FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1918.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of August 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm Regulations") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915, and other enactments:

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said regulations:—

1. In Regulation 2JJ after the words "2F to 2J inclusive" in subsection (1) thereof, there shall be inserted the words "(including 2GG)."

2. In Regulation 7B after the words "unloading of wagons" in paragraph (b) thereof, there shall be inserted the words "by prescribing the time after the expiration of which charges may be made by railway companies for the detention of wagons or trucks or the use or occupation of any accommodation whether before or after the conveyance of any goods and."

3. Regulation 14H shall be amended by the insertion of the following words at the end of subsection (4) thereof:—

"or

(d) apply to any woman who, having been born a British subject but having become an alien by marriage, has been granted a certificate of naturalisation, or has before the tenth day of August, nineteen hundred and eighteen, been granted an exemption from the provisions of the Aliens Restriction Order relating to change of name by enemy aliens."

4. After Regulation 30EE the following regulation shall be inserted:—

"30EEE.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Treasury to make orders fixing a maximum price for silver bullion.

(2) Any order made under this regulation may contain such supplemental provisions as appear to the Treasury necessary or expedient for giving effect to the order, and may be revoked, extended, or varied, as occasion requires.

(3) If any person sells or purchases, or agrees or offers to sell or purchase, except under a licence in writing granted by the Treasury, any silver bullion at a price exceeding the maximum price fixed by an order made under this regulation, or contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of any such order, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

5. Regulation 39E shall be amended as follows:—

(1) At the end of subsection (1) there shall be inserted the words: "and requiring persons being in occupation of or having control of any premises to allow petroleum to be so discharged at or on to those premises, notwithstanding any rules, regulations, agreement, or other matter whatsoever to the contrary."

(2) In subsection (2) the words from "and if any person" to the end thereof shall be omitted.

(3) At the end of subsection (3) the following words shall be inserted: "and may contain such consequential and supplemental provisions as appear to the Shipping Controller to be necessary for carrying the order into effect."

(4) After subsection (3) the following subsection shall be inserted:—

"(4) If any person acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, the provisions of any order made under this regulation, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

6. After Regulation 39F the following regulation shall be inserted:—

"39FF.—(1) With a view to providing and maintaining an efficient supply of shipping the Shipping Controller in conjunction with the Board of Trade may make orders providing for all or any of the following matters, that is to say:—

(a) Requiring every person employed as master seaman or apprentice on board a British ship to hold the prescribed certificate of identity and service, and prohibiting the employment on board a British ship of any person as master seaman or apprentice unless he is the holder of such a certificate;

(b) Determining the persons by whom and the manner in which applications for identity and service certificates are to be made and regulating the grant of such certificates;

(c) Providing for the registration of persons to whom such certificates are granted;

(d) Requiring all persons concerned in the management, whether as owners, occupiers or otherwise, of seamen's lodging-houses to make returns giving the prescribed particulars with regard to the management, use, or conduct thereof, and requiring any such returns to be verified in the prescribed manner.

(2) For the purpose of testing the accuracy of any return made in pursuance of an order made under this regulation, or of obtaining information in case of failure to make a return, any person authorised in that behalf by the Board of Trade may enter any premises belonging to or in the occupation of the person who has made or has failed to make the return, and may carry out such inspection and examination (including the inspection and examination of books) as he may consider necessary for testing the accuracy of the returns or for obtaining such information.

(3) No individual return or part of a return made, and no information obtained, in pursuance of an order made under this regulation shall without lawful authority be published or disclosed by any person except for the purpose of a prosecution under this regulation.

(4) If in any case the Board of Trade are of opinion that it is expedient to obtain information from any person in connection with any seamen's lodging-house the Board may, without making an order for the purpose, require that person to furnish them with that information, and where the Board so require any information to be furnished the provisions of this regulation shall apply to information furnished and the furnishing of information as they apply to returns made and the making of returns.

(5) Any order made under this regulation may be revoked or varied as occasion requires, and may contain such consequential and supplemental provisions as appear to the Shipping Controller and the Board of Trade to be necessary for carrying the order into effect.

(6) In this regulation—

The expression "prescribed" means prescribed by order made under this regulation:

The expressions "master" and "seaman" have respectively the same meaning as in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894:

The expression "seamen's lodging-house" means any house, hostel, hotel or other premises to which seamen resort or in which seamen are accustomed to lodge.

