TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1918.

*Scottish Office, Whitehall,
8th June 1918.*

The KING has been pleased, on the recommendation of the Secretary for Scotland, to appoint Mr. Gerard Lake Crole, K.C., Sheriff of the Lothians and Peebles, to be a member of the Appeal Tribunal for that Sheriffdom under the Military Service Acts, 1916 to 1918, in the room of Mr. Charles C. Maconochie, K.C., who has resigned.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of June 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Sub-section 3 of Section 12 of the Air Force (Constitution) Act, 1917, it is provided that where by any Enactment passed after the passing of that Act any amendments are made in the Army Act the corresponding amendments shall be made in the Air Force Act subject to such modifications and exceptions as His Majesty in Council may declare to be necessary for adapting the same to the Air Force:

And whereas by the Army (Annual) Act, 1918, certain amendments in the Army Act have been made:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare and order, and it is hereby declared and ordered as follows:—

1. The modifications set forth in Part 1 of the Schedule to this Order are necessary for adapting to the Air Force the amendments in the Army Act made by the Army (Annual) Act, 1918, and accordingly the amendments set forth in Part 2 of the Schedule to this Order shall be made in the Air Force Act.

2. The said amendments to the Air Force Act shall take effect, and shall be deemed to have taken effect:—

(a) in the United Kingdom, Channel Islands and the Isle of Man as from the 30th day of April 1918; and

(b) elsewhere whether within or without His Majesty's Dominions as from the 31st day of July 1918:

Provided that the amendments to Sections 133 and 163 of the Air Force Act shall take effect, and shall be deemed to have taken effect, as from the said 30th day of April 1918, both within the British Islands and elsewhere.

3. This Order may be cited as the Air Force Act (Statutory Amendments) Order, 1918.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

SCHEDULE.

PART I.

Wherever in the amendments to the Army Act pursuant to Sections 4 to 13 of the Army (Annual) Act, 1918, any of the terms occur which are set forth in the first column of the following Table then in the amendments to the Air Force Act pursuant to Section 12 of the Air Force (Constitution) Act, 1917, the terms set forth in the second column of that Table shall be substituted therefor respectively.

"any troops."	"any body of the Air Force."
"those troops."	"that body."

PART II.

1. The following Sub-section shall be added at the end of Section 108A:—

"(7) The provisions of this Act as to billeting shall, whilst any Order of His Majesty under this Section is in force, apply to women who are enrolled for employment by the Air Council as they apply to airmen; and for the purpose of those provisions as so applied Officers of any body of the Air Force with whom the women to be billeted are employed, and the Officer commanding that body, shall be deemed in relation to such women to be their Officers and Commanding Officer; and if any such woman is guilty of an offence in relation to billeting mentioned in Section 30 of this Act she shall be punishable on summary conviction in manner provided by Sub-section (2) of Section 111 of this Act."

2. In Sub-section (5) of Section 24 the words "or other animal" shall be inserted after the word "horse."

3. In Sub-section (1) of Section 52 the following words shall be inserted after the words "and you do further swear that" where those words first occur:—

"except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Air Council for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused."

4. At the end of Sub-section (1) of Section 133 the following words shall be inserted:—

"and every building or part of a building set apart under the Army Act as a Military prison or detention barrack, shall, unless the Secretary of State otherwise directs, be deemed to be an Air-force prison or detention barrack within the meaning of this Section."

5. Section 140 shall be amended as follows:—

"In Sub-section (2) the following shall be substituted for the words 'So, however, that' to the end of the Sub-section:—

"So, however, that—

"(a) no person shall be treated as absent, imprisoned, or detained, for the purposes aforesaid, unless the absence, imprisonment, or detention has lasted 6 hours or upwards, except where the absence prevented the absentee from fulfilling any Air-force duty which was thereby thrown on some other person;

"(b) a period of absence, imprisonment, or detention which commences before and ends after midnight may be reckoned as a day;

"(c) the number of days shall be reckoned as from the time when the absence, imprisonment, or detention commences; and

"(d) no period of less than 24 hours shall be reckoned as more than one day."

