

Steward, Fanny Eleanor, Assistant Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Stewart, John.

For courage in remaining at work and seeing his job through after being severely shaken by an explosion at an explosives factory.

Stocks, George William, Leading Cable Hand.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Stokes, Walter.

For courage in attempting to save the lives of two workers who were gassed in a gas main by entering it at very great personal risk.

Stokes, William Leverington.

For courage in volunteering to extinguish a fire at cost of serious injuries.

Stone, George Robert, Master of Yard Craft, Sheerness Dockyard.

For courage, self-sacrifice and exceptional skill in the salvage of a merchant ship in a minefield.

Storey, Maggie.

For courage and high example in extinguishing a dangerous fire at an explosives factory under exceptionally risky circumstances.

Stubley, Ernest.

For courage in remaining at his post in circumstances of considerable danger in order to safeguard the works.

Studholme, Robert.

For courage and resource in preventing a serious explosion at an explosives factory.

Sutcliffe, Gilbert George, Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Rendered valuable service in the construction and maintenance of telephones under fire.

Sykes, Herbert.

For courage in testing aircraft in spite of severe accidents.

Symons, Walter William James, Shipwright Apprentice.

For courage and presence of mind in the rescue of a fellow-workman from drowning.

Tabb, Samuel William, Acting Mate of Yard Craft, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage and skill in handling his tug in assisting to rescue a torpedoed merchant ship from a dangerous position in heavy weather.

Talbot, Joseph Edward.

For courage in continuing to work in a poisonous atmosphere, even though suffering seriously from effects.

Tansom, Alfred, Chargeman of Riggers, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For courage and coolness in urgent salvage operations.

Taylor, Frederick Francis.

For courage in fighting a fire at great personal risk while many bags of explosives were being removed.

Terry, George.

For courage in working continuously under circumstances of very great danger.

Thorne, Charles William, Engineer.

For perseverance and devotion to duty in trying circumstances, often attended by considerable danger.

Thorneycroft, Samuel George.

For courage on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Tickner, Thomas.

For courage and resource in dealing with an outbreak of fire at a filling factory.

Tidey, William John.

For courage in fighting a fire, caused by an explosion, at very great personal risk.

Trask, Joseph Henry, Special Constable.

For courage in rescuing injured men from a burning and collapsed building at great personal risk.

Trebble, Walter, Skilled Labourer, Works Dept., Portsmouth Dockyard.

For great skill and daring in the performance of difficult and dangerous work in connection with certain works at Portsmouth.

Trotman, William, Engine Fitter, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a new submarine.

Trout, Ella.

While fishing, accompanied only by a boy of ten, she saw that a steamer had been torpedoed and was sinking. Though fully realising the danger she ran from enemy submarines, she pulled rapidly to the wreck, and succeeded in rescuing a drowning sailor.

Valentine, Alfred Clifford George.

For courage and resource in dealing with a shell in which the top ring of the fuse had fired.

Vass, E.

For courage in stopping a fire in an explosives factory at grave risk to his life.

Venus, Edith Emily, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Vicary, Robert George.

For courage displayed on the occasion of an explosion. He continued to work, though permanently injured by the accident.

Walker, Mary.

For courage in continuing to work in an explosives factory under circumstances of grave danger.

Wall, Ernest.

For two acts of courage and self-sacrifice in clearing a choked acid main, and on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Wallace, John M., Electrical Fitter.

For courage, initiative and devotion to duty in trying circumstances.

Wallace, Lilian Blanche.

For courage displayed during a time of great danger in a filling factory.

Ward, Amelia Jane, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids and bombardments from the sea.

Ward, Daniel Vincent, Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Displayed courage and resource while Controlling Officer in a neighbourhood exposed to many bombardments by sea-craft and aeroplanes.

Ward, George Frederick.

For courage in shutting off outlet master valve of a gasholder, during a fire caused by explosion, at serious personal risk.

Ward, Nellie, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.