

Temp. Lt. Lawrence Inkster, R.W. Surr. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He handled his company with marked ability, and carried out the task allotted to him with conspicuous success. He subsequently reorganised the defence of the front line.

Capt. Norman Parsons Jewell, M.B., E. African Med. Serv.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He worked continuously for sixty-two hours, and, single-handed, attended to over 100 wounded men. He has on many previous occasions done fine work.

Temp. Capt. Albert Ernest Jones, R. Welsh Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He gallantly led his men forward in the face of very heavy fire, and was largely responsible for the success of the operations. He set a splendid example to his men.

Temp. Lt. Richard Hodgkinson Jones, L'pool R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He handled his party with great courage and initiative throughout. On one occasion he was in command of a party which accounted for eleven of the enemy.

Temp. Lt. Charles Gordon Kemp, M.B., R.A.M.C., attd. North'n R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He worked unceasingly for two days under very heavy fire, and succeeded in evacuating a large number of wounded. He displayed great courage and determination throughout the operations.

Temp. 2nd Lt. John Albert Victor Kent, Conn. Rang.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although wounded, he led his men forward with great courage and determination under very heavy fire. Later, he withdrew his men in perfect order, covering their withdrawal himself, and continuing to fire until his wound rendered this no longer possible.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Herbert Philip Montague Kesterton, R. Welsh Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He went forward when the attack was held up by an enemy strong point, and covered a further advance. Later, he succeeded in capturing the strong point and destroying two hostile machine guns.

2nd Lt. (temp. Lt.) Osbert Richmond Knight, R. W. Surr. R., and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when attacked by two hostile machines. Although wounded, he succeeded in driving the two machines away, and continued to observe for his battery. Later, he again drove off an enemy machine and continued his observation.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Arthur Haughton Lamb, Lanc. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He took command of his company, organised the defence, and repulsed several strong enemy counter-attacks. He set a fine example to his men.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Ralph Whittington Landon, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He successfully constructed a strong point in advance of the line held by the infantry under very heavy fire. He set a splendid example of courage and determination throughout.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Mathias Henry Lansdown, R.W. Surr. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He assumed command, and gallantly led his company to their objective, maintained his position there, and conducted the withdrawal from the farthest point in the enemy's lines with marked skill.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Roy Launceton, attd. Midd'x R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He cleared up the first line of trenches and pushed on to assist in the capture of a further objective, displaying great courage and initiative. Later, he effected a skilful withdrawal under difficult conditions.

2nd Lt. Tom Lee, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He remained in observation throughout the day under very heavy fire, and sent back most valuable information. He set a splendid example of courage and determination.

2nd Lt. (temp. Capt.) James Leith Leith, Hamp. R., and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When leading a formation of five machines he drove down one of eleven hostile scouts which attacked his patrol. He completed his reconnaissance, and, although again attacked, succeeded in leading his patrol safely back to our lines. On previous occasions he has brought down three hostile machines.

Temp. Lt. Frederick William Lewis, A.O.D.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and initiative in organising parties of men to clear away tarpaulins which had caught fire on various ammunition dumps.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Theodore George Alexander Lima, Welsh R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty as sniping officer. He set a splendid example throughout, and was largely responsible that so few casualties were sustained. He was severely wounded.

Temp. Capt. David Lindsay, North'd Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He went forward through a heavy hostile barrage to the new front line and