6. Section 142 shall be amended as follows:—

(a) After the words "possession of the Air-force authorities" where they occur in Sub-section (1) thereof there shall be inserted the words "or with respect to the grant of any relief, benefit, or advantage in connection with Air-force service," and after the same words where they occur in Sub-section (3) thereof there shall be inserted the words "or to any relief, benefit, or advantage granted in connection with Air-force service."

(b) For the words "such payment" in Sub-section (1) thereof there shall be substituted the words "such payment, delivery or grant";

(c) For the words "a particular man in" in Sub-section (2) thereof there shall be substituted the words "a particular man in or who has been in."

7. Sub-section (2) of Section 145 shall be amended as follows:—

The words from "exceeding" to the end of the Sub-section shall be omitted, and the following words shall be inserted instead thereof:—

"where the airman is a warrant officer (Class I.) not holding an honorary commission—in respect of a wife or children one shilling and sevenpence, and in respect of a bastard child one shilling and one penny;

"where the airman is a warrant officer (Class II.) not holding an honorary commission, or a non-commissioned officer who is not below the rank of sergeant—in respect of a wife or children one shilling and one penny, and in respect of a bastard child eightpence; "in the case of any other airman—in respect of a wife or children ninepence, and in respect of a bastard child sixpence."

8. Sub-section (1) of Section 156 shall be amended as follows:—

The words from "in the case of the first offence" down to "in the case of a second offence" (both inclusive), and the words "not less than five pounds, and" shall be omitted, and at the end of the Sub-section there shall be added the words "or to both such fine and imprisonment."

9. For Sub-section (9) of Section 156 the following Sub-section shall be substituted:—

"(9) Every person who—

"(a) receives, detains or has in his possession any identity certificate, life certificate, or other certificate, or official document evidencing or issued in connection with the right of any person to an Air-force pension, pay or reserve pay, or to any bounty, allowance, gratuity, relief, benefit, or advantage granted in connection with military service, as a pledge or security for a debt, or with a view to obtain payment from the person entitled thereto of a debt due either to himself or to any other person; or

"(b) without lawful authority or excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the accused) has in his possession any such certificate or document, or any certificate of discharge or any other official document issued in connection with the mobilisation or demobilisation of any of His Majesty's forces or any member thereof, shall be liable on summary conviction to the like penalty as for an offence under Sub-section (1) of this Section, and any such certificate or other document shall be deemed to be property within the meaning of this Section."

10. The following paragraph shall be added at the end of Sub-section (1) of Section 163:—

"(1) Any document which would have been admissible in any proceeding under the Army Act by virtue of Section 163 of that Act shall in like manner and for the same purpose be admissible in evidence under this Act."

11. At the beginning of Section 179A the following Sub-section shall be inserted:—

(1) The Air Council may direct from time to time that any officers or airmen of the regular Air Force shall, under such conditions as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Air Council and the Army Council, be temporarily attached to a military force.

Sub-sections (1) and (2) of the said Section shall be renumbered (2) and (3).

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of June 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Geo. Cave.
Sir Fredk. Ponsonby.
Mr. Francis Acland.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in a Session of Parliament in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty Queen Victoria's reign (shortly entitled "The Judicial Committee Act, 1844,") it was enacted that it should be competent to Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to provide for the admission of Appeals to Her Majesty in Council from any judgment, sentences, decrees or orders of any Court of Justice within any British Colony or Possession abroad, although such Court should not be a Court of Error or Appeal within such Colony or Possession, and to make provision for the instituting and prosecuting of such Appeals, and for carrying into effect any such decisions or sentences as Her Majesty in Council should pronounce thereon:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 13th day of October 1910, provision was made for the prosecution and regulation of Appeals from the Supreme Court of the Province of Saskatchewan, in the Dominion of Canada, to His Majesty in Council:

And whereas by an Act of the said Province of Saskatchewan passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty, and being Chapter 9, entitled "An Act respecting a Court of Appeal for Saskatchewan" there was established and now exists a Court of Appeal for Saskatchewan called the "Court of Appeal," consisting of a Chief Justice, styled Chief

