THE MATCHES ORDER, 1917.

MADE BY THE BOARD OF TRADE PURSUANT TO REGULATIONS 2F, 2G AND 2JJ OF THE DEFENCE OF THE REALM REGULATIONS.

The Board of Trade, deeming it expedient to exercise the powers vested in them by Regulations 2F, 2G and 2JJ of the Defence of the Realm Regulations with a view to maintaining the supply of all classes of matches, hereby order as follows:—

1. All manufacturers of matches and all persons who directly imported matches into the United Kingdom during the year ending 31st day of December 1915, shall make a return to the Tobacco and Matches Control Board, by which style the Tobacco Control Board shall hereafter be called and known, and whose address is at 1 Great George Street, Westminster, London, S.W. 1, showing:—

(a) The quantities of every class of match manufactured or imported by them during the year 1915.

(b) The names and addresses of the persons to whom they invoiced matches and the quantities of every class of match invoiced to such persons during the said year.

2. Such return shall be signed by the person making the same, or where the person making the return is a company by a director thereof, or in the case of a partnership firm by one of the partners thereof, and shall be made within seven days from the date of this Order or within such extended time as the Tobacco and Matches Control Board may in any particular case allow.

3. No person shall on the sale of any matches impose or attempt to impose any condition as to the sale or purchase of any other matches or article whatsoever.

4. The Tobacco and Matches Control Board may, by notice given in such manner as they deem expedient, fix the maximum price at which matches may be sold, whether wholesale or by retail, and may fix different prices for different descriptions or classes of matches, and may fix such price by reference to the price prevailing at any particular date, or in such other way as they may determine, and may vary the price so fixed from time to time.

5. No person shall sell or offer for sale matches at a price exceeding the maximum price so fixed.

6. No person shall after the date of this Order sell or offer for sale any new brand or description of matches or describe any brand by a name other than that by which it was known at the date of this Order or alter the packing of any such goods, without the leave of the Tobacco and Matches Control Board; and no person who buys matches for re-sale shall abstract any matches before re-sale from the box or packet in which they were contained at the time of sale to him.

7. Infringements of this Order are summary offences under the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

8. This Order may be cited as the Matches Order 1917.

Signed on behalf of the Board of Trade this 8th day of September 1917.

W. F. MARWOOD,
A Secretary to the Board of Trade.

ARMY COUNCIL ORDER.

SOLE LEATHER.

Whereas by an Order dated 30th day of March 1917, the Army Council gave notice of their intention to take possession of Sole and Upper Leather of certain descriptions, and indicated in the Schedule to the said Order annexed;

And whereas it is expedient to take certain measures with regard to all classes of Sole Leather to which reference is not made in the said Schedule;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, the Army Council hereby give notice that it is their intention to take possession of all Vegetable Tanned Sole Leather of all weights, descriptions and classes, including bellies and shoulders now in stock in the United Kingdom, whether in the finished state or in course of production, and of all such leather which may be produced from the date hereof until further notice;

If after this notice any person having control of any such leather without the consent of the Army Council, sells, removes or secretes such leather, or deals with it in any way contrary to any condition imposed in any licence, permit or order that may be granted or made in respect thereof, he shall be guilty of an offence against the said Regulations.

By Order of the Army Council.
