

to grant pensions and allowances, and subscribe to public, general or useful objects, to carry on any business abroad, and do any of the before-mentioned things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors or otherwise, or by or through agents, trustees, contractors or otherwise, and to apply their funds for any such purpose, and to register the Society and obtain concessions abroad to invest any powers or authorities in any attorney or agent, and to do in any part of the world all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Society or necessary or advisable for the effectual carrying on of the Society's business.

4. To empower the Society to apply to the High Court or other competent authority for any extension or alteration of the Society's objects and powers.

5. To define and make provision for, or authorize the enlargement or other alteration of the capital of the Society, and provide that the shares in the Society shall be deemed personal estate.

6. To make further provision with reference to the power, duties and remuneration of the directors, the estate trustees, the general trustees and officers of the Society, or some of them.

7. To provide in the event of the Society being registered and incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1908 to 1917, or any Acts amending or extending the same, for the transfer to and vesting in the Society, of all or some of the estates, property and effects, real, personal and mixed, which may be then vested in the said estate trustees, and liable to the operation of section 12 of the Legal and General Life Assurance Society's Act, 1878, and to restrict the application of the said section 12 to property excepted from such transfer to and vesting in the Society or which may be transferred to and vested in the said estate trustees after such registration and incorporation of the Society, to provide for the subsequent transfer and vesting (if required) of such last-mentioned property to and in the Society, and to make all necessary or convenient provisions with respect to any such transfer or vesting.

8. To make further provision for and with respect to the determination, setting apart, appropriation, apportionment and distribution of the profits accruing to the Assurance Fund, the General Fund, and other funds of the Society, or any one or more of such funds or other profits of the Society and the rights of holders of any class or classes of policies granted by the Society in any such fund or profits, and more especially, but not exclusively, to make provision with regard to the determination of the rate of bonus on the existing and future participating policies (whether life or endowment) issued or to be issued by the Society, and to entitle the holders of such policies to participate in the profits accruing to the General Fund or other funds of the Society in addition to the Assurance Fund, to such extent and subject to such limitations, exceptions, and conditions as the intended Act may prescribe or the Society may determine, and to limit the rate of bonus payable on such participating policies to that heretofore declared by the Society as a maximum, and to provide for the payment of interim bonuses on participating policies.

9. To confer upon the Society, the directors, the estate trustees and the general trustees all such powers, rights, and privileges as shall be necessary or expedient for carrying into effect any of the existing objects of the Society, or any alterations or extensions thereof as aforesaid, or any other objects of the Bill, and to authorize the Society to apply their funds (whether capital or revenue) to any of the purposes of the intended Act.

10. To amend, vary or repeal all or any of the provisions of the Deed of Settlement constituting the Society, and dated the 14th April 1838, and any laws, regulations or provisions of the Society relating to any of the matters aforesaid, and to enact new provisions in lieu thereof, and to make provision for and with respect to the subsequent repeal or amendment of the whole or any portions of the said Deed of Settlement, or all or any laws, regulations and provisions of the Society, and the making of new laws, regulations and provisions in substitution therefor, and to confer on the Society and the directors all necessary or expedient powers for those purposes.

11. To repeal or amend all or any of the provisions of the Legal and General Life Assurance Society's Act, 1878, and the Legal and General Life Assurance Society's Act, 1895, or either of them, and if thought fit to re-enact the same in whole or in part with or without modification, and to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges inconsistent with or which would interfere with the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 14th day of November 1918.

LAWRENCE, GRAHAM & Co.,

6 New Square, Lincoln's Inn, W.C. 2,
Solicitors for the Bill.

REES & FRERES,

5 Victoria Street,
Westminster, S.W. 1,

Parliamentary Agents.

Scottish Office—Provisional Order—
Session 1919.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland)
Act 1899.

EDINBURGH AND LEITH CORPORATIONS GAS.

(Extension of Time for the Construction and Completion of Authorised Works at Granton Amendment and Incorporation of Acts and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that Application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland on or before the 17th day of December next by Petition under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899 for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") promoted by the Edinburgh and Leith Corporations Gas Commissioners (hereinafter called "the Commissioners") for the following or some of the following objects and purposes that is to say:—

To extend the time limited by the Edinburgh