FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1917.

*Scottish Office, Whitehall,
May 30, 1917.*

THE following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly, having been transmitted by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner to the Right Honourable Robert Munro, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him laid before the King, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please your Majesty,—

WE, Your Majesty's devoted and loyal subjects, met in General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, have received with unbounded satisfaction the gracious Letter which Your Majesty has sent to us through His Grace the Lord High Commissioner.

We thank Your Majesty for the renewed assurances which Your Majesty's Letter contains of Your Majesty's purpose to maintain the Church of Scotland in the full enjoyment of all her just rights and privileges.

In these times of anxiety and strain we welcome Your Majesty's expression of thankfulness and pride regarding what Your Majesty is graciously pleased to refer to, as the self-sacrifice and devotion of the people of Scotland in connection with the war. With the deepest respect we assure Your Majesty of our unbounded loyalty to Your Majesty's Person and Throne, and our high admiration of the noble work done, and self-denying example set by Your Majesty to Your Majesty's subjects in every quarter of Your Majesty's Kingdom and Empire; and we pray Almighty God to give Your Majesty's Forces in the Navy, in the Army, and in the Air, fighting along with those of our Allies, a speedy and decisive victory, so that these troubles may be brought to an end, and a lasting peace may be assured.

We have received with the highest satisfaction the information that Your Majesty has been pleased again to appoint His Grace the Duke of Montrose to act as Your Majesty's High Commissioner to represent Your Majesty in this General Assembly.

That the blessing of Almighty God may evermore rest on Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Royal House, and that Divine grace and loving kindness may abound more and more towards Your Majesty, is our most sincere and earnest prayer.

May it please Your Majesty,—

We are

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence,
and at our appointment by

L. S.

JAMES COOPER, D.D.,

ORDER.

SULPHURIC ACID.

The Minister of Munitions, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, and of all other powers enabling him, hereby orders as follows :—

1. No person shall as on and from the 11th June 1917, until further notice, manufacture Sulphuric Acid except under a licence issued by or under the authority of the Minister of Munitions, and in accordance with the terms and conditions of such licence as to the quantities to be manufactured or otherwise.

2. No person manufacturing Sulphuric Acid shall as on and from the 11th June 1917, until further notice, use during any one calendar month more than ten tons in all of 95 per cent. Sulphuric Acid (or its equivalent in acid of other strengths) for the purpose of all other manufactures, trades, and businesses carried on by him except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a licence issued by or under the authority of the Minister of Munitions.

3. No person shall as on and from the day following the date of this Order until further notice supply Sulphuric Acid (including Waste Sulphuric Acid) to any person except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a licence issued by or under the authority of the Minister of Munitions. Provided that no licence shall be required to supply not more than 56 lbs. of 95 per cent. Sulphuric Acid (or its equivalent in acid of other strengths) to any person during any one calendar month. And provided also that any Sulphuric Acid supplied subsequently to the date of this Order in pursuance of written directions or requests given or made by or on behalf of the Minister of Munitions previously to the date of this Order shall, unless and until such written directions or requests are cancelled or withdrawn, be deemed to have been supplied under a licence issued under the authority of the Minister of Munitions within the meaning of this Order.

4. As on and from the date of this Order until further notice no manufacturer of Sulphuric Acid or Agent of such a manufacturer shall charge or receive in payment for any Sulphuric Acid supplied by or through him a price exceeding the maximum price specified in the schedule to this Order for Sulphuric Acid of the description and strength supplied. Provided that the maximum prices specified in the schedule hereto shall not apply to—

(a) Sulphuric Acid supplied to persons outside the United Kingdom under export licences.

(b) Sulphuric Acid manufactured outside the United Kingdom.

(c) Sulphuric Acid made wholly from Brimstone.

(d) Sulphuric Acid specially purified for Laboratory purposes.

5. All persons engaged in producing, manufacturing, selling, distributing or storing Sulphuric Acid (including Waste Acid), or in any manufacture, trade or business in which the same is used, shall make such returns with regard to their businesses as may from time to time be required by or under the authority of the Minister of Munitions.

