

A.173 Pte. A. S. Peters, Southern Rhodesia Column.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Accompanied by another man he penetrated the enemy's position and captured an outpost, thereby obtaining valuable information, which subsequently enabled a successful attack to be made.

9884 Sjt. S. H. Potter, York, L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although severely wounded, he continued to lead his section, and inspired his men by his fine personal example.

70259 Sjt. C. C. Roberts, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great determination in establishing and maintaining communication under heavy fire

21798 Cpl. J. Scott, R. War. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He went out 150 yards under heavy fire to the assistance of an officer who was endeavouring to bring in his commanding officer who had been wounded. He was himself wounded.

1434 Sjt. D. Shephard, Durh. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He set a splendid example to his men, and rendered invaluable assistance to his officer throughout the operations.

235253 (frmly. 2280) Sqdn. S./M. T. G. Smart, Yeo.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his horses up under cover, and later, himself took up ammunition under very heavy fire.

Stk/841 L./Cpl. P. A. Stallard, R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He reconnoitred the enemy wire between two saps, and was largely responsible for the successful firing of a torpedo. He has previously done fine work.

M2 119019 Pte. R. W. Stevens, A.S.C., attd. Light Car Patrol.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great courage and skill in taking his car into action in the face of very heavy machine gun fire.

2324 Pte. (temp. L./Cpl.) E. C. Stooke, Imp. Camel Corps (late Aust. Light Horse Regt.).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He handled his machine gun throughout the action with great courage and skill.

1578 (now 375226) Sjt. J. H. Sugden, Manch. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has performed consistent good work throughout as scout serjeant, and has at all times set a fine example to his men.

61384 Pte. A. Summerfield, Mach. Gun Serv.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried his gun to the enemy's front line, and there rendered valuable assistance in constructing an emplacement and getting his gun into action. Later, although wounded, he succeeded in bringing his gun safely back.

56072 Sjt. F. E. Thole, Mach. Gun Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rendered invaluable service to his officer throughout, and set a splendid example of courage and determination.

2541 Pte. S. T. Thomas, Welsh Gds.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and determination in maintaining communication in spite of the fact that his telephone was twice buried by hostile shell fire.

109380 Spr. T. H. Thomas, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when employed as foreman pipe-fitter on the water supply. He performed consistent good work throughout and set a splendid example under fire.

11773 Sjt. D. W. Thomson, High. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rushed out alone under very heavy fire and succeeded in capturing a prisoner, whom he brought in, thereby obtaining valuable identification.

1875 Cpl. A. E. J. D. Trevelyan, Southern Rhodesia Column.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rallied a party which had gone through the enemy's lines, and completed the capture of the enemy position.

25142 Cpl. T. W. Williams, E. Surr. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a bombing party along an enemy trench under very heavy fire, and established a block, from which he held the enemy off whilst the trench gained was being consolidated.

12/3110 L./Cpl. R. C. Wilson, R. Ir. Rif.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He organised the company stretcher-bearers and himself carried a wounded N.C.O. to a place of safety. Later, he rescued three wounded men under very heavy fire.

A.79 Pte. P. Wisener, Southern Rhodesia Column.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a small party into an enemy machine gun emplacement and killed the gun team. He was wounded three times.

325025 (frmly. 1761) Sjt. W. T. Walker, Yeo.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great resource and initiative during the attack under very heavy fire.

78736 Sjt. C. Wright, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has rendered invaluable service in establishing and maintaining communication under the most difficult conditions.