PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council to define the limits of a Dockyard Port for the purposes of that Act, and to make regulations in relation to any Dockyard Port for all or any of the purposes in the said Act particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to

And whereas it appears expedient to amend such Rules as hereinafter provided:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of February 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 (7 Edw. 7, c. 29), as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914 (4 and 5 Geo. 5, c. 18), and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919 (9 and 10 Geo. 5, c. 80), it is enacted as follows:—

"91.—(1) If His Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government of any Foreign State for mutual protection of inventions, or designs, or trade marks, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention design or trade mark in that State, or his legal representative or assignee, shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905, in priority to other applicants; and the patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in the Foreign State.

" Provided that—

" (a) The application is made in the case of a patent within 12 months and in the case of a design or trade mark within 4 months, from the application for protection in the Foreign State; and

" (b) Nothing in this Section shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the actual date of which his complete specification is accepted, or his design or trade mark is registered, in this country.

" (2) The patent granted for the invention or the registration of a design or trade mark shall not be invalidated:—

" (a) In the case of a patent, by reason only of the publication of a description of, or use of, the invention; or

" (b) In the case of a design, by reason only of the exhibition or use of, or the publication of a description or representation of, the design; or

" (c) In the case of a trade mark, by reason only of the use of the trade mark, in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man during the period specified in this Section as that within which the application may be made.

" (3) The application for the grant of a patent, or the registration of a design, or the registration of a trade mark under this Section, must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905:—

" Provided that—

" (a) In the case of patents the application shall be accompanied by a complete specification, which, if it is not accepted within the 12 months from the application for protection in the Foreign State, shall with the drawings (if any) be open to public inspection at the expiration of that period; and

" (b) In the case of trade marks, any trade mark the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin may be registered under the Trade Marks Act, 1905.

" (4) The provisions of this Section shall apply only in the case of those Foreign States with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council declares them to be applicable, and so long only in the case of each State as the Order in Council continues in force with respect to that State.

" (5) Where it is made to appear to His Majesty that the Legislature of any British Possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs or trade marks, patented or registered in this country, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to apply the provision of this Section to that Possession, with such variations or additions, if any, as may be stated in the Order":

And whereas by Section 103 of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by Section 6 of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by Section 1 of the Patents Act, 1901, and since repealed by Section 98 of the said Patents and Designs Act, 1907, provisions were made to the same or like effect as those above set forth as contained in Section 91 of the last-mentioned Act and by the said Section 98 it was provided that "this repeal shall not affect any Convention, Order in Council, Rule, or Table of Fees having effect under any enactment so repealed, but any such Convention, Order in Council, Rules, or Table of Fees in force at the commencement of this Act shall continue in force and may be repealed, altered or amended, as if it had been made under this Act":

And whereas it pleased Her late Majesty Queen Victoria to make an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said Section 103 and in virtue of a declaration signed and sealed by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, on the 17th March 1884, duly conveying the accession of Great Britain and Ireland to the International Convention and Protocol for the protection of Industrial Property, signed by Representatives of certain Powers on the 20th March 1883, and duly ratified on the 6th June 1884, power being reserved to Her Majesty to accede thereafter to the provisions of the said Convention and Protocol on behalf of the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, and any of Her Majesty's Possessions, which Declaration of Accession was duly accepted by the French Government on behalf of the Signatory Powers by and in virtue of a Declaration dated the 2nd April 1884:

And whereas on the 14th December 1900, at Brussels, an Additional Act was agreed upon between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the Heads of the Foreign Countries parties thereto for the purpose of modifying certain of the provisions of the said International Convention and the Protocol annexed thereto, the ratification of which Additional Act was duly effected:

And whereas by a Convention signed at Washington on the 2nd June 1911, His Majesty and the Heads of the Foreign States named therein agreed to make certain modifications in and additions to the said Convention dated 20th March 1883, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December 1900, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other States:

And whereas by various Orders in Council Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His late Majesty King Edward VII. and His present Majesty have been pleased to declare that the hereinbefore mentioned provisions of the said Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Acts, 1883 (as amended), should apply to the several Foreign Countries named in the said Orders parties to the said Convention and Protocols:

And whereas the Republic of Esthonia has acceded to the said International Convention Protocol and Additional Act as revised at Washington on 2nd June 1911:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers in Him vested by the above-recited provisions, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907, as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914, and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919, shall apply to the Republic of Esthonia.

