REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE IMPORTATION OF PLANTS, OR PARTS THEREOF, INTO SCOTLAND.

1. Nature of Contents of Packages to be Declared.

Each package must have attached thereto a label showing the exact nature of the plants, or parts thereof, contained in the package. This may be part of the copy certificate of inspection, if attached to the package.

2. Inspection and Certification as a Condition of Entry.

(a) In the case of an importation of plants, or parts thereof, from a country where a recognised service of plant inspection is maintained, each package must have attached thereto or be accompanied by a copy certificate issued at the time of packing, by a duly authorised official of the country from which it is exported, stating the date of inspection (which must be not more than thirty days prior to the date of shipment) and that the plants, or parts thereof, covered by the certificate have been thoroughly inspected by him or under his direction, and found, or believed to be, healthy and free from the injurious insects and pests mentioned in the Second Schedule to the Order. In the case of potatoes, other than "new potatoes," the copy certificate must also declare that Wart Disease has not occurred on the place where the potatoes were grown, or within 500 yards thereof (approximately $\frac{1}{2}$ kilometre). For the purpose of these Regulations the expression "new potatoes" means potatoes landed on or before the thirty-first day of July in the year in which they have been lifted. New potatoes must be accompanied by a declaration in writing by the exporter or importer thereof that they have been lifted in the current year.

An Inspector of the Board of Agriculture for Scotland may open and examine the contents of any package imported into Scotland, notwithstanding the fact that the package may have attached thereto or be accompanied by the duly authorised copy certificate.

(b) In the case of an importation of plants, or parts thereof, from a country where no recognised service of plant inspection is maintained, and in the case of a package of plants, or parts thereof, to which a copy certificate as above mentioned is not attached, or which is not accompanied by such copy certificate, the plants, or parts thereof, will be detained until they have been examined by an Inspector of the Board of Agriculture for Scotland, either at the port of entry or at a suitable place designated by the Inspector, and found to be healthy and free from the insects and pests mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Order.

3. Any imported plants, or parts thereof, which, on inspection, are found to be unhealthy or attacked by any insect or pest mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Order, and which, in the judgment of the Inspector, cannot be cleaned by disinfection or other treatment, shall, with the packing and package, either be destroyed or returned to the country of exportation by the importer thereof.

When disinfection or other treatment of the plants, or parts thereof, is allowed, it shall be carried out by the importer, and under the supervision of an Inspector of the Board of Agriculture for Scotland, either at the port of entry or at a suitable place designated by the Inspector, and no part of the consignment shall be delivered to the importer without the written consent of the Inspector. All charges for storage, cartage and labour incident to inspection and disinfection, other than the services of the Inspector himself, shall be paid by the importer.

4. Exporters in foreign countries should send, at the time of issue, the original certificate together with particulars setting out the number of packages, nature of plants or parts thereof, name of vessel by which they are consigned, port of entry, and the approximate date of arrival at the port of entry, to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture for Scotland, 29 St. Andrew Square, Edinburgh.

5. Plants or parts thereof will not be deemed to be healthy which are attacked by any insect or pest mentioned in the Schedule to the Sale of Diseased Plants (Scotland) Order of 1921.

Note.—Any Article landed in contravention of the Order is liable to forfeiture under the Customs Acts, and the offender is liable to the penalties imposed by those Acts on persons importing prohibited Articles.
