Leasing of Land by persons under disability.

IX.—Persons empowered by the Lands Clauses Acts to sell and convey or dispose of lands may,

XI.—On receipt of the particulars of the interest of an existing tenant, the Authority shall within twenty-one days give notice to the tenant, stating whether the Authority desire to extinguish such interest or to take the land on lease subject thereto, and if the Authority fail to give such notice they shall be deemed to desire to extinguish such interest. Any interest of an existing tenant which is extinguished under the powers conferred by the Order shall be extinguished upon and by reason of the commencement of the tenancy of the Authority.

Compensation to existing tenants.

XII.—(1) An existing tenant whose interest in the land is extinguished upon and by reason of the commencement of the tenancy of the Authority shall be entitled to recover from the Authority compensation for the value of his interest in the land and for any just allowance which ought to be made to him by an incoming tenant, and for any loss or injury which the existing tenant may sustain, including any loss or injury caused to him in his tenancy by reason of the severance of the land to be taken on lease from other land held by him.

(2) If any person claim compensation in respect of any unexpired term or interest under any existing lease of lands specified in the Order, the Authority may require such person to produce the lease in respect of which such claim is made, or sufficient evidence thereof, and if, after demand made in writing by the Authority, such lease or such evidence thereof be not proceeded within twenty-one days, the party so claiming compensation shall be considered as a tenant holding only from year to year, and be entitled to compensation accordingly.

Damage by severance.

XV.—In determining the rent to be paid for land authorised to be compulsorily taken on lease, regard shall be had not only to the value of the land to be taken, but also to the damage (if any) to be sustained by the owner of the land by reason of its severance from other land of the same owner, or by reason of such other land being otherwise injuriously affected by the exercise of the powers conferred by the Order.

Execution of Lease.

XVI.—(1) As soon as the amount of the rent to be paid by the Authority for the land proposed to be taken on lease, and the amount of any other compensation to be paid by the Authority to any person entitled thereto in respect of such land or any interest therein or in respect of improvements executed on the land or otherwise, have been determined; so far as the same can be determined before the tenancy of the Authority commences, the owner shall on the application of the Authority execute a lease of the land in accordance with the Order and any award made thereunder, subject only to the interest of any existing tenant which the Authority have given notice that they do not desire to extinguish, and to any reservation or servitude, subject to which the land is to be leased, and if the owner refuses or after notice in writing by the Authority fails within one month to execute the lease, or if the owner of the land cannot after diligent inquiry be ascertained by the Authority, the Authority shall execute the lease in duplicate and shall forward one copy to the owner, if he can be found, and a lease so executed shall take effect as if it had been duly executed by the owner.

(2) A lease executed by the owner or by the Authority under this Regulation shall be binding on and have effect for the benefit of the owner and the Authority and all persons interested in the land included therein as from the date specified in the notice to treat given by the Authority to the owner of the land, and the Authority shall on the date so specified be entitled to enter on the land, subject to the interest of any existing tenant which is not to be extinguished by the lease.

Expenses of Execution of Lease.

XVII.—(1) Expenses reasonably incurred by the owner in connection with the preparation and execution of the lease and costs reasonably incurred by the owner or an existing tenant in furnishing any particulars of his right and interest required by notice under these Regulations or otherwise required by the Authority shall be paid by the Authority to the owner or tenant as the case may be.

(2) If the Authority and the person entitled to any such expenses do not agree as to the amount thereof, such amount shall be ascertained and decreed for by the Sheriff on a summary application made to him by the person entitled to recover the same; and the Authority shall pay what the Sheriff shall decree for in respect of such expenses, or in default thereof, the same may be recovered in the same way as any other expenses payable under an Order or Decree of the Sheriff; and the expense of such summary application shall be borne by the Authority unless one-sixth part of the amount claimed in the summary application shall be disallowed, in which case the expense of and incident to the application to the Sheriff shall be borne by the person whose expenses shall be so ascertained and decreed for, and the amount thereof shall be ascertained by the Sheriff and deducted by him accordingly.

Power to enforce right of entry and possession.

XVIII.—If in any case the Authority are authorised by the Order and these Regulations to enter upon and take possession of any land authorised to be compulsorily taken on lease and the owner or occupier thereof or any other person refuses to give up possession thereof, or hinders the Authority from taking possession of the same, the Sheriff upon summary application by the Authority may authorise and order possession of any such lands accordingly; and the expenses of and incident to such application, as ascertained and decreed for by the Sheriff shall be paid by the person wrongfully refusing to give or hindering possession; and the amount of such expenses shall be deducted and retained by the Authority from the compensation (if any) then payable to such person, or if the same be less than the amount of such expenses, then such expenses, or the excess thereof beyond such compensation, if not paid on demand, may be levied by pouncing and sale, and the Sheriff may issue his warrant accordingly.

Payment of Compensation.

XIX.—Any compensation, other than rent, payable by the Authority in respect of the taking of land on lease, including any compensation payable in respect of the interest of an existing tenant which is extinguished by such taking on lease, shall be payable by the Authority on the execution of the lease, or if payable in respect of any matter not then determined, on the date when it is duly determined, and shall, subject to any provision in the Order or these Regulations or the determination of the arbiter, be paid on demand to the owner or the existing tenant or other person entitled thereto, as the case may be.

XX.—Subject to any provision in the Order relating to mines and minerals, there shall, unless the owner and the Authority otherwise agree, be excepted and reserved out of the lease all the mines of coal, ironstone, slate, or other minerals within or under the land authorised to be taken on lease by the Authority, with full liberty and powers for the persons entitled to the said mines and minerals at all times during the lease by underground workings to win, work, and carry away the whole of the said mines and minerals, and also to carry away the produce of any other mines.

Title Deeds to be privileged.

XXI.—Except as in these Regulations expressly provided, any person interested in the determination of any matter under these Regulations shall not be required to produce to the arbiter or person making the determination, or to give him access to, any title deed or instrument.
