

parts of His Majesty's Dominions on the said licence specified, and, for that purpose, to transact all business necessary for the purposes of the application:

And whereas it appears to me that the matters and things allowed by the said licence should no longer be permitted:

Now therefore I, Ernest Murray Pollock, Knight Commander of the British Empire, one of His Majesty's Counsel, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament, Controller of the Foreign Trade Department of the Foreign Office, in pursuance of the authority given me in this behalf by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, hereby, on behalf of His Majesty, revoke the Licence so given on the 13th day of April 1917, and give notice that all matters and things, which were by the said Licence permitted, are from the date hereof prohibited by the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915, and the Proclamation issued thereunder.

ERNEST M. POLLOCK.

Board of Trade,
7 Whitehall Gardens, London S.W., 1.

THE PITWOOD ORDER, 1918, DATED 29TH JULY 1918, MADE BY THE BOARD OF TRADE, PURSUANT TO REGULATIONS 2 F AND 2 JJ OF THE DEFENCE OF THE REALM REGULATIONS.

The Board of Trade, deeming it expedient to make further exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Regulations 2 F and 2 JJ of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, hereby order as follows:—

1. For the purposes of this Order, Great Britain shall be divided into areas called Pitwood areas of supply as defined in the First Schedule hereto.

The expression "Pitwood" means pitprops, sawn props and timber in the round which is intended for use in mines.

2. On and after the 12th day of August 1918, no person shall deliver, move or consign or cause or permit to be delivered moved or consigned pitwood from one area of supply to another except under and in accordance with the terms of a permit granted by the Controller of Timber Supplies or by a person duly authorised on his behalf.

3. From the date of this Order no person shall buy or sell or offer to buy or sell pitwood (whether in selected sizes or otherwise) at prices exceeding those set forth in the Second Schedule hereto; provided that the Controller of Timber Supplies by notice under his hand may from time to time alter such prices, and the prices as altered shall thereafter be the maximum prices at which pitwood may be bought or sold.

4. Where pitwood is sold for delivery into another area under a permit granted in accordance with paragraph 2 hereof the maximum price at which such timber may be sold shall be the price prevailing in the area to which the pitwood is delivered.
