And whereas by Section 40 (2) of the Representation of the People Act, 1918, any Order in Council made thereunder may be revoked or varied as occasion requires by any subsequent Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by the said Acts and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

The Representation of the People Order shall be amended as follows:—

2. Rule 22 and rule 42 shall be omitted on and after the date on which they cease to have effect by virtue of the provisions of any Act which becomes law during the present Session and which may be cited as the Representation of the People Act (No. 2) Act, 1920, and such Act is in this Order referred to as the Representation of the People (No. 2) Act, 1920.

3. Sub-section (2) of rule 23 shall be omitted.

4. The foregoing rule shall be substituted for rule 24:—

"24. "Provided that where the registration officer requires further information to enable him to issue a proxy paper and the name of any person is given in the form of application as authorised to make an application giving such further information as may be necessary to enable a proxy paper to be issued to the person or one of the persons nominated, the registration officer shall apply to the person so named for such further information.

"If at the expiration of the said seven days no notice is received intimating that the “Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas by Your Majesty's Orders in Council bearing dates the 29th October 1914, the 10th January 1917, the 13th March 1917, the 19th May 1917, the 8th August 1917, the 27th September 1918, the 8th November 1918, the 14th January 1919, the 28th March 1919, the 11th July 1919, and the 28th June 1920, sanction was given to the payment of Separation Allowances and kindred allowances to the wives and in respect of the children of Seamen, Marines and Reservists borne on the books of Your Majesty's Ships, and of Marines on shore strength and of Coast Guard ratings, and to other persons actually dependent upon them :

“And whereas we consider it desirable that as from the beginning of October next these allowances should be replaced by a Marriage Allowance payable only to the legal wives and in respect of the legitimate children or step-children of married men :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the continuance of existing allowances under present conditions to the 6th October 1920, and thereafter the payment of Marriage Allowance at the rates and under the conditions set forth in the following schedule, for men recruited in the United Kingdom and for men recruited elsewhere at our discretion, and at such rates within the scale shown in the schedule as we may from time to time decide.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”
