FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1917.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of September 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 3) Act, 1915, His Majesty has power by Order in Council to define any area wherein it appears to His Majesty, on the grounds specified in the said Act, to be expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present War that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor should be controlled by the State, and to apply to such area so defined the Regulations issued by His Majesty in pursuance of the said Act under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914.

And whereas His Majesty in Council, in pursuance of the said first-mentioned Act, has issued the Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, under the said last-mentioned Act:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 23rd day of November 1916, His Majesty was pleased in the pursuance of the said first-mentioned Act, to apply the said Regulations and any Regulations amending the same to an area comprising the City of Hereford, and it appears to be expedient that the said City should form part of the area defined and specified in the Schedule hereto:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that it is expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present War that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor in the area defined and specified in the Schedule hereto should be controlled by the State on the grounds that War Material is being made and dealt with in transit therein, and that men belonging to His Majesty's Military Forces are assembled therein:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, and any Regulations amending the same, shall be, and are, hereby applied to the area defined and specified in the Schedule hereto.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

SCHEDULE.

The Hereford Area, being the area comprising the City of Hereford, the Petty Sessional Divisions of Harewood End and Ross, and the Parishes of Eaton Bishop, Clehonger, Grafton, Lower Bullingham, Lugwardine, Hampton Bishop, Mordiford, Fownhope, Holme Lacy, Aconbury, Callow, Haywood, Dinedor, and Allensmore, in the County of Hereford.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of September 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 28th day of August 1917, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas we are of opinion that the nature and extent of the duties devolving upon the Junior Accountant Officer performing the duties of Clerk to the Superintendent of Signal Schools are such as to merit extra remuneration :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the payment of an allowance of 2s. 6d. a day to this Officer, as from the 3rd August 1917.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of September 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 29th day of August 1917, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas under the Regulations for the government of Your Majesty's Naval Service an allowance is payable to the Senior Lieutenant-Commander or Lieutenant of a Ship in commission :

"And whereas we consider that the duties and responsibilities devolving upon the Senior Lieutenant of the Mining School at Portsmouth warrant the grant to him of similar extra remuneration :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorise the payment of Senior Allowance, at the usual rates, to the Senior Lieutenant-Commander or Lieutenant of the Mining School, with effect from the 15th August 1917.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of September 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 1st day of September 1917, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas we have had under consideration the necessity of employing qualified men to carry out the responsible duties of Coxswain of Submarines :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the establishment, as from the 25th July 1917, of the non-substantive Rating of Submarine Coxswain, with pay at the rate of 7d. per diem ; the Rating to be open to the Chief Petty Officer of Petty Officer employed as Coxswain in each Submarine or Submarine Spare Crew at our discretion as considered necessary :

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of September 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 1st day of September 1917, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas in the month of September 1916, we adopted and proposed to present to Your Majesty a Memorial in the terms set forth in the Appendix hereto :

“And whereas it was represented to us that the presentation of the said Memorial should be postponed owing to certain impending alterations in the law with respect to Naval and Military pensions and grants, but that in the meantime pensions, allowances, and grants might be awarded by us in accordance with recommendations contained in the said Memorial :

“And whereas with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury the presentation of the said Memorial was postponed, but pensions, allowances, and grants were made by us in accordance with the recommendations contained in such Memorial :

“And whereas by the Ministry of Pensions Act, 1916, there are transferred to the Minister of Pensions the powers and duties of the Admiralty, and other Authorities, with respect to certain pensions and grants as therein mentioned :

“And whereas it is further provided by the said Act that Your Majesty may, by Order in Council, make such adaptations in the enactments relating to such powers and duties as aforesaid as may be necessary to make exercisable by the said Minister and his Officers the powers and duties of the said Authorities and their Officers, and may fix the time or times as from which the several powers and duties are to be transferred to the said Minister :

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 6th day of February 1917, to order that the date as from which the said powers and duties were to be transferred to the said Minister should be the 15th day of February 1917 :

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 30th day of March 1917, on the Memorial of the Minister of Pensions, to sanction the grant of pensions, allowances and gratuities to certain Persons (including Seamen and Marines, their Widows, Children, other Relatives and Dependants) as therein provided, without prejudice, however, to the validity of anything which might have been done by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty under Your Majesty's Orders in Council relating to grants to such persons :

“And whereas for the purposes of Your said Order in Council bearing date the 30th day of March 1917, and for all other purposes, it is desirable that the recommendations contained in the said Memorial should be deemed to have been approved by Your Majesty on the 30th day of September 1916 :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by

Your Order in Council, to approve of the proposals set forth in the said Memorial, and that for the purposes of Your said Order in Council bearing date the 30th day of March 1917, and for all other purposes, such approval may be deemed to have been given by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 30th day of September 1916.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

Appendix.

