A PROCLAMATION

FOR BANK HOLIDAYS.

GEORGE R.I.

WE, considering that it is desirable that Saturday, the Twenty-third day of December instant, should be observed as a Bank Holiday throughout Our United Kingdom, and that Monday, the First day of January next, should be observed as a Bank Holiday throughout those parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Wales, and Ireland, and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Bank Holidays Act, 1871," do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, and in exercise of the powers conferred by the Act aforesaid, appoint Saturday, the Twenty-third day of December instant, and Monday, the First day of January next, as special days to be observed as Bank Holidays throughout Our United Kingdom, and throughout those parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Wales, and Ireland, respectively, under and in accordance with the said Act, and We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, command the said days to be so observed, and all Our loving subjects to order themselves accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Eleventh day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

By THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by Regulation 9c. of the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, it is provided as follows:—"Where it appears to His Majesty that the keeping as a Bank Holiday or a Public Holiday of any day appointed to be so kept by the Bank Holidays Act, 1871 (as extended and amended by any other enactment), or by any Proclamation issued thereunder or under this Regulation, would impede or delay the production, repair, or transport of war material, or of any work necessary for the successful prosecution of the war, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Proclamation to declare that any such day shall not in any year be a Bank Holiday or a Public Holiday as respects the whole of the United Kingdom or any part thereof, and by that or any subsequent Proclamation to appoint such other day as to His Majesty in Council may seem fit to be a Bank Holiday or a Public Holiday throughout or in any part of the United Kingdom instead thereof, and the Bank Holidays Act, 1871, and the enactments extending and amending that Act, shall have effect accordingly: Provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, in lieu of appointing such other day to be a Bank Holiday or Public Holiday, by Proclamation to direct that all or any classes of employees who have been deprived in consequence of any Proclamation issued under the said Act or this Regulation of a holiday to which they were by statute or agreement entitled or which they have been accustomed to receive, shall, subject to any exceptions and conditions that may be contained in the Proclamation, be given an equivalent holiday on such day or within such period as may be specified in the Proclamation, and any employer failing to comply with the provisions of any such Proclamation shall be guilty of a summary offence against these Regulations":

And whereas by the Bank Holidays Act, 1871, as so amended, the first Monday in August is a Bank Holiday and a Public Holiday throughout the United Kingdom:

And whereas by Our Proclamation of the Eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, Tuesday, the eighth day of August, in the present year, was appointed to be kept as a Bank Holiday and a Public Holiday in England and Wales, and in Ireland, instead of the Monday in Whitsun week :

And whereas by Our Proclamation of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, it was declared that the first Monday in August should not, in the present year, be a Bank Holiday or a Public Holiday in any part of the United Kingdom, and that Tuesday, the said eighth day of August, should not be a Bank Holiday or a Public Holiday in England and Wales and in Ireland, and it was further declared that such day as might thereafter be appointed by the Proclamation should be observed as a Bank Holiday and Public Holiday throughout the United Kingdom instead of the first Monday in August, and that such day as might be appointed should be so observed as a Bank Holiday and a Public Holiday in England and Wales, and in Ireland, instead of Tuesday, the said eighth day of August :

And whereas it appears to Us that, in view of the Public Holidays now impending and other circumstances, the appointment of any additional general Public Holiday or Holidays would be a cause of grave public inconvenience :

Now, therefore, in lieu of appointing any day as a Bank Holiday or Public Holiday instead of Monday in Whitsun week or the first Monday in August, We do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council and in exercise of the powers aforesaid, direct that, save as hereinafter provided, all classes of employees who by reason of Our Proclamations dated the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, declaring Monday in Whitsun week and the first Monday in August not to be Bank Holidays or Public Holidays, were deprived on either or both of the said Mondays of a holiday to which they were by statute or agreement entitled or which they were accustomed to receive, and who have not already received an equivalent holiday or holidays in lieu thereof, shall be given, and their employers are hereby required to give, before the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, an equivalent holiday or holidays, as the case may be, which holiday or holidays shall be in addition to any other holiday to which they may be entitled or which they may be accustomed to receive.

