

(1) of Section one of the Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914, shall not apply to any judgment, order, or decree for the payment or recovery of costs only or for the payment or recovery of costs awarded in any proceedings for the recovery of any sum of money to which the said subsection (1) does not apply.

2. This Order may be cited as the Courts (Emergency Powers) Order, 1918.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of August 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 18th day of July 1918, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by the Regulations for the Government of Your Majesty's Naval Service it is provided that no person shall be appointed a Chaplain in the Royal Navy who shall not have been regularly ordained a Deacon or Priest of the Church of England, or admitted to the same Holy Orders by the lawful authority of one of the Churches within the Realm of Great Britain and Ireland which are in communion with the Church of England:

"And whereas we consider that Ministers of Religious Bodies, not in conformity with the Church of England, who are rendering full time service in the Royal Navy, should receive, under such conditions as we may determine, temporary Commissions as Acting Chaplains during the period of hostilities:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve of temporary Commissions as Acting Chaplains in the Royal Navy being issued to such Ministers, at our discretion, and of their being brought under the Regulations applicable to Acting Chaplains for Temporary Service, Royal Navy, in regard to emoluments, gratuities, and pensions for disabilities, injuries, or wounds, and allowances to Dependants.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.
