“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the establishment, as from the 30th June 1915, of the Rating of Chief Engine Room Artificer, Royal Naval Reserve, ranking with, but after, the Rating of Chief Engine Room Artificer, 2nd Class, Royal Navy, with pay at the rate of 6s. 4d. per diem.

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to direct that in the event of any Mercantile Rating belonging to any of Your Majesty's Ships in commission misconducting himself, whether such ship is the property of Your Majesty or not, the pay which he shall receive may be reduced to the following extent and no further, namely, not more than 30 days' pay in respect of any one or more offences punished at any one time, the word 'pay' for this purpose being understood to include full pay and full pay allowances whether already accrued or not: Provided that mulcts of pay not authorised for Naval Ratings shall not be imposed in the case of Mercantile Ratings unless it is impracticable to inflict the appropriate naval penalty."
