In pursuance of Article 239 of the Treaty of Trianon the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal between the British Empire and Hungary has been constituted, and is about to commence work in London. An important part of the work of the Tribunal will be to decide upon claims in respect of debts under Section III. of Part X. of the Treaty, where a difference arises between British and Hungarian nationals or between the British and Hungarian Clearing Offices. By the Treaty, the High Contracting Powers have agreed that their courts and authorities shall render to the Tribunal direct all the assistance in their power, particularly as regards transmitting notices and collecting evidence; and they have also agreed to regard the decisions of the Tribunal as final and conclusive and to render them binding upon their nationals.

The British Government has provided headquarters for the Tribunal in Winchester House, 21 St. James's Square, S.W. 1. Mr. Claude Mullins, barrister-at-law, is the British Secretary.
