TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 1919.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm Regulations") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm :

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915, and other enactments :

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council :

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter appearing :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said regulations :—

1. The following regulation shall be inserted after Regulation 37c :—

"37d. A person shall not, unless specially authorised for the time being by the Admiralty or Board of Trade, act in the capacity of master or person in charge of a British merchant ship unless he is a natural born British subject and the son of parents both of whom were at the time of his birth either natural born British subjects or British subjects by naturalisation, and if any person acts in contravention of this regulation he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

2. Regulation 39B is hereby revoked and shall be omitted.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 6th day of March 1919, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being, or having been, an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the 19th day of March 1908, the retired pay of the Engineer-in-Chief of Your Majesty's Fleet was based upon that of his rank of Engineer Vice-Admiral or Engineer Rear-Admiral:

"And whereas we consider that in view of his important position as head of the Engineering Department of Your Majesty's Navy the Engineer-in-Chief should, in the same manner as other Heads of Departments, be granted on retirement a higher rate of retired pay than that allotted to his rank:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve of the Engineer-in-Chief, on retirement, being granted the retired pay of his rank with an addition of £50 for each complete year of service in the appointment up to a maximum of £950, discretion, however, being reserved to the Admiralty to grant the maximum after 3 years' service as Engineer-in-Chief, provided that the conduct of his duties has been satisfactory and that he has completed 30 years' service counting towards retired pay.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 1st day of March 1919, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are, from time to time, directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 10th day of November 1915, the Rating of Wiremen was established for the period of the War:

"And whereas we are of opinion that Wiremen Ratings 1st and 2nd Class should be eligible for progressive pay:

"We beg humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the establishment, as from the 10th day of June 1918, of the following rates of pay—

Wireman 2nd Class . . .	2s. 8d. a day,
Ditto over 3 years . . .	2s. 11d. a day,
Wireman 1st Class . . .	3s. 3d. a day,
Ditto over 3 years as such	3s. 6d. a day, time served in the obsolete rating of Armourer's Crew (Wireman) being allowed to count as service as Wireman 2nd Class.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 659 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (which is a Section in Part XI. of that Act and which re-enacts similar provisions, by the said Act repealed, of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854), it is (among other things) enacted that His Majesty may by Order in Council fix the establishments to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities an account of the services of light-houses, buoys and beacons, and that an increase of any establishment or part of an establishment so fixed shall not be made without the consent of the Board of Trade:

And whereas Her late Majesty by Order in Council, dated the 16th day of August 1886, made under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, was pleased to fix the establishment which might be maintained by the Corporation of Trinity House, Deptford Strond, and to make certain provisions in respect of appointments to the said establishment:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Order in Council should be varied in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Board of Trade have consented to such variation:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of any other powers Him thereunto enabling, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the age limit of 35 years provided by the said Order in Council of the 16th August 1886, in respect of appointments to Second Class Clerks made from the body of Lower Grade Clerks shall be and is hereby revoked as from the 1st September 1918.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that Mr. Charles Ward, one of the Extra Clerks on the said establishment, shall be eligible for promotion to the Lower Grade as from the 1st September 1918, and that his prior service as an Extra Clerk may count towards his subsequent superannuation notwithstanding the provisions in the said Order in Council respecting age on appointment and the counting towards superannuation of such service as an Extra Clerk.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 14th day of March 1919.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited:

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council, and by the Proclamations, dated respectively the 18th day of December 1918 and the 12th day of March 1919, the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, and by the Proclamation, dated respectively the 18th day of December 1918 and the 12th day of March 1919, should be further amended by making the following amendments in and additions to the Schedule to the same:—