Justice of Saskatchewan, and three other Judges, called Judges of Appeal, which Act provided that after the coming into force thereof the said Court of Appeal should be vested with and should exercise all the rights, powers, and duties heretofore held and exercised and enjoyed, under and by virtue of "The Judicature Act" or any other statute in force in the said Province, by the Supreme Court of Saskatchewan sitting en banc, and as a Court of Appeal from the judgment, decision, order or decree of a single Judge, or a verdict of a jury, or judgment or decision of a Surrogate Court Judge or of a District Court Judge sitting in Court, and that all applications for new trials and all appeals of the nature of those which had theretofore been heard and disposed of by or before the Supreme Court of Saskatchewan sitting en banc, should be brought, heard and disposed of by the Court of Appeal created by the said Act:

And whereas by an Act of the said Province of Saskatchewan passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty, and being Chapter 10, entitled "An Act respecting the Court of King's Bench," there was established and now exists a Court of King's Bench for Saskatchewan called "His Majesty's Court of King's Bench for Saskatchewan" consisting of a Chief Justice styled "The Chief Justice of the King's Bench" and five other Judges, which Act provided that after the coming into force thereof the Supreme Court of Saskatchewan should be thereby abolished:

And whereas the Order in Council, dated the 13th day of October 1910, makes provision for the prosecution and regulation of Appeals from the Province of Saskatchewan to His Majesty in Council from the said Supreme Court only, and is inapplicable to the Court of Appeal for Saskatchewan, and no provision has yet been made for the prosecution and regulation of Appeals to His Majesty in Council from the said Court of Appeal:

And whereas it is expedient with a view to equalizing as far as may be the conditions under which His Majesty's subjects in the British Dominions beyond the seas shall have a right of appeal to His Majesty in Council, and to promoting uniformity in the practice and procedure in all such Appeals, that provision should be made for Appeals from the said Court of Appeal to His Majesty in Council:

It is hereby ordered by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council, dated the 13th day of October 1910, be, and the same is hereby, revoked, and that the Rules hereunder set out shall regulate all Appeals to His Majesty in Council from the Court of Appeal of the Province of Saskatchewan.

RULES RESPECTING THE PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN APPEALS TO HIS MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

1. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Appeal" means Appeal to His Majesty in Council;

"His Majesty" includes His Majesty's heirs and successors;

"Judgment" includes decree, order, sentence or decision;

"Court" means either the Full Court or a single Judge of the Court of Appeal for Saskatchewan according as the matter in question is one which, under the Rules and Practice of the said Court, properly appertains to the Full Court or to a single Judge.

"Record" means the aggregate of papers relating to an Appeal (including the pleadings, proceedings, evidence and judgments) proper to be laid before His Majesty in Council on the hearing of the Appeal;

"Registrar" means the Registrar or other proper officer having the custody of the Records in the Court appealed from;

"Month" means Calendar month;

Words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

2. Subject to the provisions of these Rules, an Appeal shall lie—

(a) as of right, from any final judgment of the Court where the matter in dispute on the Appeal amounts to or is of the value of Four thousand dollars ($4000) or upwards, or where the Appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the value of Four thousand dollars ($4000) or upwards; and

(b) at the discretion of the Court, from any other judgment of the Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the Court, the question involved in the Appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

3. Where in any action or other proceeding no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the judges, the final judgment may be entered pro forma on the application of any party to such action or other proceeding according to the opinion of the Chief Justice or, in his absence, of the senior puisne Judge of the Court, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an Appeal therefrom, and not for any other purpose.

4. Applications to the Court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within fourteen (14) days from the date of the judgment to be appealed from and the applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

5. Leave to appeal under Rule 2 shall only be granted by the Court in the first instance—

(a) upon condition of the Appellant, within a period to be fixed by the Court but not exceeding three months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, in a sum not exceeding Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500) for the due prosecution of the Appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the Respondent in the event of the Appellant's not obtaining an Order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the Appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the Appellant to pay the Respondent's costs of the Appeal (as the case may be) and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the Appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the record and the dispatch thereof to England as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

6. Where the judgment appealed from requires the Appellant to pay money or perform a duty, the Court shall have power, when granting leave to appeal, either to direct that the said judgment shall be carried into execution or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the Appeal, as to the Court shall seem just, and in case the Court shall direct the said judgment to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it was given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the due performance of such Order as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to make thereon.

7. The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

8. The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and generally to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the Record.

9. Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the Record, as finally printed (whether in Canada or in England), shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

10. The Record shall be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the Schedule hereto. It may be so printed either in Canada or in England.

