FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1921.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of June 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day The Right Honourable Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister of Canada, and The Right Honourable Sir Horace George Montagu Rumbold, Bt., K.C.M.G., M.V.O., having been appointed Members of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 13th day of October and the 9th day of November 1920, respectively, were, by His Majesty's command, sworn, and took their places at the Board accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by the Emergency Powers Act, 1920, it is enacted that if it appears to Us that any action has been taken or is immediately threatened by any persons or body of persons of such a nature and on so extensive a scale as to be calculated, by interfering with the supply and distribution of food, water, fuel or light, or with the means of locomotion, to deprive the community, or any substantial portion of the community, of the essentials of life, We may, by proclamation, declare that a state of emergency exists :

And whereas on the twenty-seventh day of May last, We did, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, declare by proclamation, in pursuance of the said Act, that a state of emergency existed :

And whereas it is enacted by the said Act that no such proclamation shall be in force for more than one month, without prejudice to the issue of another proclamation at or before the end of that period :

And whereas the continued cessation of work in Coal Mines does, in Our opinion, constitute a state of emergency within the meaning of the said Act :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby declare that a state of emergency exists.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and in the Twelfth year of Our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of June 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Emergency Powers Act, 1920, it is provided, amongst other things, as follows:—

“1. (1) If at any time it appears to His Majesty that any action has been taken or is immediately threatened by any persons or body of persons of such a nature and on so extensive a scale as to be calculated, by interfering with the supply and distribution of food, water, fuel, or light, or with the means of locomotion, to deprive the community, or any substantial portion of the community, of the essentials of life, His Majesty may, by proclamation (hereinafter referred to as a proclamation of emergency), declare that a state of emergency exists.

“No such proclamation shall be in force for more than one month, without prejudice to the issue of another proclamation at or before the end of that period.

“(2) Where a proclamation of emergency has been made the occasion thereof shall forthwith be communicated to Parliament, and, if Parliament is then separated by such adjournment or prorogation as will not expire within five days, a proclamation shall be issued for the meeting of Parliament within five days, and Parliament shall accordingly meet and sit upon the day appointed by that proclamation, and shall continue to sit and act in like manner as if it had stood adjourned or prorogued to the same day.

“2. (1) Where a proclamation of emergency has been made, and so long as the proclamation is in force, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order, to make regulations for securing the essentials of life to the community, and those regulations may confer or impose on a Secretary of State or other Government Department, or any other persons in His Majesty's service or acting on His Majesty's behalf, such powers and duties as His Majesty may deem necessary for the preservation of the peace, for securing and regulating the supply and distribution of food, water, fuel, light, and other necessities, for maintaining the means of transit or locomotion, and for any other purposes essential to the public safety and the life of the community, and may make such provisions incidental to the powers aforesaid as may appear to His Majesty to be required for making the exercise of those powers effective:

“Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorise the making of any regulations imposing any form of compulsory military service or industrial conscription:

“Provided also that no such regulation shall make it an offence for any person or persons to take part in a strike, or peacefully to persuade any other person or persons to take part in a strike.”

And whereas a Proclamation of Emergency under the said Act was made by His Majesty on the 31st day of March 1921, which remained in force for one month, namely, until the 30th day of April 1921; and His Majesty in Council, by Order, was pleased to make the Emergency

Regulations, 1921, which were continued, subject to certain omissions, by Resolutions of both Houses of Parliament, but ceased to have effect at the same time as the said Proclamation:

And whereas a further Proclamation of Emergency was made by His Majesty on the said 30th day of April 1921, which remained in force for one month, namely, until the 29th day of May 1921; and His Majesty in Council, by Order, was pleased to make the Emergency Regulations (No. 2), 1921, which were continued without amendment by Resolutions of both Houses of Parliament, but ceased to have effect at the same time as the said Proclamation:

And whereas a further Proclamation of Emergency was made by His Majesty on the 27th day of May 1921, which continues in force until this day; and His Majesty in Council, by Order, was pleased to make the Emergency Regulations (No. 3), 1921, which were continued without amendment by Resolutions of both Houses of Parliament, but will cease to have effect at the same time as the said Proclamation:

And whereas a new Proclamation of Emergency under the said Act has this day been made by His Majesty, and is now in force:

And whereas in pursuance of the powers above recited it is expedient to make such provision as hereinafter appears:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Minister of Transport, the Board of Trade and any other Department approved by His Majesty for the purpose, and any person duly authorised by a department on whom powers are conferred by this regulation, where it appears necessary to do so, to take possession of any land, buildings or works (including works for the supply of gas, electricity or water and of any sources of water supply) and any property (including plant, machinery, equipment and stores) used or intended to be used in connection therewith.

If after any such department or person has issued a notice that that department or person has taken or intends to take possession of any moveable property in pursuance of this regulation, any person having control of any such property, sells, removes or secretes it without the consent of the department or person he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

2. material, stores or article without the consent of the department sells, removes or secretes the same, or deals therewith in any way contrary to any conditions imposed in any licence, permit or order that may have been granted in respect thereof, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

2A. During the continuance in force of these regulations the powers conferred by section 108A of the Army Act and section 108A of the Air Force Act with respect to billeting may, notwithstanding that directions have not been given for embodying all or any part of the Territorial Force, be exercised in the same manner in all respects as if such directions had been given.

3.—(1) The Minister of Transport may by order:—

(2) Any order under this regulation may be made so as to apply either generally to all horses and vehicles or to horses or vehicles of any class, or to horses or vehicles belonging to any particular owner.

