His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly,

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of December 1916.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by Section 5 of the Midwives (Scotland) Act, 1915, it is provided that the Central Midwives Board for Scotland shall have power to frame Rules regulating (amongst other things) the conduct of Examinations (which shall, as far as possible, be of a practical character) and the remuneration of the Examiners, and that Rules framed under the said Section shall be valid only if approved by the Privy Council:

And whereas the said Central Midwives Board have framed Rules regulating the conduct of Examinations and the remuneration of Examiners accordingly, and have submitted the same to the Privy Council for approval:

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said Rules, together with a Representation of the General Medical Council with respect thereto, into consideration, are pleased to approve the said Rules as set forth in the Schedule hereto.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

SCHEDULE.

CENTRAL MIDWIVES BOARD FOR SCOTLAND.

Rules framed under Section 5 of The Midwives (Scotland) Act, 1915, regulating the conduct of Examinations and the remuneration of Examiners.

I. MARKS.

1. The marks shall be expressed by percentages.

2. The sequence of the parts of the Examination shall be (1) Written and (2) Oral and Practical.

3. The available marks in each part of the Examination shall be 100. Thus:—

Written	100
Oral and Practical	100
		200

To pass the Examination, Candidates must obtain not less than 50 per cent. in the Oral and Practical, and an average of not less than 50 per cent. in the conjoined Written and Oral parts.

4. Any mark below 50 in any department of the Examination must represent the concurrent judgment of two Examiners.

5. Candidates who are unsuccessful, can in no case be re-examined before the next Examination period.

II. WRITTEN EXAMINATIONS.

1. The questions for the Written Examinations shall be prepared about one month previous to each Examination period in such manner as the Board may from time to time determine.

2. The paper shall consist of Six Questions. The time to be allowed therefor shall be three hours.

3. One Examiner shall be summoned to superintend. The Candidates shall be arranged at the tables in alphabetical or other definite order. The Examiner shall occupy himself in observing the conduct of the Candidates until the time for which he has been summoned has fully expired.

4. At the scrutiny the written papers shall be read and signed by one Examiner, who shall indicate in figures thereon the value he attaches to the paper, but in the case of papers awarded less than 50 per cent., these will fall to be read also by a co-Examiner. The marks awarded must, in the latter case, represent the concurrent judgment of the two Examiners as indicated by their signatures.

Note.—It is desirable that not more than twenty-five papers shall be read by each Examiner during a two hours' sitting.

III. ORAL AND PRACTICAL EXAMINATION.

1. At the Oral and Practical Examination twenty minutes shall be allowed for the examination and adjudication of each Candidate.

2. At the Oral and Practical Examination two Examiners shall sit at each table, and each shall act alternately as Examiner and as Assessor. The Assessor shall note upon the space allotted to the Oral part on the Candidate's Written Book, the various subjects on which the Candidate is being examined; and the two Examiners shall together determine the numerical value of the Examination.

Note.—The Examiner who scrutinises the written paper shall so far as possible in each case act as Assessor in the Oral Examination of that Candidate.

IV. EXAMINERS.

1. An Examiner summoned to superintend a Written Examination shall remain for the full period for which he was summoned; and if summoned for scrutiny or Oral, he is under obligation to remain, if required, until the adjudication on that part.

2. An Examiner unable to attend any part of an Examination for which he has been summoned shall provide another Examiner of the Board to fill his place, and in the event of failure on the part of an Examiner to observe this rule, such Examiner shall forfeit his right to be summoned at his next turn.

3. In case of the absence of an Examiner, the fee shall be paid to the Examiner who acts for him.

4. The fees payable to Examiners shall be at the rate of £1, 1s. per hour, with a minimum payment of £2, 2s., payable only at the completion of the Examination when the results have been recorded and reported to the Secretary at the Office of the Board.

In the case of Examiners summoned to examine at a different centre, there shall be payable, in addition, first-class travelling expenses and subsistence allowance at the rate of £1 a night (to cover 24 hours' absence), and 6s. 8d. for absences during the day exceeding 10 hours, or such other scale of expenses as may be approved from time to time by the Privy Council.

5. The Examinations shall be conducted in each centre by an Examiner located there with the assistance of an Examiner, as may be required, sent by rotation from each of the other centres.

6. All Examiners shall be duly registered medical practitioners (male or female), who shall be approved by the Board annually, and who shall be capable of re-election.

SCHEME OF EXAMINATION.

First Day.—10 a.m.—1 p.m.—WRITTEN Examination under superintendence of one Examiner.

3 p.m.—5 p.m.—SCRUTINY OF PAPERS. Not more than 25 papers shall be read by each Examiner at a sitting of two hours.

Second Day.—10 a.m.—1 p.m.—ORAL AND PRACTICAL. Twenty minutes shall be allowed for the Examination of each Candidate. Nine Candidates shall be allocated to each table for every three hours.

Two Examiners shall sit at each table. The Examiner who has read the Candidate's paper shall so far as possible act as Assessor in each case.

E.g., if Examiner A has scrutinised papers of Candidates Nos. 1 to 25 and B has scrutinised 26 to 50—A will act as Assessor (with B as Examiner) when examining Candidates 1 to 25 and B will act as Assessor (with A as Examiner) when examining Candidates 26 to 50.

Any other method, provided it carries out the same principle, may be adopted.

2.30 p.m.—5.30 p.m.—ORAL AND PRACTICAL continued when necessary.

Third Day. Do. Do. do.

Privy Council Office, the 23rd day of December 1916.

