation appearing in the British Pharmacopeia or the British Pharmaceutical Codex; or
- (b) Any medicine mixture or preparation which is made up for a customer on the signed prescription of a medical practitioner; or
- (c) Medicated or methylated spirits or spirits made up in medicine and sold by medical practitioners or chemists or druggists.

2. (a) The expression "licensed premises" in the foregoing Article includes any premises or place where the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the premises is carried on under a licence.

(b) The foregoing Article does not affect the sale or dispatch of exciseable liquor to a trader for the purposes of his trade.

Restrictions on the Sale of Exciseable Liquor under new Excise Licences.

3. No person shall, except with the written authority of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) and in accordance with the terms and conditions subject to which such authority may be granted, either by himself or by any servant or agent, sell or supply in any premises any exciseable liquor under an excise licence granted in respect of such premises on or after the eighteenth day of December 1916, unless an excise licence authorising such sale was in force in respect of such premises on the seventeenth day of December 1916.

Provided always that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to affect the sale of exciseable liquor under—

- (a) An excise licence granted on the authority of a Certificate as defined in Part VII of the Licensing (Scotland) Act, 1903; or
- (b) An excise licence granted to any person holding a canteen under the authority of a Secretary of State or of the Admiralty; or
- (c) A manufacturer's licence.

Given under the seal of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) this sixth day of December 1916.

D'ABERNON,
Chairman.

JOHN PEDDER,
Member of the Board.
