

In pursuance of Powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations or otherwise, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby make the following order respecting Navigation of the Caledonian Canal.

1. From daylight on February 10th, 1918, and until further orders, no vessels other than H.M. Ships, those in Government employ, or those granted special permits (Vide pars. 2 and 3), will be permitted to navigate the Caledonian Canal; and entrance thereto, either at Inverness or Corpach, is prohibited as from that date.

2. Owners of Merchant, Fishing, or other private vessels, who can show urgent and sufficient reason why their vessels should be allowed to pass through the Canal, may make application to the Divisional Naval Transport Officer at Inverness for a special permit to enable their vessels to do so. Such applications must contain full information as to the length and breadth of the vessel, registered number, destination, why she cannot proceed North-about, and proposed date of entering the Canal; but they will only be entertained in exceptional cases and with full regard to National interests.

3. When the requirements of the Naval Authorities allow of such special permits being issued, they will be granted subject to the following conditions:—

(a) That priority of passage through the Canal is reserved for Admiralty vessels.

(b) That no liability is accepted in respect of demurrage or detention on passage.

(c) That the passage is commenced when ordered by the Divisional Naval Transport Officer, Inverness, or his representative, and completed in accordance with any instructions issued by these Authorities.

(d) That the regulations governing the navigation of the Canal are strictly complied with.

(e) That the Owner of a vessel permitted to navigate the Canal will be held responsible for any damage caused by the vessel, or by the Master, Skipper, or members of the crew of such vessels, to the Canal, the machinery or appliances connected therewith, or to other vessels. The value of any such damage to be assessed by representatives of the Admiralty and Canal Commissioners, whose certificates thereof will be final and binding and not subject to review.

Given under our hands and the Seal of the Office of Admiralty this 31st day of January 1918.
