FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1918.

War Office,
2nd April 1918.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officer :—

2nd Lt. (T./Capt.) James Byford M'Cudden, D.S.O., M.C., M.M., Gen. List and R.F.C.

For most conspicuous bravery, exceptional perseverance, keenness, and very high devotion to duty.

Captain M'Cudden has at the present time accounted for 54 enemy aeroplanes. Of these 42 have been definitely destroyed, 19 of them on our side of the lines. Only 12 out of the 54 have been driven out of control.

On two occasions he has totally destroyed four two-seater enemy aeroplanes on the same day, and on the last occasion all four machines were destroyed in the space of 1 hour and 30 minutes.

While in his present squadron he has participated in 78 offensive patrols, and in nearly every case has been the leader. On at least 30 other occasions, whilst with the same squadron, he has crossed the lines alone, either in pursuit or in quest of enemy aeroplanes.

The following incidents are examples of the work he has done recently :—

On the 23rd December 1917, when leading his patrol, eight enemy aeroplanes were attacked between 2.30 p.m. and 3.50 p.m.

Of these two were shot down by Captain M'Cudden in our lines. On the morning of the same day he left the ground at 10.50 and encountered four enemy aeroplanes; of these he shot two down.

On the 30th January 1918, he, single-handed, attacked five enemy scouts, as a result of which two were destroyed. On this occasion he only returned home when the enemy scouts had been driven far east; his Lewis gun ammunition was all finished and the belt of his Vickers gun had broken.

As a patrol leader he has at all times shown the utmost gallantry and skill, not only in the manner in which he has attacked and destroyed the enemy, but in the way he has during several aerial fights protected the newer members of his flight, thus keeping down their casualties to a minimum.

This officer is considered, by the record which he has made, by his fearlessness, and by the great service which he has rendered to his country, deserving of the very highest honour.

Privy Council Office, Dublin Castle,
1st April 1918.

At a meeting of the Privy Council held this day in the Council Chamber, Dublin Castle, The Right Honourable Sir David Harrel, K.C.B., K.C.B.O., K.C.B.E., The Right Honourable Sir James H. Campbell, Bart., Lord Chief Justice

ORDER OF THE AIR COUNCIL FOR TRANSFERRING AND ATTACHING OFFICERS AND MEN TO THE AIR FORCE.

Whereas His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred on Him by the Air Force (Constitution) Act, 1917, has decided to raise and maintain an Air Force, and has given to the Air Council directions to do all such things as may be necessary for that purpose :

And whereas it is enacted by sub-section (1) of section three of the said Act that any officer, warrant officer, petty officer, non-commissioned officer, or man of any of His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces, may, with his consent and subject to the approval of the Admiralty or Army Council (as the case may be), be transferred by the Air Council to the Air Force, or attached by the Air Council to the Air Force for the period of the present war or for a period not exceeding four years :

And whereas it is enacted by proviso (a) to the said sub-section that "any officer, warrant officer, petty officer, non-commissioned officer, or man, who at such date as may be fixed by Order in Council belongs or is attached to the Royal Naval Air Service, the Royal Flying Corps, or any unit of the naval or military forces engaged in defence against air craft which is designated by the Admiralty or Army Council for the purpose, may be so transferred or attached without his consent, but if any person so transferred or attached, within three months from the time when he receives notice of such transfer or attachment or such longer period as in any particular case the Air Council may allow, gives notice to his commanding officer that he does not desire to be so transferred or attached, the transfer or attachment shall be annulled without prejudice to the validity of anything which may have been done in the meanwhile :

And whereas His Majesty by Order in Council made on the 22nd day of March 1918, fixed the first day of April 1918 as the date for the purpose of the said proviso (a) :

Now, therefore, the Air Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the said Act and with the consent of the Admiralty and Army Council, hereby order as follows :—

1. The officers mentioned in Part I. of the Schedule to this Order shall by virtue of this Order become attached to the Air Force. The period for which those officers will be so attached shall be the period of the present war or four years, whichever may be the longer, unless in the case of any officer, before the expiration of such period, the Air Council arrange with the Admiralty or Army Council, as the case may be, for his return to the naval or military service.

Provided that in the case of an officer who was attached to the Royal Naval Air Service or the Royal Flying Corps the period for which he is attached to the Air Force shall in no case exceed such period as will complete the period for which he was attached to the Royal Naval Air Service or the Royal Flying Corps.

2. The officers, warrant officers, petty officers, non-commissioned officers and men mentioned in Part II. of the Schedule to this Order shall by virtue of this Order be transferred to the Air Force.

3. This Order shall take effect on the first day of April 1918.

4. Any person transferred or attached to the Air Force by virtue of this Order may within three months from the time when he receives notice of such transfer or attachment give notice to his Commanding Officer that he does not desire to be so transferred or attached, and in that case the transfer or attachment will be annulled without prejudice to the validity of anything which may have been done in the meanwhile.

SCHEDULE.