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, wages, pensions, bounty money, grants, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine, or to the Widow or any relative of a deceased Officer, Seaman, or Marine, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas His late Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Order in Council bearing date the 26th day of September 1901, to sanction the grant, out of moneys provided by Parliament, of pensions and allowances to the Widows and Children of Seamen and Marines whose deaths are attributable to warlike operations :

“And whereas His late Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Order in Council bearing date the 20th day of March 1905, to sanction the supplementing, out of Naval Funds, of the sum of £500 per annum provided out of the funds of Greenwich Hospital for allowances to the dependent Relatives, other than Widows and Children, of Seamen and Marines whose deaths are attributable to duty in the service of the Crown :

“And whereas we are of opinion that the pensions, allowances, and grants sanctioned in the said Orders are inadequate for cases arising out of the present War, that the whole cost of all pensions, allowances, and grants awarded by the Admiralty in such cases should be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament, and that it is desirable to extend the scope of the Regulations so as to provide benefits for certain dependants of deceased Seamen and Marines who, under previous Regulations, were not eligible for any pension, allowance, or grant :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, in cases arising out of the present War, to sanction, with effect from the 3rd August 1914, except where a contrary intention is clearly expressed, the award of pensions, allowances, and grants, to the persons, on the scales, and subject to the conditions specified in the annexed Schedule, without prejudice however to the validity of anything that may have been done prior to the date of the Order hereon under either of the aforesaid Orders, and provided further that any person who is eligible for, and has received, a pension, allowance, or other grant under the Order hereon shall not be eligible to receive concurrently, and in respect of the death of the same Seaman or Marine, a pension, grant, or allowance under either of the aforesaid Orders, except in so far as it may be otherwise provided in the annexed Schedule.

“And whereas it is provided in the annexed Schedule that the scale of pensions for Widows and Children specified therein shall have effect from the 1st March 1915 only :

“And whereas certain pensions in excess of the scale sanctioned by His late Majesty, by His Order in Council of the 26th September 1901, have been granted to Widows and Children between the outbreak of the War, and the 28th February 1915 :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend also that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the grant of such pensions within the scale and subject to the conditions specified in the annexed Schedule.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.

Schedule.

REGULATIONS FOR THE AWARD OF PENSIONS, ALLOWANCES, AND GRANTS IN THE NATURE THEREOF, TO WIDOWS, CHILDREN, AND OTHER DEPENDANTS OF DECEASED SEAMEN AND MARINES IN CASES ARISING OUT OF THE PRESENT WAR.

“1. Pensions, Allowances, and Gratuities may be granted by the Admiralty to the Widows, Children and other Dependants of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and Marines, and the Reserve Forces, subject to fulfilment of the following conditions :—

(a) That the man be killed or drowned while on duty during the War.

(b) That the death be due to wounds or injuries sustained on duty, whether it occurs before or after the cessation of duty, provided it occur within 7 years of removal from duty.

(c) That the death be due to disease medically certified to have been contracted or to have developed on duty, whether it occur before or after the cessation of duty, provided it occur within 7 years of removal from duty.

“2. A Pension, Allowance, or Gratuity will not be granted in any case in which the death of a man was due to his own culpable action or negligence, or in the case of a Widow who was not married to the man before he sustained the injury or before he was discharged from the Service on account of the disease which caused his death.

“3. In any case in which the provision made by way of Separation Allowance and Allotment, or Allotment only, during the life-time of a Seaman or Marine continues to be paid after his death to a person who is eligible for a pension, allowance, or gratuity under these Regulations, such pension, allowance, or gratuity shall not be payable until the cessation of such provision.

“4. Scale of pensions for Widows and Children as from the 1st March 1915 :—

Rating of Husband in Royal Navy, Marines, or Reserve Forces.	Widow's Pension per Week.
	Below 35 years of age without Children.	Below 35 years of age with 1 Child.	Below 35 years of age with 2 Children.
(1). All Naval Ratings below those described in (2), and Marines below Corporal.	s. d. 10 0	s. d. 15 0	s. d. 18 6
(2). Second Class Petty Officers, Ratings ranking as “Leading Seaman passed for Petty Officer with over three years’ service in the Leading Rate”; Corporals of the Marines.	10 6	15 6	19 0
(3). First Class Petty Officers (O.S), Petty Officers (N.S.), Sergeants of Marines.	11 0	16 0	19 6
(4). Chief Petty Officer, Colour and Staff Sergeants of Marines.	11 6	16 6	20 0
(5). Marine Warrant Officers other than Royal Marine Gunners.	12 0	17 0	20 6

