ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of February 1919.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.—No. 76.

NOTE (1).—All persons or firms resident, carrying on business or being in the United Kingdom are prohibited from having, with any person or firm mentioned in this List, or in any List issued under the Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, any dealings other than such as are expressly authorised by paragraph 5 of the Proclamation. A List (The Consolidated List, No. 76A) consolidating all previous Lists revised to date and including the amendments in the Schedule annexed hereto is issued concurrently with this Order. This Consolidated List contains all the names which, up to this date, are included in the Statutory List.

Additions to and variations in these Lists will be published at intervals approximately of two weeks.

The Lists are published in the London Gazette and reproduced in the Board of Trade Journal, and separate copies of all Lists may be obtained at small cost from the Superintendent of Publications, His Majesty's Stationery Office, Imperial House, Kingsway, W.C.

NOTE (2).—Where a person or firm mentioned in the List has more than one address in the country, or group of countries, under which the name of the person or firm appears, all dealings in that country, or in any country in the group, with such person or firm are prohibited even in cases where one only of the addresses or one only of the countries is specially mentioned.

NOTE (3).—Trading is prohibited under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations of 25th June and 10th November 1915, with any person or firm of enemy nationality resident or carrying on business in China, Siam, Persia, Morocco, Liberia or Portuguese East Africa. Persons or firms in the United Kingdom are therefore prohibited from trading with any person or firm of enemy nationality in any of those countries, even though such person or firm is not mentioned by name in the Statutory List.

NOTE (4).—In order to minimise as far as possible any inconvenience which may be caused to British traders by the dislocation of export trade owing to the inclusion in the Statutory List of a former connection, the Foreign Trade Department is collecting and classifying the names of non-enemy firms who may be able to act as substitutes for firms mentioned in the Statutory List. A considerable amount of information is already available in the Foreign Trade Department, and it is in many cases possible to suggest the names of satisfactory substitutes for individual firms on the Lists, without the necessity of referring the matter abroad. The Department is, however, prepared on application to inquire of His Majesty's Representatives abroad for the names of suitable substitutes. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph he is required to undertake to pay the cost of telegraphic correspondence. It would greatly facilitate the work of the Foreign Trade Department if applicants, in making inquiries, would specify the particular trade or trades for which substitutes are required. General enquiries for new connections abroad should be addressed to The Comptroller-General, Department of Overseas Trade (Development and Intelligence), 73 Basinghall Street, London, E.C. 2.

NOTE (5).—The Statutory List for each country is telegraphed, on the day of issue, to His Majesty's representative in that country, who is instructed to notify accordingly British Consular Officers, to whom persons abroad should apply for information as to names on the List. Persons and firms in the United Kingdom with agencies or branches abroad would, however, be well advised to furnish such agencies or branches with issues of the List as they appear. The names on the Lists for all countries in Central or South America are also notified to His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, who transmits them to H.M. Consul-General at New York and to other centres in the United States likely to be interested.

NOTE (6).—It is not unusual for firms in Holland and the Netherland East Indies to be registered under names commencing with descriptive terms such as "Handel Maatschappij" (Trading Company) or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (Limited Liability Company). In such cases it has been found more convenient to publish the firm under its proper name followed by the general descriptive term "Handel Maatschappij" or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (N.V.) as in the case of an English company. For instance, Handel Maatschappij van den Berg & Company, and Naamlooze Venootschap de Komeet v/h Dumonceau Frères will be found under "Berg" and "Komeet" respectively, and not under "Handel" or "Naamlooze."

3. Subject and without prejudice to the provisions of Regulation 3 (v) hereof, the panels of persons to represent employers and workmen respectively required to be constituted under sub-section (2) of Section 90 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, shall be constituted as follows :—

- (i) The number of the members of the panel shall be such as the Minister of Labour thinks fit.
- (ii) The members of the panels to represent the employers and workmen respectively in a district shall be appointed by the Minister of Labour, but the Minister, before making the appointment, shall take into consideration the names of any persons suggested for appointment by the Advisory Committees, if any, constituted for that district under sub-section (5) of Section 2 of the Labour Exchanges Act, 1909.