(7) Any person who acts in contravention of or fails to comply with the provisions of any order made under this regulation, or who obstructs or impedes in the exercise of any of his powers under this regulation any person authorised in that behalf by the Board of Trade, shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

7. In Regulation 40 for the paragraph beginning with the words "If any member of the crew" and ending with the words "guilty of an offence against these regulations" there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

"If any member of the crew of a British ship without lawful authority gives, sells, procures, or supplies, or offers to give, sell, procure, or supply, any intoxicant to any member of His Majesty's forces, or to any member of the forces of any of His Majesty's allies, embarked as a passenger on board the ship, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations."

8. After Regulation 45E the following regulation shall be inserted:—

"45EE.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, every person who is on the second day of August, nineteen hundred and eighteen, serving in an established capacity in His Majesty's civil service shall before the first day of November, nineteen hundred and eighteen, or before such later date as may in any special case be allowed by the head officer of the department to which he belongs, and every person who after the second day of August, nineteen hundred and eighteen, is admitted to serve in such an established capacity shall, within one month after he is so admitted, take the oath of allegiance in the usual form:

Provided that a person who has in any capacity whatsoever previously taken the oath of allegiance and makes a declaration of that fact in such manner as the Treasury direct shall not be required to take the oath again under this regulation.

(2) Without prejudice to the power of any other persons to administer an oath, the oath under this regulation may be administered to the persons required to take the same by such persons, or persons of such class, as in England the Lord Chancellor, in Scotland the Lord Advocate, and in Ireland the Lord Chancellor for Ireland, may direct.

(3) For the purpose of securing compliance with the requirements of this regulation a record shall be kept in every Government department of the persons by whom the oath of allegiance is taken under this regulation and of the persons who are exempt from the requirements of this regulation by reason of having previously taken the oath.

(4) In this regulation the expression 'oath' includes affirmation as respects a person who is permitted by law to make a solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath."

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of August 1918.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

Civil Service Commission,

August 6, 1918.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury the following Regulation is substituted for the existing Regulation No. 11 in the Regulations respecting Boy Clerks registered for temporary employment in Public Departments, dated 15th September 1916, and published in the London Gazette of that date, as amended by notice published in the London Gazette, dated 12th March 1918:—

11. Boy Clerks who may fall ill while serving in any Department, and whose illness may be attested by medical certificate to the satisfaction of the authorities of such Department, may be allowed sick-leave with pay, provided that no Boy Clerk shall be paid for sick-leave for more than 36 days within any one year, exclusive of public holidays. Subject to this proviso, Boy Clerks aged not more than 16½ may be allowed sick-leave at the full rate of pay for the official day. In the case of those aged more than 16½, but not more than 18, a deduction will be made at the rate of 6s. a week, and in the case of those aged more than 18 a deduction will be made at the rate of 10s. a week.

Civil Service Commission,

August 6, 1918.

Notice is hereby given, that upon a special recommendation from the Board of Inland Revenue, and with the assent of the Treasury, Mr. Basil Montague Percy, having served as a Clerk of the Second Division for upwards of eight years, has been promoted to an Assistant Surveyorship of Taxes in the Inland Revenue Department, with a special certificate granted exceptionally by the Civil Service Commissioners.

SPECIAL ACTS (EXTENSION OF TIME)
ACT, 1915.ERIGHT WATER AND ELECTRIC POWER
(EXTENSION OF TIME) ORDER, 1918.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 19 of the Ericht Water and Electric Power Act, 1912 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1912"), as follows:—

"The powers of the Company for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of this Act shall cease after the expiration of three years from the commencement of this Act."

And whereas by the Ericht Water and Electric Power (Extension of Time) Order, 1916, made by the Secretary for Scotland in terms of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, the powers of the Company under the said Section were extended for the period of one year from the 7th day of August 1915, and by the Ericht Water and Electric Power (Extension of Time) Order, 1917, were further extended for the period of one year from the 7th day of August 1916:

And whereas the Ericht Water and Electric Power Company (hereinafter called "the Company") have applied to the Secretary for Scotland for an Order in terms of the last-mentioned Act, further extending the time limited by the said Section:

And whereas I am satisfied that the time in respect of which the application is made should be extended:

Now therefore I, the Right Honourable Robert Munro, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the last-mentioned Act, hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Ericht Water and Electric Power (Extension of Time) Order, 1918.

2. The powers of the Company under Section 19 of the Act of 1912 as extended by the Ericht Water and Electric Power (Extension of Time) Order, 1917, shall be further extended for the period of one year from the seventh day of August 1917, and the Act of 1912 shall have effect as if the time as extended by this Order were substituted for the time specified in the said Section.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall, this fifth day of August 1918.

(L. S.) (Sgd.) ROBERT MUNRO,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.
Scottish Office, Whitehall,
5th August 1918.