11. Where the Record is printed in Canada the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council 40 copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof, and by affixing thereto the seal of the Court.

12. Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal.

13. Where part of the Record is printed in Canada and part is to be printed in England, Rules 11 and 12 shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in Canada and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

14. The reasons given by the judge, or any of the judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises shall by such judge or judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar, and shall by him be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council at the same time as the Record is transmitted.

15. Where there are two or more applications for leave to appeal arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated and grant leave to appeal by a single order.

16. An Appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct.

17. Where an Appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the Appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such Order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

18. On an application for final leave to appeal the Court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the Appellant to all parties concerned, and, if not satisfied as to the notices given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

19. An Appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

20. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to Appeal, desires, prior to the despatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

21. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the despatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a Certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a Certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such Certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

22. Where at any time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the despatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

23. Where the Record subsequently to its despatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

24. The case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in Canada or in England and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the Schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

25. The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state as concisely as possible the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in Saskatchewan, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

27. The Court shall conform with, and execute, any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

28. Nothing in these Rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

SCHEDULE.

I. Records and Cases in Appeals to His Majesty in Council shall be printed in the form known as Demy Quarto.

II. The size of the paper shall be such that the sheet, when folded and trimmed, will be 11 inches in height and 8½ inches in width.

III. The type to be used in the text shall be Pica type, but Long Primer shall be used in printing accounts, tabular matter, and notes.

IV. The number of lines in each page of Pica type shall be 47 or thereabouts, and every tenth line shall be numbered in the margin.

AMENDED NOTICE.

In the Supplement to the Edinburgh Gazette of the 7th June 1918,

Imperial Service Order.

Henry George Street Brooks, Esq., Assistant to the Superintendent of the Indian Store Depot.

should read

Brooks Henry George Street, Esq., Assistant to the Superintendent of the Indian Store Depot.

Whitehall, June 6, 1918.

The KING has been pleased to give and grant unto the Right Honourable Francis Leveson, Baron Bertie, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., until lately British Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at Paris, His Majesty's Royal licence and authority to wear the Grand Cordon of the Legion of Honour, which Decoration has been conferred upon His Lordship by the President of the French Republic in recognition of his eminent services in the common cause of England and France.

Whitehall, June 4, 1918.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal in Gold in recognition of the gallant act of Temporary Second Lieutenant Harry Thorner, 90th Company, Machine Gun Corps, in saving life in France in December last at the cost of his own life. The circumstances are as follows:—

On the 30th December 1917, Lieutenant Thorner was examining some Mills Hand Grenades in a small concrete dugout in France prior to taking them up to his machine gun position during an expected enemy raid. One of the grenades began to fizz when taken out of the box. There were twelve men in the dugout at the moment, and there was no possible means of disposing of the bomb. Realising what had happened Lieutenant Thorner shouted to his men to clear out whilst he himself held the bomb in his hand close to his body until it exploded and killed him. By this magnificent act of courage Lieutenant Thorner deliberately sacrificed his own life for others. Of the twelve men who were in the dugout all but two escaped without injury—they were slightly wounded.

Whitehall, June 4, 1918.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Serjeant (Flight-Serjeant) Thomas Nicholl, Royal Flying Corps, in recognition of an act of gallantry which he performed in France on the 26th February 1918, under the following circumstances:—

Two bombs exploded under an aeroplane, burning the machine entirely and causing considerable loss of life. Owing to the explosion a phosphorus bomb attached to another machine standing near to it was ignited. Flight-Sergeant Nicholl with great presence of mind, and regardless of the danger to himself, unhooked the burning bomb and carried it to a place of safety. By this prompt action Flight-Sergeant Nicholl, whose hands were badly burned, saved the second machine and prevented further serious damage and loss of life which would probably have been caused.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

*Board of Trade,
 7 Whitehall Gardens, S. W.,
 6th June 1918.*

The Paper-Making Materials (Home-Produced) Order, No. 2, 1918, dated 5th June 1918, made by the Board of Trade under Regulations 2F, 2G, and 2J of the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

The Board of Trade deeming it expedient to make further exercise of the powers vested in them by Regulations 2F, 2G, and 2J of the Defence of the Realm Regulations as respects paper-making materials, hereby order as follows:—

1. In this Order the expression "Paper-Making Material" means linen rags (old or new), cotton rags (old or new), jute rags (old or new), roofing rags, surat tares, jute or hemp bagging, gunny, threads and waste (linen, cotton or jute), flax or jute croppings, flax or jute caddis, jute tow, hemp waste, flax card waste, new canvas cuttings (linen or cotton), old canvas (linen or cotton), old tentage, old manilla ropes, old ropes and twines (hemp or jute), old oakum ropes, old rope shakings or caulking, old tarpaulins, and old netting or nets (jute, cotton or hemp), for whatever purpose the same may be bought, sold or delivered.