The foregoing directions shall not apply to—

- (1) Banks, discount houses, or other financial institutions accustomed to close on days on which banks are closed ;
- (2) Harbours, docks and railways ;
- (3) Mines ; and
- (4) Any munitions establishment which, owing to military or naval exigencies, has been or may be required by a Government Department not to grant the holiday or holidays to which, under this Our Proclamation, the employees would otherwise have been entitled.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this thirteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of December 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm :

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915 :

And whereas the said Regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council :

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said Regulations in manner hereinafter appearing :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendment be made in the said Regulations :—

After Regulation 7A, the following Regulation shall be inserted :—

7B.—(1) The Board of Trade may, for the purpose of making the most efficient use of railway plant or labour, with a view to the successful prosecution of the war, make orders for all or any of the following purposes, namely—

- (a) for enabling the Board of Trade to take possession of any private owner's waggons and to use those waggons in such manner as they think best in the interests of the country as a whole, on such conditions as to payment, use, and otherwise as may be provided by the order :
- (b) for enforcing the prompt loading or unloading of waggons, by making failure to load or unload in accordance with the order an offence :
- (c) for curtailing any statutory requirements as to the running of trains or affording other facilities on certain lines or at certain stations, or for requiring the disuse of any such line or station, in cases where the curtailment or disuse appears to the Board of Trade to be justified by the necessity of the case :
- (d) for restricting or prohibiting certain classes of traffic (including the carriage of passengers' luggage) on railways either absolutely or subject to any conditions for which provision is made by the order :
- (e) for modifying any statutory requirements with respect to the maximum amount of passenger fares.

(2) If any person acts in contravention of or fails to comply with any of the provisions of an order so made, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these Regulations.

(3) Any order may be made so as to apply generally to all railways or to any class of railways or to any special railway.

(4) Any order of the Board of Trade under this Regulation may be revoked, extended, or varied, as occasion requires.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 12th day of December 1916.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade :

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade :

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1916, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited :

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars :

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect :—

DEFENCE OF THE REALM (LIQUOR CONTROL).

GENERAL ORDER (AMENDING) OF THE CENTRAL CONTROL BOARD (LIQUOR TRAFFIC) FOR AREAS SITUATE IN SCOTLAND.

We the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic), in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Acts and Regulations relating to the Defence of the Realm, hereby make the following Order:—

Areas to which the Order applies.

1. This Order shall apply to all areas or parts of areas situate in Scotland to which the Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, have been applied.

Effect of Order.

2. The Article entitled "Hours of opening for the supply of food and non-exciseable liquor" in each of the said Orders of the Board for the said respective areas shall be revoked, and in place thereof the following Article shall be inserted:—

"Closing of Licensed Premises."

"Subject to the provisions of the Article entitled 'Saving Provisions' no person shall (except with the authority of the Board) either by himself or by any servant or agent open or keep open any licensed premises for business or for the sale of any goods or commodities whatsoever except on the days and during the hours prescribed by Article 2 of this Order as the days and hours on and during which exciseable liquor may be sold or supplied for consumption on the premises.

"Provided always that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prohibit where the same is otherwise lawful the opening or keeping open of—

"(a) Any licensed premises for which a certificate is held authorising the same to be kept as an inn and hotel, or

"(b) Any licensed premises structurally adapted for use and bona fide used as a restaurant, or

"(c) Any refreshment room in any railway station, theatre or other place of public entertainment, or

"(d) Any licensed premises in which exciseable liquor is sold to be consumed off the premises only."

And each of the said Orders of the Board shall be read as if the foregoing Article were inserted therein.

Exhibition of Order.

3. Every holder of a licence for the sale of exciseable liquor shall keep permanently affixed in some conspicuous place in each public room in the licensed premises a copy of this Order.

Commencement of Order.

4. This Order shall come into force on the fifteenth day of January 1917.

Given under the Seal of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) this thirteenth day of December 1916.

D'ABERNON,

Chairman.

JOHN PEDDER,

Member of the Board.