Provided that if in any district an Advisory Committee, as aforesaid, is not in existence, the Minister, before making the appointments, shall take into consideration the names of any persons suggested for appointment by or on behalf of any employers or workmen or any associations of employers or workmen who appear to him to be interested.

- (iii) The term of office of the members of a panel shall be for one year or such longer term as the Minister may direct.
- (iv) Casual vacancies on a panel representing either employers or workmen may be filled by the Minister of Labour in like manner as above, and any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the expiration of the period during which the person in whose place he is appointed would have held office.

Provided that the Minister shall not be bound to fill any casual vacancy unless he think fit to do so, and a panel shall not be deemed to be improperly constituted by reason only that a casual vacancy on a panel has not been filled.

- (v) Notwithstanding anything in these Regulations the members of the first panels of Referees constituted under the National Insurance Act, 1911, shall continue to hold office until such time as their office is terminated by the Minister of Labour.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour this 5th day of February 1919.

D. J. SHACKLETON,
Secretary to the Ministry of Labour.

HONOURS FOR PALESTINE OPERATIONS (Oct.—Dec. 1917).

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the following honours, decorations, and medals to the undermentioned Officers and Men, in recognition of their services during Naval operations carried out in conjunction with Military operations in Palestine from October to December 1917:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Cdr. John Dodd Nares, R.N., H.M.S. Enterprise.

Did most useful service prior to the operations in fixing positions north of Gaza, thus enabling a map to be drawn up. Rendered every assistance to R.A. Egypt from the 6th to 12th November 1917, when the Rear-Admiral's flag was flown in Enterprise.

Cdr. Cecil James Crocker, R.N., H.M. Monitor M.31.

Was senior officer of the M. class Monitors. After the capture of the Sheikh Hassan position, in the early morning of the 2nd November 1917, the monitors and destroyers operated to cover this position whilst it was being consolidated. When the enemy made a strong and determined counter-attack, lasting from about 3 to 4.30 p.m., Cdr. Crocker closed his squadron inshore and maintained a heavy fire upon the enemy, which went far to break up the attack. He displayed great tact and resource, and maintained close relations with the military on the sea flank of the Expeditionary Force, and it was largely due to his personality that the naval co-operation was so successful.

Cdr. Edmond Alan Berners Stanley, M.V.O., R.N., H.M.S. Staunch.

Senior officer of destroyers employed guarding the flank of the Army during the Gaza operations, and rendered valuable service during the enemy's counter-attacks upon Sheikh Hassan.

Lieut.-Cdr. (now Cdr.) Francis Edmund Blechyn-den Haselfoot, R.N., H.M.S. Grafton.

This officer's previous experience, coupled with his energy and originality, was of the greatest value. He prepared observation posts and arranged communications from them to the signal stations, designed and constructed spotting clocks, placed landmarks and fixed them by triangulation, produced special squared maps for naval bombarding purposes, and assisted in the survey north of Gaza. During the operations he was attached to the XXIst Corps as Liaison Officer, in which capacity he did excellent work.

Maj. and Bt. Lieut.-Col. (tempy. Lieut.-Col.) Trant Bramston Luard, R.M.L.I., H.M.S. Hannibal.

Was employed with Lieut.-Cdr. Haselfoot to establish observation posts before Gaza for naval use. He was in charge of the spotting officers and men, and rendered valuable services in authorising fire. The accuracy and success of the sea bombardment was largely due to Major Luard's organisation.

Cdr. George Gregory, O.B.E., R.D., R.N.R.

Was Naval Transport Officer in charge of the landing of stores and ammunition on the coast. The victualling of the Army and the supply of ammunition was largely dependent on the landing of stores upon an open coast under unfavourable conditions; it reflected great credit on Cdr. Gregory and his staff that this work was so well performed, and that such excellent results were obtained from the Egyptian labourers employed on it.

Lieut.-Cdr. (act. Cdr.) Vaughan Alexander Edward Hanning-Lee, R.N., H.M.S. Ladybird.

