SOUTH-EASTERN COUNTIES OF SCOTLAND SANATORIUM BOARD ORDER, 1922, dated 8th June 1922, made by the Scottish Board of Health under Section 64 (3) of the National Insurance Act, 1911.

Whereas, by Order dated 12th December 1913 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") made by the Local Government Board for Scotland under Sub-Section (3) of Section 64 (as applied to Scotland by Section 60) of the National Insurance Act, 1911, which Order was amended by the Order dated 10th June 1921, made by the Scottish Board of Health, it is provided that the County Councils of the Counties of Berwick, Haddington (East Lothian), Linlithgow, Midlothian, Peebles, Roxburgh and Selkirk, shall be combined for the purposes of (1) providing, furnishing, managing and maintaining a central institution or sanatorium, such institution to include a sanatorium proper, hospital and clearing-house or observation wards, and (2) making such other provision as may, subject to the approval of the said Board, be deemed necessary by the Joint Board constituted in terms of the said Order to be made at or in connection with the said central institution or sanatorium for the treatment, isolation and observation primarily of persons in these Counties suffering from or suspected of tuberculosis, and that the provision of such central institution or sanatorium, and the furnishing, management and maintenance thereof, shall be undertaken by a Joint Board to be called the South-Eastern Counties of Scotland Joint Sanatorium Board:

And whereas the Scottish Board of Health have, after consultation with the South-Eastern Counties of Scotland Joint Sanatorium Board, resolved to amend the principal Order as hereinafter contained:

Therefore, We, the Scottish Board of Health, by virtue of the powers competent to Us under the enactment before referred to, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf, do hereby Order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the South-Eastern Counties of Scotland Joint Sanatorium Board Order, 1922, and shall be read as one with the principal Order.

2. The Joint Board shall consist of fifty members instead of forty-seven members, and of the said fifty members six shall be appointed by the County Council of the County of East Lothian, and Article 2 of the principal Order shall have effect accordingly.

3. Article 9 of the principal Order shall have effect, and shall be deemed always to have had effect, as if the following paragraph were substituted for paragraph (1) thereof, and such financial adjustments as may be necessary to give effect to this substitution shall be made accordingly:—

"(1) The charges in respect of capital expenditure incurred for the purposes of this Order (including the initial cost of the acquisition of the site of the Sanatorium) shall be defrayed by the Combining Authorities in proportion to the number of beds provided for each, such number to be as follows:—Berwick, 16; East Lothian, 32; West Lothian, 56; Midlothian, 57; Peebles, 10; Roxburgh, 15; Selkirk, 13. The Combining Authorities shall have a right preferential as against any persons or bodies other than the Combining Authorities to acquire additional beds in the future out of the excess accommodation which may exist at the Sanatorium from time to time, and that on terms to be arranged. In the event of extensions to the Sanatorium being at any time required involving the provision of additional beds, the cost thereof shall be defrayed by the Combining Authorities in proportion to the number of additional beds provided for each in such extensions."

Given under the Official Seal of the Scottish Board of Health this eighth day of June nineteen hundred and twenty-two.
