FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1918.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of August 1918.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited:

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, should be further amended by making the following additions to the Schedule to the same:—

That the following headings should be added:—

Notes of the Bank of France to all destinations except to destinations in France.

Notes of the United States Government and United States Bank Notes to all destinations except to destinations in the United States.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, the Director of the War Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

*Chancery of the Royal Victorian Order,
St. James's Palace,
13th August 1918.*

The KING has been graciously pleased, on the occasion of His Majesty's recent visit to His Army in the Field, to make the following appointments to the Royal Victorian Order:—

To be Commander.

Major-General John Maitland Salmond, C.M.G., D.S.O., Royal Air Force.

To be Member of the Fourth Class.

Commander Reginald St. Pierre Parry, Royal Navy.

To be Member of the Fifth Class.

Second Lieutenant Norman Redston Ingrouille, 1st Royal Guernsey Light Infantry.

Whitehall, August 24, 1918.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal in each of the following cases in recognition of gallantry displayed in saving life in France:—

Second Lieutenant (temporary Captain) William Neilson, 7th Battalion, Scottish Rifles, attached 10th Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps.

On the 24th February 1917, Captain Neilson was superintending men of his company at grenade-throwing at a Brigade Grenade School in France. A man threw a grenade from a trench while Captain Neilson was standing out of the trench behind him. The man slipped in the mud, and the grenade fell in the trench, in which several other men were standing. Captain Neilson jumped down, picked up the grenade out of the mud, and threw it over the parapet. The grenade exploded just after leaving his hand, and wounded him slightly in several places. By his promptitude and courage he undoubtedly saved his men from injury.

Captain Neilson died of wounds in November 1917.

Second Lieutenant Guy Maddison Vaisey, 3rd Battalion (attached 10th Battalion), Gloucestershire Regiment.

On the 6th April 1917, during bomb-throwing practice at a Divisional Bomb School in France, one of the men under instruction, having extracted the pin from a Mills grenade, allowed the grenade to slip out of his hand. Lieutenant Vaisey, seeing what had happened, dashed round a traverse in the trench from which the practice was being conducted, picked up the grenade, and threw it clear of the trench; it exploded almost immediately.

The action was performed at great personal risk, as the thrower was in his way and was dazed with fright. Lieutenant Vaisey by his courage and prompt action undoubtedly prevented a fatal accident.

Lieutenant Vaisey died of wounds in April last.

Whitehall, August 23, 1918.

The KING has been pleased to give and grant unto the undermentioned gentlemen His Majesty's Royal licence and authority to wear the Insignia of the Legion of Honour of the classes indicated against their respective names, which Decorations have been conferred upon them by the President of the French Republic in recognition of valuable services rendered to the French Authorities in connection with the present War:—

Commander of the Legion of Honour.

Sir Frederick John Dealtry Lugard, G.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O., Governor-General of Nigeria.

Officer of the Legion of Honour.

Herbert Symonds Goldsmith, Esq., C.M.G., Lieutenant-Governor in the Protectorate of Nigeria.

Chevalier of the Legion of Honour.

William Frederick Gowers, Esq., First Class Resident, Northern Provinces, Nigeria.

Whitehall, August 23, 1918.

The KING has been pleased to give and grant unto the undermentioned gentlemen His Majesty's Royal licence and authority to wear the Insignia of the Order of the Crown of Italy of the Classes indicated against their respective names, which Decorations have been conferred upon them by His Majesty the King of Italy in recognition of valuable services rendered by them in connection with the examination of recruits for the Italian Army:—

Officer of the Order of the Crown of Italy.

Thomas Vincent Dickinson, Esq., M.D., M.R.C.P., M.R.C.S.

James Donelan, Esq., M.B., M.S.

Chevaliers of the Order of the Crown of Italy.

Andrew Stark Currie, Esq., M.D., M.R.C.S.

Andrew Stanford Morton, Esq., M.B., C.M., F.R.C.S.

Whitehall, August 23, 1918.

The KING has been pleased to give and grant unto Temporary Lieutenant-Colonel Albert Napoleon Tucker, Royal Engineers; His Majesty's Royal licence and authority to wear the Insignia of the Fourth Class of the Order of the Nile, which Decoration has been conferred upon him by His Highness the Sultan of Egypt in recognition of valuable services rendered by him.

The KING has been graciously pleased to make a posthumous award of the Decoration of the Albert Medal in recognition of the gallantry of Reginald Curtis Clayton, an apprentice in the Mercantile Marine.

In March last the steamship in which Mr. Clayton was serving was in collision, and a serious fire broke out on board. Mr. Clayton was aft, where the accommodation for the crew was situated. It was his fire-station duty to stand by the flood valve of the magazine; and, in spite of the whole of the deck being in flames, he groped his way through the fire, found the valve, and turned it on to "flood." He received such severe injuries that he succumbed in hospital four days later.

Those of the crew who survived no doubt owed their lives to the flooding of the magazine.

*Board of Trade,
Whitehall Gardens,
26th August 1918.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to make a posthumous award of the Decoration of the Albert Medal in recognition of the gallant conduct of Mr. Robert Coulson, a second engineer in the Mercantile Marine.

The steamship in which Mr. Coulson was serving was struck by a torpedo in the stokehold. The engine-room became full of escaping steam, and Mr. Coulson and the fourth engineer were seriously scalded. Instead of making for safety, however, Mr. Coulson, in spite of his injuries, carried the fourth engineer, who was in a helpless condition, up the engine-room ladders to the top platform, out of immediate danger of steam and the inrush of water, and he then himself became exhausted.

The chief engineer, who had run to the engine-room from the bridge, assisted both the injured men out of the engine-room, and with help managed to get them into a lifeboat. After being landed they were taken to hospital, where both succumbed to their injuries.

ARMY COUNCIL ORDER.

THE JUTE GOODS (PRICES) No. 3 ORDER, 1918.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, the Army Council hereby order as follows:—

1. No person shall sell for use within the United Kingdom any yarns or goods of any description having been produced by him wholly from Jute at prices exceeding the prices set out in the Schedule hereto annexed, or such other prices as in any particular case may be allowed by or on behalf of the Director of Raw Materials.

2. No person shall sell for use within the United Kingdom any yarns or goods of the description aforesaid not having been produced by him at prices exceeding more than 5 per cent. the prices set out in the Schedule hereto annexed or such other prices as in any particular case may be allowed by or on behalf of the Director of Raw Materials; provided, that on any sale by any such person of any yarns or goods of the description aforesaid not exceeding £100 in value the selling price may exceed by 10 per cent., and no more, the producers' sale prices thereof as determined in accordance with Clause 1 of this Order; and provided further that nothing contained in this Clause shall be deemed to refer to any sale by any such person of any yarns or goods of the description aforesaid not exceeding £25 in value.

3. No person shall in pursuance of any contract entered into on or after the 6th day of January 1918, make or take delivery of any yarns or goods of any description produced wholly from Jute otherwise than upon the terms that the price provided by any such contract for any goods remaining undelivered at the date hereof shall be varied in accordance with the provisions of Clause 1 hereof; provided, that in the event of the parties to any such contract not agreeing so to vary it, the said contract shall be deemed to have been cancelled.

4. The Jute Goods (Prices) No. 2 Order, 1918, is hereby cancelled.

5. This Order may be cited as the Jute Goods (Prices) No. 3 Order, 1918.

By Order of the Army Council,

R. H. BRADE.
