

conditions, and has brought down three enemy machines.

*2nd Lt. Francis Drayton Drewitt, Worc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although wounded, he continued to supervise the digging of a communication trench in a very exposed position until ordered to cease work. He has previously done fine work.

2nd Lt. (temp. Capt.) Bernard Henry Driver, R.W. Surr. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. By his able leadership he succeeded in getting a number of his company through two rows of uncut wire entanglements, being exposed the whole time to heavy fire.

2nd Lt. (temp. Lt.) Harold Forrester Duncan, High, L.I and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during an aerial combat. Although twice wounded, he continued firing until his gun was hit and put out of action. He then kept in communication with his pilot during the remainder of the action, and continually informed him as to the whereabouts of hostile aircraft.

Lt. (actg. Maj.) George St. John Armitage Dyson, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and judgment in getting his battery into position within three hundred yards of the front line under heavy fire. He has at all times set a fine example to his men.

Temp. Lt. John Oliver Richard Evans, M.G.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his men forward in a most gallant manner, and succeeded in capturing two enemy machine guns. He set a splendid example to his men, and rendered invaluable assistance throughout.

2nd Lt. Leslie Emerson Faber, R. Fus., Spec. Res., attd. M.G. Coy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He kept his machine guns in action in spite of the most intense hostile fire, thereby materially assisting a raiding party to carry out their task.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Thomas Francis Geraty, R. Ir. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He led his men with great gallantry, and succeeded in reaching his objective. Later, although wounded, he killed one of the enemy and brought his party safely back to our lines.

2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) Fleming Clement Gregory, Yeo., attd. Imp. Camel Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He handled his company with great determination throughout the action, and was responsible for the capture of two enemy machine guns. He set a fine example to his men.

Temp. 2nd Lt. William George Hamm, E. York. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great initiative in organising parties of bombers and patrols, and succeeded in securing many strong positions which proved of the utmost value. He set a splendid example throughout the operations.

Temp. Capt. Frederick Joseph Haney, R.F.A., attd. T.M. By.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He handled his heavy trench mortar battery with the greatest skill throughout, and was largely responsible for the success of the operations. He set a fine example to his men.

2nd Lt. Vivian Morel Harrison, Norf. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He kept his men together under the most trying conditions, and showed marked initiative in establishing an advanced strong point under heavy fire.

2nd Lt. (temp. Lt.) William Wynne Honeywood, Lrs.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when patrolling with an armoured car. He opened fire on a large enemy force, and wounded six of them. At great personal risk, under heavy fire, he placed one of the wounded men in the car, and returned, having obtained valuable information.

Temp. 2nd Lt. James Arthur Hopper, North'd. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Accompanied by a N.C.O., he penetrated the enemy's line and brought back most valuable information. He has previously carried out most valuable patrol work.

Jemadar (actg. Subadar) Iman Din Khan, R.G.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On two occasions he displayed great coolness and courage under heavy fire. He has at all times set a fine example to his men.

2nd Lt. Leslie Nethercote Johnson, Notts. & Derby. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a party across the open to cut through the hostile wire, thereby enabling an enemy strong point to be captured. He has at all times set a splendid example of courage and determination.

2nd Lt. Edward Kershaw, Notts. & Derby. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a strong fighting patrol forward in daylight, and obtained most valuable information. Later, he successfully effected the withdrawal of his party under very heavy fire. He has on many previous occasions done fine work.