The Gazette is registered at the General Post Office for transmission by Inland Post as a newspaper. The postage rate to places within the United Kingdom, for each copy, is one halfpenny for the first 6 ozs., and an additional halfpenny for each subsequent 6 ozs. or part thereof. For places abroad the rate is a halfpenny for every 2 ounces, except in the case of Canada, to which the Canadian Magazine Postage rate applies.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1920.

Lord Chamberlain's Office,
St. James's Palace, S.W. 1,
1st April 1920.

THEIR MAJESTIES' COURTS, 1920.

REGULATIONS.

1. The King and Queen will hold two Courts during the coming season, one in the first week in June and one in the third week in June, for the presentation of ladies to Their Majesties.

2. Ladies who have themselves been presented, and who desire to be summoned to one of these Courts for the purpose of making presentations, are requested to make a written application to the Lord Chamberlain, St. James's Palace, S.W. 1, as soon as possible. The names of the ladies to be presented should be forwarded by the lady who wishes to make the presentations when she sends in her own name.

3. No applications can be received from ladies who wish to be presented. Their names must be forwarded by the ladies who wish to make the presentations.

4. A lady presented for the first time can only present her daughters or daughters-in-law at the Court at which she is presented.

5. Ladies may be accompanied to Court by their husbands if the latter have been presented, but gentlemen do not pass before The King and Queen. Ladies who wish to be accompanied by their husbands should state the fact in their applications, and they should also state if the ladies they desire to present wish to be accompanied by their husbands. Once the summons has been issued, the amending of a summons card in order to include a lady's husband can only be permitted under the most exceptional circumstances.

6. The Dress Regulations are:—Ladies: Court Dress without feathers and trains. Gentlemen: Full Court Dress.

It is urgently requested that all applications will be made strictly in accordance with the above Regulations.

SANDHURST,
Lord Chamberlain.

SPECIAL ACTS (EXTENSION OF TIME) ACT, 1915.

CALEDONIAN RAILWAY ORDERS.

Whereas by the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, it is provided, inter alia, that where the time within which a duty is to be performed or a power may be exercised under any Special Act is limited, an application may be made by or on behalf of the person by whom such duty is to be performed or by whom such power may be exercised to the appropriate Government Department for an Order extending that time, and that the Department, if satisfied that the time should be extended, may make an Order accordingly, and it is further provided