Senior officer of river gunboats. These vessels replaced the destroyers on flank guard when the latter were absent fuelling, and were also employed cutting wire defences before the attack upon Sheikh Hassan, and in firing on trenches and observation posts. The Ladybird's fire upon Askelon, about 3.30 p.m. on the 8th November 1917, disorganised the enemy's spotting arrangements and reduced the casualties of our troops.

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. (now Lieut.-Cdr.) Melvill Willis Ward, R.N., H.M. Monitor Raglan.

Flt. Lieut. (act. Flt.-Cdr.) Edward James Pointer Burling, R.N.A.S. (now Capt., R.A.F.).

Carried out very successful spotting work in connection with the bombardment of Deir Sineid. During this work he was attacked by a very fast hostile aeroplane, and it was only due to the extremely clever handling of his aeroplane that the machine was not destroyed.

Lieut. George Brand, R.N.R., H.M. Trawler Gwennlian.

Commanded the Drifter Flotilla which laid and maintained indicator nets off the beaches, on which stores were landed. Owing to the strength of the current off the coast, the nets frequently dragged out of position, necessitating their being weighed and relaid. That this defence was kept in so satisfactory a state was due to the unremitting care and attention paid by Lieut. Brand and the hard work done by the drifter crews.

Lieut. Harold Francis Addenbrooke-Kent, R.N.R., H.M.S. Blossom.

In recognition of his services in going into a burning ammunition dump to assist in extinguishing a fire, on the 16th October 1917.

Skpr. Andrew Buchan, R.N.R., 1323S.A., H.M. Trawler Gwennlian.

Skpr. James Abraham King, R.N.R., 1528S.A., H.M. Drifter Twenty-eight.

Ably assisted Lieut. Brand in laying and maintaining indicator nets off the beaches.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Cross.

Flt. Lieut. Henry Vernon Worrall, D.S.C., R.N.A.S. (now Capt., R.A.F.).

Carried out very successful spotting work for "Requin" off the Wadi Hesi.

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

P.O. Mech. Joseph William Baglee, O.N. F142.

Ch. Engmn. William Thompson Gilroy, R.N.R., O.N. 4376E.S.

2nd Hnd. William Martin, R.N.R., O.N. 2854S.D.

2nd Hnd. Robert Roskell, R.N.R., O.N. 10017D.A.

Admiralty, 21st February 1919.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Albert Medal for gallantry in saving life at sea to

Commander Henry de Beauvoir Tupper, R.N., and

Able Seaman Edward Thomas Spalding, O.N. J55883 (Ch.).

The account of the services in respect of which these decorations have been conferred is as follows:—

On the 4th August 1918, H.M.S. "Comet," under the command of Commander Tupper, was seriously damaged in collision. The ship was badly holed on the starboard side, the deck and all compartments eventually filled with water as far as the engine-room bulkhead, and the stern was at any moment liable to fall off. On being informed that the hydraulic release depth-charge was set to "fire," Commander Tupper sent away a man in a whaler to remove the primer. It was only possible to remove the primer from one of the charges, leaving the other depth-charge about 15 feet under water, still at "fire." Commander Tupper then went away in a dinghy himself, and by repeated diving operations tried to render it safe. After a rest he returned to complete the operation, in which Able Seaman Spalding, who was a passenger on the ship at the time and was a good swimmer, volunteered to assist. Commander Tupper at first refused to allow Spalding to assist him, as the latter had no knowledge of depth-charges, and Commander Tupper did not consider it safe for him to go down. Ultimately Commander Tupper and Able Seaman Spalding swam to the spot beneath which the depth-charge was submerged, and alternately gave a turn to the iron bar which Commander Tupper had placed in the handle, until the primer was eventually unscrewed and taken out of the depth-charge, thus rendering it safe. This operation was of the most dangerous nature, as at any moment the stern of the ship might have dropped off before the depth-charge was removed and would have carried down both the officer and the man, who would have inevitably lost their lives. The explosion would also have destroyed the remaining portion of the ship, with loss of life to those of the crew who were on board.
