

cising any discretionary power given to the Comptroller under the Order of the Board of Trade, dated 19th July 1920, or these Rules adversely to any party, the Comptroller shall give ten days' notice, or such longer notice as he may think fit, to the party or parties as the case may be, of the time when he is prepared to hear such party or parties or their representatives.

EVIDENCE.

11. In lieu of or in addition to any oral evidence that may be given at a hearing, the Comptroller may require any party to file evidence by way of statutory declaration, and allow any declarant to be cross-examined on his declaration.

COSTS.

12. The Comptroller may award costs in any proceedings under these Rules, and direct how and by what parties they are to be paid. Further, in any case in which he thinks fit, the Comptroller may require any person initiating proceedings to give security for costs, and in the event of such security not being forthcoming, may dismiss the application in question.

Dated this 24th day of July 1920.

R. S. HORNE,
President of the Board of Trade.