(3) For the purpose of testing the accuracy of any return made to the Minister under this regulation, or of obtaining information in the case of failure to make a return, or to give any prescribed notice, any person authorised in that behalf by the Minister may enter any premises belonging to or in the occupation of the person who has made or has failed to make the return, or on which the person so authorised has reason to believe that any horses or vehicles with respect to which a return has been required under this regulation are kept and may carry out such inspection and examination (including the inspection and examination of books) as he may consider necessary for testing the accuracy of the return, or for obtaining such information.

(4) No individual return or part of a return made, and no information obtained, under this regulation, shall, without lawful authority, be published or disclosed by any person except for the purpose of a prosecution under this regulation.

(5) If in any case the Minister is of opinion that it is expedient to obtain information from any person in connection with any horses or vehicles, the Minister may, without making an order for the purpose, require or authorise any person on his behalf to require that person to furnish him or any person so authorised with that information, and where the Minister or any person so authorised so requires any information to be furnished the provisions of this regulation shall apply to information furnished and the furnishing of the information as they apply to returns made and the making of returns.

Where any such order has been made, the Minister or any such person or body of persons may take possession of such portions of the rolling-stock, materials or plant of such undertaking as they may require, and may remove them and make use of them for the purposes of any other tramway or light railway.

(2) The Minister of Transport may, by order restrict in such manner as may be specified in the order the traffic on any tramway or light railway.

(2) Where the person guilty of any such offence is a corporation, company or society, any director, officer or trustee, or other person concerned with the management thereof, shall be guilty of the like offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or consent.

(3) For the purpose of the trial of a person for an offence under these regulations, such offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place in which the same actually was committed or at any place in which the offender may be, and the court in Scotland shall be the sheriff court.

27. (1) Any police constable may arrest without warrant any person who so acts as to endanger the public safety, or who is guilty or is suspected of being guilty of an offence against these regulations.

(2) Any police constable may, if authorised by order of a Secretary of State or of a chief officer of police, enter, if need be by force, any premises or place suspected of being used for purposes so endangering the public safety, and may search any part of such place or premises, and may seize and detain anything found therein which is suspected of being used for such purposes as aforesaid, and deal with the things so seized in such manner as the Secretary of State may determine.

(3) Any police constable may search any person whom he believes to be in possession of, or to be using or carrying any article, the possession use or carrying of which by such person is an offence against these regulations, and may seize and detain any such article found on such person.

(4) Any police constable may stop and search any vehicle which he has reason to suspect to be used for any purpose prejudicial to the public safety, or contrary to these regulations, or to be carrying any article, the possession, use or carrying of which is an offence against these regulations, and may seize and detain any such vehicle or any such article found therein.

(5) In the application of this regulation to Scotland "the Secretary for Scotland" shall be substituted for "a Secretary of State."

28. Any person who attempts to commit, or solicits, or incites, or endeavours to persuade another person to commit, or procures, aids, or abets, or does any act preparatory to, the commission of any act prohibited by these regulations, or any order, directions, rules, or other instrument made thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

29. The Secretary of State may by order direct that during such period as may be specified in the order the time for general purposes in Great Britain shall be two hours in advance of Greenwich mean time, and during the period so fixed, if this regulation so long continues in force, any Order in Council in force under the Summer Time Act, 1916, as continued by the War Emergency Laws Continuance Act, 1920, shall have effect in Great Britain as if "two hours" were substituted for "one hour" in subsection (1) of section one of the first-mentioned Act.

30. If the fulfilment by any person of any contract is interfered with by the necessity on the part of himself or any other person of complying with these regulations or any order or direction thereunder, that necessity shall be a good defence to any action or proceedings taken against that person in respect of the non-fulfilment of the contract so far as it is due to that interference.

31. (1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression "chief officer of police"—

(a) with respect to any place in England or Wales, other than the City of London, has the meaning assigned to it by the Police Act, 1890;

(b) with respect to the City of London, means the Commissioner of the City Police;

(c) with respect to Scotland, has the meaning assigned to it by the Police (Scotland) Act, 1890; and the expression "police constable" includes a special constable.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to these regulations as though they were an Act of Parliament.

32. (1) Where by any Order in Council or by any Resolution of both Houses of Parliament, for the time being in force, any regulations or words are directed to be added to or omitted from these regulations, or to be substituted for any other regulations or words in these regulations, then copies of these regulations, printed under the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office, after such direction takes effect, may be printed with the regulations or words added or omitted or substituted for other regulations or words, as such direction requires, and with the regulations and paragraphs thereof numbered in accordance with such direction; and these regulations shall be construed as if they had, at the time when such direction takes effect, been made with such addition, omission or substitution.

(2) A reference in any document to these regulations or to any provisions thereof shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as referring to these regulations as amended by any Order in Council or Resolution of both Houses of Parliament for the time being in force.

33. (1) The powers conferred by these regulations shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any prerogative right or other power vested in His Majesty.

(2) Any powers conferred on any department or person by any of these regulations shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other powers of that department or person whether conferred by statute, regulation or otherwise.

(3) Any order of any government department in force at the date of these regulations under the Defence of the Realm Regulations whether as originally made or as incorporated in or continued by any Act of Parliament shall, unless revoked or varied, continue in force notwithstanding anything in these regulations and shall, if the department so directs, have effect as if made under these regulations.

(4) Any order, direction or instrument which may be made or given by any government department or other authority under these regulations may be added to, revoked or varied from time to time by such department or authority while these regulations continue in force.

(5) Any permission or direction given, or order, requirement or appointment made, authority issued, approval given, or other action taken under the Emergency Regulations, 1921, the Emergency Regulations (No. 2) 1921, or the Emergency Regulations (No. 3), 1921, shall be deemed to have been exercised, given, made, granted or taken under the corresponding provisions of these regulations.

34. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Emergency Regulations (No. 4), 1921.

(2) These regulations do not apply to Ireland.