6. For the purpose of this Order the expression Sulphuric Acid shall include Sulphuric Acid of all strengths up to 100 per cent. H_2SO_4 , but shall not include acid containing free SO_3 (commonly called Oleum or fuming Sulphuric Acid).

NOTE.—All applications in reference to this Order (including applications for licences) should be addressed to the Director of Acid Supplies, Ministry of Munitions, Department of Explosives Supply, Storey's Gate, Westminster, S.W. 1.

THE SCHEDULE.

PACKAGES.

All the above maximum prices are for acid delivered into tank wagon, tank cart, or tank barge at makers' works.

When the Acid maker supplies the railway tank wagons, he shall be entitled to make a further charge of not more than 5s. per ton for hire of such wagons.

When the Acid maker supplies the acid in his own drums, he shall be entitled to make a further charge of not more than 10s. per ton for filling and hire of drums. When drums are supplied by the purchaser, a charge of 2s. per ton may be made to cover the cost of filling.

When the acid is supplied in the Acid maker's own carboys, he shall be entitled to make a further charge of £1 per ton for filling and hire of carboys. When carboys are supplied by the purchaser, a charge of 5s. per ton may be made by the Acid maker to cover the cost of filling.

EXTRA CARRIAGE.

In cases where a maker of Sulphuric Acid has, in order to supply his customers, to purchase supplies of acid from a third party, it will be permissible for him, in so far as this is a departure from his normal procedure, to charge to his customers any extra cost of carriage thereby incurred.

Whitehall, May 26, 1917.

The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 24th inst., to appoint the Right Honourable George Nicoll Barnes (Minister of Pensions) to be Chairman, and Sir Arthur Sackville Trevor Griffith-Boscawen to be a Member of the Statutory Committee of the Royal Patriotic Fund Corporation.

DEFENCE OF THE REALM (LIQUOR CONTROL).

ORDER (Amendment) of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) for the Scotland, North Western, the Scotland, North Coast, and the Orkney and Shetland Areas.

WE, the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic), in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Acts and Regulations relating to the Defence of the Realm hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order shall apply to the Scotland, North Western, Area, the Scotland, North Coast, Area, and the Orkney and Shetland Area, as defined and specified in the Schedule to Orders in Council dated respectively the 21st day of March 1916, the 1st day of June 1916, and the 23rd day of November 1916.

2. After Article 3 of each of the Orders of the Board now in force in the said areas and made respectively on the 14th day of April 1916, the 15th day of June 1916, and the 30th day of November 1916, the following proviso shall be added:—

“Provided always that the consumption
“by any person in any licensed premises or “club or the taking by him therefrom of any “spirits possession whereof has been acquired
“without contravention of the provisions of
“this Article shall not be deemed to be in “contravention of this Article.”

And each of the said Orders shall be read as if the foregoing proviso were inserted after the said Article.

3. Paragraph (a) of Article 5 of each of the said Orders shall be revoked and the following paragraph shall be substituted therefor:—

“The sale or supply of spirits on an order
“stating why the spirits are required and “signed by an officer of police or procurator
“fiscal, or, in cases where spirits are im-
“mediately required for medicinal purposes,
“on an order stating that the spirits are im-
“mediately required for medicinal purposes
“and specifying the quantity of spirits re-
“quired, and signed by any duly qualified
“medical practitioner, police constable,
“magistrate or minister of religion, shall not
“be deemed to be in contravention of the “foregoing provisions, provided that such “order be transmitted to the procurator-fiscal
“in the manner with the note and within
“the time required by Section 55 of the “Licensing (Scotland) Act, 1903, and the “provisions of the said section shall apply
“to any such order.”

And the said Article in each of the said Orders shall be read as if the foregoing paragraph were inserted therein.

4. The secretary of every club to which this Order applies and every holder of a licence for the sale of excisable liquor shall vkeep permanently affixed in some conspicuous place in the club or in each public room in the licensed premises a copy of this Order.

5. This Order shall come into force on the eleventh day of June 1917.

Given under the Seal of the Central Control

Board (Liquor Traffic) this thirtieth day of May 1917.

D'ABERNON,

Chairman.

HENRY CARTER,

Member of the Board.
