

who have served in the Navy, Army or Air Force between 4th August 1914 and 11th November 1918, may deduct from their actual age any period of service between 4th August 1914 and 31st December 1919. Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the Examination.

2. A candidate must be a natural-born British subject and the son of a father also a natural-born British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of candidates serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, and provided that exception as to the father may be made in the case of candidates who served in His Majesty's Armed Forces during the Great War.

3. (i) The following persons are ineligible, viz. :—

Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of less than five years' service.

(ii) The following classes of persons are eligible under certain conditions only, that is to say :—

- (a) Persons actually serving in the Army ;
- (b) Persons actually serving in the Navy ;
- (c) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service ;
- (d) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of more than five years' service ;
- (e) Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards ;
- (f) Persons who have entered upon or completed a course of education or training for the occupation of teacher, on account of which grants are payable from the Exchequer.

No person actually serving in the Army will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the Examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Army Council.

No person actually serving in the Navy will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the Examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Persons comprised in the classes (c), (d), (e) must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the Examination before the commencement of the competition.

Persons comprised in class (f) will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. Candidates will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are duly qualified in respect of health and character.

5. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

1. English.
2. General Knowledge.
3. Mathematics.
4. Electricity.
5. Telegraphy and Telephony.
6. Personal Qualities.

The Examination may be held in one part or in two parts, at the discretion of the Civil Service Commissioners. In the latter case the first part of the Examination will be used to reduce the number of competitors to be admitted to the second part. Of those who obtain the highest aggregate marks on the first part, a certain number, to be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners, will be admitted to the second part of the Examination. The successful list will consist of those candidates who obtain the highest aggregate marks on the whole Examination.

6. Applications for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

7. A fee of £3 will be required from every candidate.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Bristol and Leeds under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 1st December 1921.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of declaring the result of the Examination.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 20th October, an application, in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