The expression "dealer in paper-making material" means a person who buys or collects any such material for the purpose of resale.

The expression "producer of paper-making material" means a person carrying on a business in which any such material is waste or a by-product.

2. No person shall buy or offer to buy any paper-making material produced or collected in the United Kingdom except under and in accordance with the terms of a permit granted by the Controller of Paper.

3. No person shall sell or offer for sale any paper-making material produced or collected in the United Kingdom except to the holder of and in accordance with the terms of such a permit as aforesaid.

4. Every dealer in paper-making material produced or collected in the United Kingdom shall supply during the year ending 31st March 1919, to those customers to whom he supplied such material during the six months from 1st

September 1917, to 28th February 1918, if required by them, twice the amount of each of the same class of such materials as he supplied to such customers during the said six months, provided that:—

(a) the dealer has been granted a permit to buy material;

(b) reasonable notice has been given by the customer of his requirements;

(c) the dealer's supplies of material are sufficient to meet such requirements;

(d) if the dealer's supplies are not sufficient to meet all requirements of which he shall have had notice, he shall distribute his available stock between the customers from whom he has received notice pro rata to the amounts supplied to them during the said six months or as the Controller of Paper may direct.

(e) any balance of stock that remains after supplying such customers with the amounts to which they are entitled under this paragraph shall be disposed of as the Controller of Paper may direct;

(f) the Controller of Paper may in writing excuse the fulfilment by a dealer of any requirement or any part thereof if in his opinion the execution thereof is impossible or unreasonable.

5. Every producer of paper-making material produced in the United Kingdom shall supply during the year ending 31st March 1919, to those dealers to whom he supplied such material during the six months from 1st September 1917 to 28th February 1918, if required by them, twice the amount of each of the same class of such materials as he supplied to such customers during the said six months, provided that:—

(a) reasonable notice has been given by the customer of his requirements;

(b) the producer's supplies of material are sufficient to meet such requirements;

(c) if the producer's supplies are not sufficient to meet all requirements of which he shall have had notice, he shall distribute his available stock between the customers from whom he has received notice pro rata to the amounts supplied to them during the said six months or as the Controller of Paper may direct;

(d) any balance of stock that remains after supplying such customers with the amounts to which they are entitled under this paragraph shall be disposed of as the Controller of Paper may direct;

(e) the Controller of Paper may in writing excuse the fulfilment by a producer of any requirement or any part thereof if in his opinion the execution thereof is impossible or unreasonable.

6. The notice referred to in Paragraphs 4 and 5 hereof shall refer to the customer's requirements during each six monthly period ending 30th September 1918 and 31st March 1919. In default of such notice he shall not be entitled to receive supplies. Any question as to the sufficiency or reasonableness of such notice shall be determined by the Controller of Paper. Such notice shall not, unless by consent of the Parties, be withdrawn.

7. No person without the consent in writing of the Controller of Paper shall sell any paper-making material produced or collected in the United Kingdom to any person at a price exceeding the highest price charged by the seller for the same class of material to any customer of his during the period of six months mentioned in Paragraphs 4 and 5 of this Order.

8. The owner of every mill or factory in which paper, cardboard, millboard, or other similar goods are made, and if the owner is a Company, the Secretary of such Company shall send to the Controller of Paper on Monday in each week a true return showing the quantities of each description of paper-making materials produced or collected in the United Kingdom delivered to them during the week preceding the date on which such return is made, and such return shall give the names and addresses of the persons from whom the said materials were bought and the prices paid therefor.

9. The provisions of this Order shall not apply to sales or purchases not exceeding 1 cwt. at one time if such sales or purchases are not part of a transaction or series of transactions involving the sale or purchase of a greater quantity.