2. This Order shall take effect as from the 12th February 1924.

Civil Service Commission,
February 22nd 1924.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE APPOINTMENT BY COMPETITIVE SELECTION OF ASSISTANT LIVE STOCK OFFICERS (NON-ESTABLISHED) AND LIVE STOCK OFFICERS (ESTABLISHED) UNDER THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. Vacancies in the (non-established) grade of Assistant Live Stock Officer will be filled in accordance with the procedure laid down in these Regulations. Vacancies in the (established) grade of Live Stock Officer will be normally filled by the promotion of Assistant Live Stock Officers, but in the event of officers of that grade not being suitable for promotion, such vacancies will similarly be filled in accordance with these Regulations.

2. Application for appointment shall be made in the first instance to the Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by the Ministry. When a vacancy occurs the Ministry will cause notice to be given by advertisement in the Press, which will include a statement of the last day fixed for the receipt of applications.

3. A candidate for the post of Assistant Live Stock Officer must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 35 on the last day fixed for the receipt of applications; provided that in reckoning age for this purpose a candidate who served in the Army, Navy or Air Force between the 4th August 1914 and the 11th November 1918, may deduct from his actual age any period of service between the 4th August 1914 and the 31st December 1919. For the post of Live Stock Officer (when filled otherwise than by the promotion of an Assistant Live Stock Officer), the limits of age are 25 and 40.

4. A candidate must be a natural-born British subject and the child of a father also a natural born British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of candidates serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, and provided that exception may be made as regards the father in the case of candidates who served in His Majesty's Armed Forces during the Great War between the 4th August 1914 and the 11th November 1918.

5. Until further notice preference will be given to candidates who served in His Majesty's Forces during the War between the 4th August 1914 and the 11th November 1918.

No person will be eligible who obtained from any tribunal established under the Military Service Acts, 1916 to 1918, exemption from service in His Majesty's forces under those Acts on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of military service, or, although not so exempted, declined to comply with obligations imposed upon him by those Acts.

6. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

7. A candidate must satisfy the Ministry as to his practical knowledge and experience of farming and of stock-breeding, especially of the breeding and the management of pedigree stock (including Dairy Cattle). He should also have had experience of milk-recording.

8. The completed application forms will be scrutinised by the Ministry and selected candidates will be interviewed by a Board consisting of representatives of the Ministry and of the Civil Service Commissioners, who will recommend those candidates whom they consider most suitable for appointment by the Ministry.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's previous work.

9. The candidates who are appointed will serve on probation, subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners that they are eligible for appointment in respect of age, nationality, health and character, and, in the case of Live Stock Officers, to the payment of a fee of £4.

10. Service as an Assistant Live Stock Officer or as a Live Stock Officer will be probationary for a period of two years, and the retention of an officer beyond that period will be conditional on his passing a prescribed examination after the expiry of that period.

11. After passing the examination a Live Stock Officer is eligible for appointment to the established staff, and an Assistant Live Stock Officer is eligible for consideration for promotion to the grade of (established) Live Stock Officer if and when a vacancy occurs therein.

Appointment to the established staff is conditional on the issue by the Civil Service Commissioners of a certificate of qualification; a fee of £8 is payable before the certificate of qualification can be issued, towards which any fee paid on appointment under the provisions of Clause 9 of these Regulations will be allowed to count.

*Civil Service Commission,
February 22nd 1924.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that, on the application of the Head of the Department, and with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the undermentioned situation has been added to the Schedule appended to the Order in Council of the 22nd July 1920, namely:—