Additions for each Child in excess of two :—2s. a week for all Classes. Additions when the Widow attains the age of 35 :—2s. 6d. a week for all Classes. Further addition when the Widow attains the age of 45 :—2s. 6d. a week for all Classes. If the Children be Motherless, or if through misconduct their Mother either has not been awarded a pension, or has forfeited her pension after award, and the Children are removed from her control, a pension of 5s. a week may, at the discretion of the Admiralty, be granted in respect of each Child.

“5. If a Widow remarries, her pension will cease, and she may be granted a gratuity equal to twice the annual value of the pension in course of payment at the time of such remarriage, or if, at the time of remarriage, there shall be no pension in course of payment by reason of the fact that the Widow is still in receipt of a weekly payment equal to the provision made for her by way of Separation Allowance and Allotment during her Husband's life, the gratuity shall be calculated at twice the annual value of the pension appropriate to her age at the date of remarriage, and her Husband's Rank or Rating at the time of his death. Such gratuity may be paid in one sum, or by instalments, in such manner as may, in the discretion of the Admiralty, be considered advisable, and shall be in full discharge of all claims upon the public bounty.

"6. Children's pensions may be continued unless, in consequence of the Widow's remarriage, they become eligible for Separation Allowance, in which case the pensions will cease to be payable during their eligibility for such Allowance.

"7. Widows shall be required to make a declaration quarterly, or whenever it may be considered necessary, before a duly authorized person, as to their continued Widowhood, and as to any particulars required in reference to their Families.

"8. If the claim of a Widow to a pension be not established before her death, the amount of the pension to which she would have been entitled, if living, will not be allowed to her Representatives.

"9. The term 'Children' for the purpose of these Regulations may include Step-children, ex-nuptial Children, adopted Children, and foster Children, and shall denote Children of either sex under the age of 16 years.

"10. When, owing to death of a child, or owing to its attaining the age limit, it is necessary to reduce the amount of the pension in course of payment for the benefit of a Family which includes more than one Child, the reduction shall be at the lowest rate, so that at least 5s. a week shall be paid as long as there is a Child eligible for a pension, and at least 8s. 6d. a week while there are two Children eligible for pensions.

"11. Payment of pensions awarded in respect of Children may, at the discretion of the Admiralty, be continued after they have attained the age of 16 years until they attain the age of 21 years on the recommendation of the Local Education Authority, in the cases of Apprentices receiving not more than nominal wages or of Children being educated at Secondary schools, Technical Schools, or Universities. Such payments may also be continued until the Children attain the age of 21 years should they be unable, by reason of bodily or mental infirmity, to contribute to their own support:

"12. A pension may also be awarded, at the discretion of the Admiralty, on the same grounds in respect of a Child over the age of 16, but under the age of 21, if at the time of the Father's death a Separation Allowance was being paid, and had not been discontinued before the date on which the pension became due.

"13. If parish relief is afforded in respect of a Widow or Child the pension or allowance may, under such conditions as shall from time to time be laid down, be applied in whole or in part towards satisfying the claims of the Parish Authorities.

OTHER DEPENDANTS.

Gratuities and Allowances.

"14. For the purposes of this part of this Schedule:—

(a) A "Dependant" of a deceased Seaman or Marine means any Person, whether a Member of his Family or Household, or otherwise related to him or not, whom he supported, or to whose support he contributed for a reasonable period before mobilization if he was then in the Service, or before his entry into the Service, if later in date, and also (in either case) subsequently to mobilization or entry until the date of his death.

(b) "Dependent" bears a meaning corresponding with the meaning of "Dependant."

(c) "Pre-war dependency" means the ascertained weekly amount or value of the contribution made by a deceased Seaman or Marine towards a Dependant's support during the period before mobilization if the Seaman or Marine was then in the Service, or before his entry into the Service, if later in date.

(d) "Means of support" or "Means" include earning power, contributions from Members of the Family or Household, or from other Relatives, Old Age Pensions, and all other income except casual and precarious charitable gifts; but in estimating the earning power of a Woman regard shall be had to the due performance of her domestic duties, if any.

(e) "Incapable of self-support" means incapable of self-support by reason of age or bodily infirmity, or (in the case of a Woman having Children or aged or infirm Persons in her care) by reason of domestic duties.