10. Nothing in this Order shall apply to waste paper as defined in an Order dated 15th May 1917, made by the Minister of Munitions, and the provisions of the said Order shall not be affected by this Order.

11. All persons shall obey the instructions of the Controller of Paper relating to the purchase, sale, distribution, supply, transport, or storage of or the giving of information as to paper-making materials produced or collected in the United Kingdom.

12. The Paper-Making (Home Produced) Order, 1918, dated 13th March 1918, is hereby revoked without prejudice to any matter or thing done or suffered or penalty incurred or proceeding instituted thereunder.

13. Infringements of this Order are summary offences under the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

14. This Order may be cited as the Paper-Making Materials (Home-Produced) Order, No. 2, 1918.

H. LLEWELLYN SMITH,
A Secretary to the Board of Trade.

The ROAD TRANSPORT ORDER, 1918, dated 4th day of June 1918, made by the Board of Trade under Regulation 2JJJ of the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Regulations 2JJJ of the Defence of the Realm Regulations the Board of Trade hereby order as follows:—

1. All persons owning or having in their possession or under their control any horse or vehicle which is used for the transport of goods by road (except as is hereinafter mentioned) shall on or before the 31st day of July 1918, or by such later date as the Road Transport Board may by notice allow either generally or in the case of any particular area or areas, make a return in respect of such horse or vehicle in the form set out in the schedule to this Order.

2. Such return as is referred to in the last preceding paragraph shall be sent to the Secretary of the Road Transport Committee for the Area in which the horse or vehicle is usually kept,* and shall be signed by the person making such return.

3. Any person who has made a return under the provision of paragraph 1 of this Order shall before disposing of any horse or vehicle referred to in such return or before allowing such horse or vehicle to pass out of his possession or control give notice in writing to the Secretary of the Road Transport Committee for the Area in which the horse or vehicle is registered.

4. On and after the 1st day of September 1918, no person shall use any horse or vehicle (except as is hereinafter mentioned) which is being used for the transport of goods by road except under and in accordance with the terms of a permit granted by the Road Transport Board on behalf of the Board of Trade.

5. Nothing in this Order applies to horses or vehicles used wholly or mainly in agriculture or to horse-drawn vehicles having a load capacity of less than 15 cwt.

Infringements of this Order are summary offences against the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

This Order may be cited as the Road Transport Order, 1918.

Signed by order of the Board of Trade this 4th day of June 1918.

W. F. MARWOOD,
A Secretary to the Board of Trade.

HONOURS FOR MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the following honours, decorations and medals to the undermentioned Officers and Men:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Staff Payr. Henry Prosser Williams, R.N.
 For services with the Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from July 1917 to February 1918. He has shown personal bravery, sound judgment, and great devotion to duty, and in addition to his regular duties has performed executive officers' work, which required technical skill and judgment.

Cdr. John Albert Leighton, R.N.R.

In recognition of his services in connection with the transfer of British ships from the Baltic. He displayed the greatest tact and determination in carrying out this task in the face of great difficulties and opposition.

Lieut.-Cdr. (Act. Cdr.) Jamieson Boyd Adams, R.N.R.

For services with the Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from August 1916 to March 1918. He has on many occasions displayed the greatest gallantry and devotion to duty, and set a high example of cheerfulness, thoroughness, and keenness.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order.

Lieut.-Cdr. (Act. Cdr.) Gervase William Heaton Heaton, D.S.O., R.N.

For skill and bravery shown by him in recovering enemy mines.

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. Viscount Maidstone, R.N.V.R.

For services with the Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from December, 1915, to August, 1917. During this period he showed an utter contempt of danger and the greatest devotion to duty. As Plotting Officer he quickly acquired the necessary technique, combining with it sound judgment and a sense of responsibility which rendered his work absolutely reliable. On one occasion, his gun-pit being destroyed by enemy fire, he showed marked ability in handling ratings with courage and decision.

Lieut. George Davis, R.N.R.

For skill and bravery shown by him in recovering enemy mines.

Lieut. Edward Hilton Young, M.P., R.N.V.R.

For services with one of the most advanced Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from July, 1917, to February, 1918.

