

the necessary modifications, be deemed to be applicable.

3. (1) For the purpose of the operation of the Juries Act, 1922, in the year 1922, the following shall be substituted for the first paragraph of subsection (4) of section one of that Act :—

“(4) If any person who is marked as a juror or as a special juror in the Autumn Register for the year 1922 claims that by reason of some disqualification or exemption he ought not to be so marked, he may at any time after publication of the Register and not later than the 25th day of October 1922, apply to the registration officer to have the mark placed against his name removed.”

(2) If the registration officer complies with any application made to him under subsection (4) of section one of the said Act as modified by this Order he shall forthwith notify the sheriff in writing of his decision, and in the case of every such application shall notify in writing his decision thereon to the applicant not later than the 10th day of November 1922.

(3) Notice of the dates fixed by virtue of and in consequence of this provision with respect to applications to the registration officer and appeals to a court of summary jurisdiction shall be published at the time of publication of the Register at all places where copies of the register are kept for inspection and in such other places as the registration officer may think fit.

4. This Order may be cited as the Juries Order, 1922.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of June 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Part II. of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, provision has been made for the reciprocal enforcement of judgments in the United Kingdom and in other parts of His Majesty's dominions :

And whereas by the said Act it is amongst other things provided that where His Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature of any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that part of His dominions of judgments obtained in the High Court in England, the Court of Session in Scotland, and the High Court in Ireland, His Majesty may by Order in Council declare that the said part of that Act shall extend to that part of His dominions, and that on any such Order being made the said part of that Act shall extend accordingly :

And whereas by the said Act it is further provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council declare that the said part of that Act shall apply to any territory which is under His Majesty's protection, or in respect of which a mandate is being exercised by the Government of any part of His Majesty's dominions, as if that territory were part of His Majesty's dominions, and that on the making of any such Order the said part of that Act shall, subject to the provisions of the Order, have effect accordingly :

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Legislatures of the territories which are under His Majesty's protection hereinafter mentioned have made reciprocal provisions for the enforcement within those territories of judgments obtained in the High Court in England, the Court of Session in Scotland, and the High Court in Ireland :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Part II. of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, shall extend to the territories under His Majesty's protection hereunder mentioned :—

Northern Rhodesia.
Uganda Protectorate.

And the Right Honourable Winston Spencer Churchill, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
