"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being, or having been, an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are, from time to time, directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas the Regulations for the Government of Your Majesty's Fleet provide that an Officer, who receives a wound or injury which is not equivalent or nearly equivalent to the loss of a limb or the use of a limb, may receive a gratuity of such sum as we may think fit, provided that it does not amount to one year's full pay of his rank :

"And whereas Army Officers who sustain wounds or injuries which are very severe, but not nearly equivalent to the loss of a limb, may receive, in addition to a gratuity, temporary pensions at half the rates of pension allowed for the loss of a limb, and we consider that provision for the payment of similar pensions should be made in the case of Naval Officers, whose wounds or injuries are of the same description :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve of such cases being dealt with under the following Regulation :—

"Officers and Warrant Officers on the Permanent, Supplementary, or Temporary Lists of the Navy and Reserve, who have sustained in action injuries which are very severe, but which are not equivalent or nearly equivalent to the loss of a limb or the use of a limb, to be eligible to receive, at the discretion of the Admiralty, in addition to the authorised gratuity, temporary pensions at half the rates laid down for the loss of a limb, such pensions to commence after the expiration of the period for which a gratuity has been awarded, and to be renewable from year to year, provided the effects of the injury continue to be very severe and likely to be permanent.

If the temporary pension is renewed for 5 years, and the bodily disability continues, the pension may, at the discretion of the Admiralty, be converted into a permanent pension :

"The above Regulation to take effect as from the fourth day of August 1914 :

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