THIS day, in the presence of the Lord President of the Council, the Right Honourable George Nicoll Barnes, M.P., was sworn Minister of Pensions; the Right Honourable John Hodge, M.P., was sworn Minister of Labour; the Right Honourable Hudson Ewbanke, Lord Devonport, was sworn Food Controller; and the Right Honourable Sir Joseph Paton Maclay, Bart., was sworn Shipping Controller.

Crown Office,

22nd December 1916.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, bearing date the 22nd inst., to appoint The Right Honourable David Alexander Edward, Earl of Crawford, to be Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Seal.

SPECIAL ACTS (EXTENSION OF TIME)
ACT, 1915.

EDINBURGH AND DISTRICT WATER
ORDER, 1914.

WHEREAS by the Special Acts (Extension of Time Act, 1915, it is provided, inter alia, that where the time within which a power may be exercised under any Special Act is limited, an application may be made by the person by whom such power may be exercised to the appropriate Government Department for an Order extending that time, and that the Department, if satisfied that the time should be extended, may make an Order accordingly :

And whereas under Part II. of the Edinburgh and District Water Order, 1914, the Edinburgh and District Water Trustees (hereinafter called "the Trustees") were empowered compulsorily to acquire certain lands, for the purposes therein mentioned, and by Section 13 of that Order the time within which the said power of compulsory acquisition may be exercised is limited to a period which will expire on the 10th day of August 1917 :

And whereas the Trustees have in terms of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, applied to the Secretary for Scotland for an Order extending the said time as hereinafter prescribed :

And whereas I am satisfied that the time in respect of which the application is made should be extended as hereinafter prescribed.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the last-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Robert Munro, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, hereby order as follows :—

1. The time within which the powers of the Trustees for the compulsory purchase of lands under the provisions of Part II. of the Edinburgh and District Water Order, 1914, in so far as that power extends to lands required for Works Nos. 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, 15 and 16 described in Section 8 of that Order, may be exercised is hereby extended for a period of one year, that is to say, until the 10th day of August 1918.

2. This Order may be cited as the Edinburgh and District Water Order, 1914 (Extension of Time) Order, 1916.

SPECIAL ACTS (EXTENSION OF TIME)
ACT, 1915.

CLYDE NAVIGATION ORDER, 1914.

WHEREAS by the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, it is provided, inter alia, that where the time within which a power may be exercised under any Special Act is limited, an application may be made by the person by whom such power may be exercised to the appropriate Government Department for an Order extending that time, and that the Department, if satisfied that the time should be extended, may make an Order accordingly :

And whereas under Part II. of the Clyde Navigation Order 1914, the Trustees of the Clyde Navigation (hereinafter called "the Trustees") were empowered compulsorily to acquire certain lands, for the purposes therein mentioned, and by Section 23 of that Order the time within which the said power of compulsory acquisition may be exercised is limited to a period which will expire on the 7th day of August 1917 :

And whereas the Trustees have, in terms of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, applied to the Secretary for Scotland for an Order extending the said time :

And whereas I am satisfied that the time in respect of which the application is made should be extended :

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the last-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Robert Munro, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, hereby order as follows :—

1. The time within which the powers of the Trustees for the compulsory purchase of land under the provisions of Part II. of the Clyde Navigation Order, 1914, may be exercised is hereby extended for a period of one year, that is to say until the 7th day of August 1918.

2. This Order may be cited as the Clyde Navigation Order, 1914 (Extension of Time) Order, 1916.

Board of Agriculture and Fisheries,
3 St. James's Square, London, S.W.,
23rd December 1916.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 23RD DECEMBER 1916.)

ANIMALS (LANDING FROM IRELAND)
ORDER OF 1916.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Prohibition of Landing except for Slaughter within Landing Place.

1.—(1) Cattle, sheep, goats or swine shipped from Ireland shall not, unless and until it is otherwise ordered by the Board, be landed after the date hereof at any port or place in Great Britain except in accordance with the following provisions of this Order.

(2) Cattle, sheep, goats or swine shipped from any port in Ireland which is mentioned in the First Schedule to the Animals (Landing from Ireland) Consolidation and Amendment Order of 1914, may after the date hereof be landed at any landing place defined by Order of the Board as a landing place for Irish animals, but only for the purpose of slaughter within the landing place.

(3) The landing of any animals under this Order must be authorised by the Superintendent or person in charge of the landing place.

(4) Animals so landed shall be subject to the provisions of the Animals (Landing from Ireland) Consolidation and Amendment Order of 1914, except that the animals shall not be moved from the landing place, and shall be slaughtered therein within ninety-six hours after their landing.

Special Provision as to Animals Destined for Manchester Irish Animals' Landing Place.

2. Animals, if intended to be landed at the Manchester Irish Animals' Landing Place under this Order, shall not be carried through the Eastham lock until they have been examined by a Veterinary Inspector of the Board, and unless and until the Inspector certifies that his examination and information do not show that there is, or during the voyage has been, an animal on board affected with Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

Local Authority to Enforce Order.

3. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

4. If any animal shall be landed or moved in contravention of this Order, or is not slaughtered as hereby required, the owner thereof and the owner and the lessee and the occupier of the place of landing, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the landing or movement, and the owner and person in charge of the animal which is not so slaughtered, and the owner and the charterer, and the master of the vessel from which the same is landed, as the case may be, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts or defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Short Title.

5. This Order may be cited as the ANIMALS (LANDING FROM IRELAND) ORDER OF 1916.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-third day of December nineteen hundred and sixteen.