(f) "Child" and "Children" bear the same meanings as in the earlier part of this Schedule.

(g) "Wholly Dependent" includes "Substantially Dependent" in cases where the Dependant's other means of support were of a trifling amount or exceptionally precarious.

"15. The Admiralty may, at their discretion, grant to any Dependant of a deceased Seaman or Marine, either an allowance or a gratuity within the limits of amount, and on the conditions expressed, in this Schedule, but—

(a) No allowance or gratuity is to be paid to any Dependant of a deceased Seaman or Marine if any pension is granted under these Regulations to his Widow or any Child of his, except that an allowance may be awarded to a Woman who was wholly dependent upon the deceased, although pensions are also awarded in respect of his Children.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly specified in the order hereon, no allowance shall in any case be granted to any Dependant of a deceased Seaman or Marine if a gratuity is granted under these Regulations on his account to any of his Dependants, and

(c) If allowances or gratuities are granted to two or more Dependants of a deceased Seaman or Marine on his account, the aggregate weekly amount, for the time being, of the allowances so granted, or the aggregate total amount of the gratuities so granted, as the case may be, shall not exceed the maximum amount that might have been granted by way of weekly allowance, or by way of gratuity, as the case may be, if a grant had been made to one only of his Dependants.

(d) An allowance or gratuity shall not, unless exceptionally, be awarded to a Dependand who was not in receipt of a Separation Allowance during the life of the Seaman or Marine, and no award shall have effect from a date earlier than 1st October 1914.

GRATUITIES.

"16.—(a) A gratuity shall not exceed the greater of the two following amounts, viz.: (1) the amount for one year of the Separation Allowance and Allotment (if any) in force at the death of the deceased Seaman or Marine in favour of the Dependand to whom the gratuity is granted, or (2) the pay of the deceased Seaman or Marine for one year at the rate in force at his death.

(b) A gratuity may be granted to any Dependand though he is not necessitous, and may at the discretion of the Admiralty be made payable by weekly or other instalments.

ALLOWANCES TO DEPENDANTS.

Generally.

"17. Subject to the provision of Clauses 18 to 23 of these Regulations in cases to which those Clauses apply:—

(a) No allowance shall be granted except to a Dependand whose other means are insufficient, and who is wholly or partially incapable of self-support as defined in Clause 14 (e) of these Regulations.

(b) The maximum rate of allowance shall be 5s. per week or the pre-war dependence of the Dependand, whichever is the lesser rate.

(c) An allowance may be reviewed by the Admiralty and either temporarily or permanently reduced whenever the other means or capacity for self-support of the Dependand improve, and shall be discontinued if the Dependand's other means become sufficient, or if the Dependand ceases for any reason to be incapable of self-support.

SPECIAL ALLOWANCES TO PARENTS.

"18. The maximum allowance that may be granted to a Parent of a deceased Seaman or Marine (whether the deceased was of legitimate or illegitimate birth) shall be 5s. per week, or the lesser of the following amounts if in excess of 5s. per week, namely:—

(a) The lowest rate of Widow's pension appropriate to the deceased man's rank after deducting the ascertained weekly value or amount of the parent's other means of support, and

(b) The pre-war dependency of the parent after making the like deduction:

Provided that in estimating the other means of support of a parent who was wholly dependent upon the deceased, and who is not in fact earning any income, the Admiralty may disregard the possible earning power of the Parent, and, except in the case of a wholly dependent Parent, an allowance exceeding 5s. per week shall not take effect from a time earlier than the 18th August 1916.

"19. An allowance granted to a dependent Parent may be reviewed, and either temporarily or permanently reduced, by the Admiralty whenever his or her other means of support improve, and shall be discontinued if his or her other means become adequate.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR WHOLLY DEPENDENT WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

"20. The maximum rate of allowance that may be granted to a Woman who was wholly dependent upon the deceased (not being a Woman to whom Clause 21 applies) shall be 5s. a week, or (if her other means of support are less than 5s. per week) such weekly amount as will make up the other means of support to 10s. per week, but otherwise Sub-Clauses (a) and (c) of Clause 17 of these Regulations shall apply to any such Woman.

"21. A Woman who was wholly dependent upon the deceased Seaman or Marine and has in her care any Child or Children may, if and so long as her other means are insufficient for her support, be granted an allowance at a rate not exceeding 10s. per week for as long as any such Child or Children remain in her care. Thereafter she may be granted an allowance under Clause 20 of these Regulations if qualified under that Clause.