For many months the gun-pit and adjoining camp were subjected to continual heavy fire from machine guns and guns of the largest calibre. The conduct and example of this officer during these arduous times was beyond all praise, and he displayed qualities of leadership of the highest order. His gun was brought into action with skill and promptitude, and it was due to his example that the splendid moral of the ratings under him was maintained.

Eng.-Lieut. Ernest Miller Fittock, R.N.

For the coolness and promptitude shown by him in keeping the engines of one of H.M. ships working at high speed when the ship had been holed in the engine room below the water-line in action off the Belgian coast.

Act. Lieut. Basil Baseby, R.M.A.

In recognition of his services with the R.M.A. Siege Guns in Flanders. On 18th March, 1918, an enemy shell entered the right gun-pit, dismounting the gun, and causing a fire. Lieut. Baseby had been gassed the previous evening, and was still on the sick list, but at once proceeded to the gun-pit, and by his example and personal efforts extinguished the fire, which might otherwise have reached the ammunition in the ready magazine. The battery was under heavy shell fire at the time. He has at all times displayed zeal, cheerfulness, and ability.

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

HONOURS FOR THE ROYAL NAVAL AIR SERVICE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the following decorations and medal to Officers and Men of the Royal Naval Air Service:—

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Flt. Lieut. John Gamon, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On the 30th March, 1918, whilst returning from a bombing raid, he was attacked by three enemy triplanes, one of which he brought down and drove off the other two. He has carried out very many bombing raids on enemy lines of communication, aerodromes, and dumps. His work has always been of the greatest merit, and he has set a splendid example to those around him.

Flt. Sub.-Lieut., George Brown Sievwright M'Bain, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty in carrying out bombing raids on enemy troops, aerodromes, and lines of communication. On the 18th March, 1918, while returning from bombing an enemy aerodrome, he was attacked by five enemy scouts. After a short combat one of the scouts was seen to nose dive, and its tail plane fell off. The four other enemy aircraft retired. He has carried out many bombing raids, at all times showing great determination, and setting a splendid example.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Cross.

Flt. Lieut. (act. Flt. Cdr.) Leonard Henry Rochford, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For consistent determination, bravery, and skill. As a Flt. Cdr. he has shown considerable ability, and has always set a fine example when dealing with enemy aircraft. On the 21st March, 1918, when on offensive patrol he attacked one of nine Albatross scouts. Enemy aircraft was seen to go down in the mist out of control. He has destroyed or driven down out of control many other enemy machines.

Flt. Lieut. (act. Flt. Cdr.) Charles Roger Lupton, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and skill in leading bombing formations, especially on 26th March, 1918, when he carried out at low altitudes four bombing raids on enemy communications. In the course of these raids he caused great damage to enemy transport, and inflicted serious casualties on large numbers of their reinforcements. He has carried out very many bombing raids, and by his courage and resource has instilled a spirit of confidence and daring in all those who have flown with him.

Flt. Lieut. James Alpheus Glen, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For exceptional gallantry and skill as a Flight Leader when engaging enemy aircraft. He has destroyed or driven down out of control many enemy machines.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Medal.

Air Meeh., 1st Gr., Walter Naylor, D.S.M., O.N. F1406.

The following officer has been mentioned in despatches:—

Flt. Lieut. Hubert Charles Lemon, R.N.A.S. (killed).

War Office,

7th June 1918.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers and Non-commissioned Officer:—

Lt. Percy Valentine Storkey, Aust. Imp. Force.

For most conspicuous bravery, leadership and devotion to duty when in charge of a platoon in attack. On emerging from the wood the enemy trench line was encountered and Lt. Storkey found himself with six men. While continuing his move forward a large enemy party—about 80 to 100 strong—armed with several machine guns, was noticed to be holding up the advance of the troops on the right. Lt. Storkey immediately decided to attack this party from the flank and rear, and while moving forward in the attack was joined by Lt. Lipscomb and four men. Under the leadership of Lt. Storkey, this small party of two officers and ten other ranks charged the enemy position with fixed bayonets, driving the enemy out, killing and wounding about thirty, and capturing three officers and fifty men, also one machine gun.

The splendid courage shown by this officer in quickly deciding his course of action, and his skilful method of attacking against such great odds, removed a dangerous obstacle to the advance of the troops on the right, and inspired the remainder of our small party with the utmost confidence when advancing to the objective line.