"22. An allowance or gratuity awarded to a Woman under the preceding Clause may, at the discretion of the Admiralty, and whether or not any pension is granted in respect of any other Child or Children of the deceased, be supplemented in respect of any Child or Children in her care to the same extent as the pension of a Widow in respect of a Child or Children under Clause 4 of these Regulations, but so that the total amount paid by way of pension or allowance on account of any deceased Seaman or Marine in respect of Children shall not exceed the amount which would have been permissible if all the Children had formed a single Family, and such Child or Children, in the event of the death of the Woman either before or after the decease of the Seaman or Marine, or in the event of their removal from the Woman's care for any cause, may be treated in all respects as though they were Children within the meaning of the said Clause.

SEPARATED WIVES.

"23. Where a deceased Seaman or Marine leaves a wife living apart from him who was either dependent upon him, or entitled to the benefit of a magistrate's or other competent maintenance order against him, whether obeyed by him in his lifetime or not, the Admiralty may, if no pension is awarded to her under these Regulations, award her, while she remains his widow, and without regard to her other means, an allowance of less amount not exceeding, as the case may be, the amount of her pre-war dependency, or the amount payable under the order, and such an allowance may be awarded whether or not she has any Child or Children in respect of whom a pension or allowance is awarded.

GENERAL.

"24. In the event of an allowance awarded to a Dependand under any of these Regulations except Clause 22 ceasing or being discontinued for any cause other than the death or misconduct of the Dependand, the Admiralty may, at its discretion, award to such Dependand a terminal gratuity equivalent to the payment of 26 additional weekly instalments of the allowance in course of payment, or alternately, if more advantageous to the Dependant, a gratuity of such amount as, when added to the total sum paid by way of allowance, will be equal to the total amount which might have been paid to the Dependant by way of gratuity on the death of the deceased if no allowance had been granted.

"25. Any person in receipt of a pension or allowance may be required to make a declaration quarterly, or whenever it may be considered necessary, regarding his or her own circumstances or any particulars required in reference to his or her family, and the pension or allowance may be temporarily or permanently reduced or discontinued accordingly.

"26. A Dependant to whom a gratuity may have been awarded under Clause 13 of the Regulations sanctioned under Order in Council dated the 9th October 1903, shall not thereby be excluded from any benefit under these Regulations, but in determining the amount of the allowance, if any, payable under these Regulations, and the date from which it should have effect, the amount of the gratuity will be taken into consideration.

"27. All pensions, allowances, and gratuities are tenable subject to good behaviour, and are granted at the discretion of the Admiralty. They cannot be claimed as a right. Any assignment, sale, or contract relating to a pension, allowance, or gratuity, is void. If the grantee of a gratuity dies before all the instalments fall due the Admiralty may pay the outstanding instalments to such person or persons as they may think proper, and may, at their discretion, cancel such instalments.

"28. The Admiralty may, at their discretion, award, in lieu of a pension or allowance under the foregoing Regulations, a lump sum not exceeding the amount of one year's pay of a deceased man to any Widow or other Dependant who is not of British origin."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

Downing Street,
21st September 1917.

The KING has been pleased to approve of the re-appointment of George Fitzpatrick, Esq., to be an Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council of the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago.

Ministry of Munitions,
24th September 1917.

ORDER.

CALCIUM CARBIDE.

The Minister of Munitions, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Defence of the Realm Regulations and all other powers thereunto enabling him, hereby gives notice and orders as follows:—

1. He hereby takes possession as from the date hereof until further notice of all Calcium Carbide, now or hereafter situated in the United Kingdom, except the stocks of persons who do not own more than half a cwt.

2. If any person having control of any Calcium Carbide to which Clause 1 hereof applies, without the consent of the Minister of Munitions, sells, removes, or secretes it, or deals with it in any way contrary to any conditions imposed in any permit that may have been granted in respect thereof, he will be guilty of an offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

3. No person shall, as from the date hereof, until further notice, buy, sell, or supply except for the purpose of carrying out a contract in writing existing at the date hereof, enter into any transaction or negotiation in relation to the sale or purchase of Calcium Carbide situated outside the United Kingdom, except under and in accordance with the terms of a Permit issued under the authority of the Minister of Munitions.

4. No person shall, as from the date hereof until further notice, offer to sell, sell, supply or deliver any Calcium Carbide situated in the United Kingdom except under and in accordance with the terms of a permit issued under the authority of the Minister of Munitions.

5. All persons shall within seven days from the first day of each month commencing in the month of October 1917, send in to the

Controller of Non-Ferrous Materials Supply,