T./2nd Lt. Alfred Cecil Herring, North'n R.

For most conspicuous bravery, initiative and devotion to duty when, after severe fighting, the enemy gained a position on the south bank of the canal. His post was cut off from the troops on both flanks and surrounded. 2nd Lt. Herring, however, immediately counter-attacked, and recaptured the position together with twenty prisoners and six machine guns. During the night the post was continually attacked, but all attacks were beaten off. This was largely due to the splendid heroism displayed by 2nd Lt. Herring, who continually visited his men and cheered them up. It was entirely due to the bravery and initiative of this Officer that the enemy advance was held up for eleven hours at an exceedingly critical period. His magnificent heroism, coupled with the skilful handling of his troops, were most important factors leading to success.

No. 19/11 Sjt. Albert Mountain, W. Yorks. R. (Leeds).

For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty during an enemy attack, when his company was in an exposed position on a sunken road, having hastily dug themselves in. Owing to the intense artillery fire, they were obliged to vacate the road and fall back. The enemy in the meantime was advancing in mass preceded by an advanced patrol about 200 strong. The situation was critical, and volunteers for a counter-attack were called for. Sjt. Mountain immediately stepped forward, and his party of ten men followed him. He then advanced on the flank with a Lewis gun and brought enfilade fire to bear on the enemy patrol, killing about 100.

In the meantime the remainder of the Company made a frontal attack, and the entire enemy patrol was cut up and thirty prisoners taken.

At this time the enemy main body appeared and the men, who were numerically many times weaker than the enemy, began to waver.

Sjt. Mountain rallied and organised his party and formed a defensive position from which to cover the retirement of the rest of the Company and the prisoners. With this party of one Non-commissioned Officer and four men he successfully held at bay 600 of the enemy for half an hour, eventually retiring and rejoining his Company.

He then took command of the flank post of the Battalion which was "in the air," and held on there for 27 hours until finally surrounded by the enemy.

Sjt. Mountain was one of the few who managed to fight their way back.

His supreme fearlessness and initiative undoubtedly saved the whole situation.

ARMY COUNCIL ORDER.

DRUGS FOR THE TROOPS.

Whereas by an Order dated the 11th day of May 1916, the Army Council, under the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, prohibited the sale or supply of certain drugs to or for any member of His Majesty's Forces except subject to certain conditions. Now the Army Council, in pursuance of the said powers and all other powers them thereunto enabling, hereby revoke the said Order of the 11th day of May 1916, and Order as follows:—

No person shall sell, give, procure, or supply or offer to sell, give, procure, or supply any of the drugs specified in the Schedule to this Order (hereinafter called the drug) to any member of His Majesty's Forces not being a registered medical practitioner or registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon except in accordance with the following conditions:—

(a) The drug must be supplied on and in accordance with a written prescription of a registered medical practitioner or registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon, and dispensed by a person legally authorised to dispense such prescription.

(b) The prescription must be dated and signed by the registered medical practitioner or registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon with his full name and address and qualifications, and marked with the words "not to be repeated," and must specify the total amount of the drug to be supplied on the prescription, except that where the medicine to be supplied on the prescription is a proprietary medicine, it shall be sufficient to state the amount of the medicine to be supplied.

(c) The drug shall not be supplied more than once on the same prescription.

(d) The prescription shall be marked with the date on which it is dispensed and shall be retained by the person, firm or body corporate by whom the prescription is dispensed, and shall be kept on the premises where it is dispensed, and shall be open to inspection by any person authorised for the purpose by a Secretary of State.

(e) The ingredients of every prescription so dispensed, with the name and address of the person to whom they are sold or delivered, shall be entered in a book specially set apart for this sole purpose, and kept on the premises where the prescription is dispensed, which book shall be open to inspection by any person authorised for the purpose by a Secretary of State.

By Order of the Army Council,

R. H. BRADE.

NOTE.—This Order does not supersede or modify the requirements of Defence of the Realm Regulation 40B in regard to opium or cocaine and those requirements must also be complied with.

But entries of sales of cocaine to or for members of His Majesty's Forces may be made in the cocaine book required to be kept under Defence of the Realm Regulation 40B provided the entries aforesaid are distinctively marked therein.
